Lindsey-Billingsley,2019-12-13 The author T Lindsey Billingsley has compiled a no nonsense philosophical study guide exploring racial origins the African origins of humanity and prehistoric Kemetic influence throughout the world The main focus of these studies is on the anthropological and physiological makeup of racial groups with indepth research into both the Out of Africa theories and divine creationism myths Billingsley supplies concrete evidence to support her conclusions on the true human experience in lieu of popular speculation and theory devoid of logic and sound proof In this and subsequent volumes the author will establish a new perspective of thinking that will tempt you to challenge the validity of theological creationism and evolution whilst substantiating a strong position on intelligent design and extraterrestrial intervention

Why Africa? Bona Udeze,2009 Why Africa an abstract first painted in 1993 and reproduced in collage in 2004 is variously described by his admirers as an emotional revelation The work depicts the African question problems and prospects including political instability corruption and poverty in the midst of rich natural and human resources Thus Why Africa inspired him to write a book on the subject applying his creativity with a unique perspective on the African case Bona has written one book unpublished titled The Ancient and Modern 1992 a story on Urualla his ancestral origin in Nigeria

Directory of World Cinema: Africa Sheila Petty,2014-01-01 Eschewing the postcolonial hubris that suggests Africa could only define itself in relation to its colonizers a problem plaguing many studies published in the West on African cinema this entry in the Directory of World Cinema series instead looks at African film as representing Africa for its own sake values and artistic choices With a film industry divided by linguistic heritage African directors do not have the luxury of producing comedies thrillers horror films or even love stories except perhaps as DVDs that do not travel far outside their country of production Instead African directors tend to cover serious sociopolitical ground even under the cover of comedy in the hopes of finding funds outside Africa Contributors to this volume draw on filmic representations of the continent to consider the economic role of women rural exodus economic migration refugees and diasporas culture religion and magic as well as representations of children music languages and symbols A survey of national cinemas in one volume Directory of World Cinema Africa is a necessary addition to the bookshelf of any cinephile and world traveller

Hollywood and Africa Opio Dokotum,2020-02-05 Hollywood and Africa recycling the Dark Continent myth from 19082020 is a study of over a century of stereotypical Hollywood film productions about Africa It argues that the myth of the Dark Continent continues to influence Western cultural productions about Africa as a cognitive based system of knowledge especially in history literature and film Hollywood and Africa identifies the colonial mastertext of the Dark Continent mythos by providing a historiographic genealogy and context for the terms development and consolidation An array of literary and paraliterary film adaptation theories are employed to analyse the deep genetic strands of HollywoodAfrica film adaptations The mutations of the Dark Continent mythos across time and space are then tracked through the classical neoclassical and new wave HollywoodAfrica phases in order to illustrate how Hollywood productions about Africa recycle revise reframe reinforce transpose interrogate and even critique these tropes of Darkest Africa while sustaining the colonial mastertext and rising cyberactivism against Hollywoods whitewashing of African history
