Mademoiselle Else:

sampl19.3, 2023-09-19 Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège, 2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumièr screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere. Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès, Alice Guy Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumièr brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond. In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895. From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France. Each director's entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death, information on the individual's education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym. The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films, shorts, documentaries and television work. Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age, Jean Renoir and René Clair, to French New Wave artists such as François Truffaut and Jean-Luc Godard. On the Road to Aleppo Dan Tsalka, 1999 Test_0815_Canary sandy, An Annotated Arthur Schnitzler Bibliography

Richard H. Allen, 2020-05-01 Originally published in 1967, Richard H. Allen's volume with a foreword by Robert O. Weiss was the first comprehensive bibliography of Arthur Schnitzler's writings including his literary works with translation and criticism, philosophical reflections, essays, correspondence and medical writings together with general criticism and dissertations on the author. Indices of titles, personal names and periodicals make the material readily accessible. The Comrade of Navarre Harriet Malone Hobson, 1914 Robert Schumann's Leipzig Chamber Works Julie Hedges Brown, 2024

This book explores the multi-movement Leipzig chamber works composed by Robert Schumann, 1810-56. It adopts a two-pronged approach. On the one hand, it shows how this repertory illuminates Schumann's response to certain past and contemporary composers, to his own youthful experimental past and to various literary and cultural influences. At the same time, the book explores how different people have heard this music: listeners in Schumann's own day and beyond, in both Germanic and non-Germanic regions, and comprising the voices of critics, performers, audiences, even figures in disciplines outside of music. The Night at the Crossroads (Inspector Maigret) Georges Simenon, 2025-05-06 Another riveting tale from Georges Simenon in which two siblings living in isolation are suspects in a tale of deception, theft and murder. It's been seventeen hours of interrogation yet Carl Andersen's air of elegance remains.

unruffled Inspector Maigret is bewildered by the behavior exhibited by the only probable suspect of the case at Three Widows Crossroads the location of Carl's isolated mansion where he lives with his sister Else The Saturday evening prior Carl and Else go to sleep after Carl has locked her away in her bedroom as usual a curious habit notes Maigret but stranger things soon arise Carl's faraway neighbor Monsieur Michonnet discovers that his flashy new automobile has swapped places with Carl's run down vehicle what's more in the front seat of Michonnet's car sits a dead man a Belgian diamond merchant no one purports to know shot point blank in the chest Hours later Carl and Else are caught trying to embark on a train to Paris It's bizarre business but Maigret is determined to shake off the unease and find out what the residents of Three Widows Crossroads are covering up in The Night at the Crossroads an exciting unnerving story from the inimitable Georges Simenon
