The Equitable Cultural Tourism Handbook Dr. Alf H. Walle, 2010-03-01 The goal of this book is to deal in a provocative way with a number of key issues involving the increased participation of the private sector within cultural tourism My goal is not to write a complete overview of the field Instead this short book deals with a fairly circumscribed set of issues involving contemporary changes within cultural tourism Since modern business largely focuses on serving customers a major focus of this book concerns marketing thought and its implications in regard to cultural tourism In large measure this book seeks to help host communities and their advocates to become familiar with and comfortable within a private sector context as well as being able to interact in such an environment The book starts with a two chapter introduction that focuses upon the distinctive role of cultural tourism As emphasized in chapter 1 a dilemma arises because cultural tourism must simultaneously serve multiple stakeholders and do so in equitable ways This is much more complex than the more typical task of concentrating upon the needs wants and desires of customers These ideas are refined in chapter 2 where the discussion centers primarily upon the importance of serving host communities in addition to customers Certainly catering to customers continues to be an issue but it should be envisioned as an ad hoc method of serving the host community

Handbook of Marketing and Society Paul N. Bloom, Gregory Thomas Gundlach, 2001 Marketing scholars have a long history of conducting research on how marketing affects the welfare of society A significant body of knowledge has developed to look beyond marketing's impact on the corporate bottom line towards the affects of marketing on consumer sovereignty public health economic growth and other aspect of societal welfare The large and growing amount of research has become fragmented and diverse There is a need for a volume to pull all of this research together to facilitate the assessment of what we have learned and what we need to study further This volume fills that need Handbook of Marketing and Society presents the first comprehensive in depth examination of scholarly research on how marketing affects societal welfare Drawing on the talents of a distinguished group of contributors the editors have assembled key reviews analyses and perspectives on a broad range of research topics including deceptive advertising warning labels trademark infringement antitrust enforcement environmental labels privacy protection social marketing and corporate societal marketing An unifying model is presented in the introduction that illustrates the linkage of marketing knowledge marketing decisions and societal welfare Each chapter covers in a purposeful way a different link or path through which marketing can affect societal welfare Future research needs are identified in each chapter in order to help focus marketing thinking and marketing practice serve society more effectively Academics graduate students and others interested in marketing s role in society will find this a valuable resource and an excellent guidebook for future research

Measuring Markets Theodore A. Nelson,1979 A Theory of Marketing Marius Lüdicke,2007-11-06 Marius L. dicke documents and explains the largely abandoned scholarly ambition to develop a general theory of marketing Drawing on Luhmannian social systems theory the author proposes a fundamentally different comprehensive concept of marketing that fulfills foundational scholarly and managerial requirements in an unprecedented way Permanent Study Group Lucica Matei,José Luis Vázquez-Burguete,2012 Marketing Theory: Philosophy of Science Perspectives Ronald F. Bush,Shelby D. Hunt,2011-10-15 The SAGE Handbook of Marketing Theory Pauline Maclaran,Michael Saren,Barbara Stern,Mark Tadajewski,2009-12-04 Bringing together the latest debates concerning the development of marketing theory featuring original contributions from a selection of leading international authors this collection aims to give greater conceptual cohesion to the field by drawing together the many disparate perspectives and presenting them in one volume The contributors are all leading international scholars chosen to represent the intellectual diversity within marketing theory Divided into six parts the Handbook covers the historical development of marketing theory its philosophical underpinnings major theoretical debates the impact of theory on representations of the consumer the impact of theory on representations of the marketing organisation and contemporary issues in marketing theory Handbook of Marketing Barton A Weitz,Robin Wensley,2006-08-11 NEW IN PAPERBACK The Handbook of Marketing is different that Barton Weitz and Robin Wensley are its editors should suggest something out of the ordinary A glance at the contributors e g Wilkie Webster Day Shocker Keller Hauser Winer Stewart Parasuraman Zeithaml puts the matter to rest The Handbook is an extraordinary effort The blurb on the dust jacket is an understatement the Handbook will be invaluable to advanced undergraduates graduate students academics and thoughtful practitioners in marketing the book is far more than that in short the Handbook is probably invaluable to all academic researchers Journal of Marketing Handbook of Marketing is a rich compilation of thorough reviews in the field of marketing management The editors have selected premier marketing scholars and have given them the opportunity to examine their area of expertise in a format much less confining than those provided by the major journals in the field The authors have taken this opportunity and have done an outstanding job not only of reviewing and structuring the extensive body of thought in many major areas of marketing management but also of providing valuable suggestions for further research They have brought together major contributions from the field of marketing and from other related disciplines I strongly encourage marketing scholars to consider Handbook of Marketing The text will certainly appeal to those with interests in marketing management it may also be useful to those who are more focused on methodological issues but interested in topics that need additional rigorous investigation In summary Weitz and Wensley should be congratulated for the excellent work in developing Handbook of Marketing The book fills a major void in the marketing literature on marketing management and will serve the discipline for many years to come Journal of Marketing Research This text achieves the rare goal of covering marketing clearly and deeply with no unnecessary examples or pretty pictures For the enquiring mind it is a wonderful link between a basic knowledge of marketing concepts and a grasp of where research in marketing is taking us Ken Simmonds Emeritus Professor of Marketing and International Business London Business School The Handbook of Marketing presents a major retrospective and prospective overview of the field of marketing and provides a landmark reference at a time when many of the traditional boundaries and domains within the marketing discipline have been subject to change A high calibre collection compiled by an international and extremely distinguished advisory board of marketing academics With contributions from leading scholars in the field each covering the latest research issues in particular areas of expertise Each chapter provides the necessary background for study and research of specific empirical and theoretical topics in marketing The Handbook of Marketing will be invaluable to advanced undergraduates graduate students and academics in marketing International Advisory Board Sonke Albers Christian Albrechts University of Kiel Germany Erin Anderson INSEAD France Rick Bagozzi Rice University USA Patrick Barwise London Business School Rod Brodie University of Auckland Anne T Coughlan Northwestern University George Day University of Pennsylvania Lars Gunnar Mattsson Stockholm School of Economics Hubert Gatignon INSEAD France H kan H kansson The Norwegian School of Management Stephen J Hoch University of Pennsylvania USA Kevin Keller Dartmouth College USA Donald Lehmann Columbia University USA Gilles Laurent HEC France Leonard Lodish University of Pennsylvania Richard Lutz University of Florida David Midgley INSEAD France David Montgomery Stanford University USA William Perreault University of North Carolina USA John Roberts Stanford University USA Allan Shocker University of Minnesota Piet Vanden Abeele Vlerick Leuven Gent Management School Belgium Russell Winer University of California Berkeley USA Dick Wittink Yale School of Management USA
