A.](#) Thomas Uwins, 1858 Memoir of the Rev. Elias Cornelius Bela Bates Edwards, 1833 Memories Time Allow Yoseph T. Banks, 2006-02-15 Almost every short ditty confined within this book has arrived to me through my dreaming stages All of the people are simply figments of my dreaming imagination They are indeed fiction yet while dreaming through them they took on an almost non-fiction realm Cold sweats and at times racing heart beats were my companions throughout my awakening Some left me with a sense of actually knowing who they were On all occasions I dreamt of them only once then they returned to wherever it was they emanated from What controlled my dreaming I may never understand Only a few times did the dream stop one morning only to continue the following night while I slept It was a kind of a too be continued later type scenario While I began to dream at the exact same spot I left the previous night I became a little confused It was if their story simply was not over until they thought it was I understand that probably sounds a little psychotic but that's how it came down I virtually had no control over it so I reasoned out nothing and simply dreamt Many stories have a haunting underlying sequence of death I know not why except for that all the people seemed to be coming back from somewhere A sense came to me of a graveyard of which is now their permanent residence None of them argued on my death assumption as they never really talked to me anyway They showed me what they had to say As with all dreams I was merely observing Few life forms within my dreams were angry but many seemed frustrated They would consult among themselves and at times look at me It s very difficult to say they were looking at me for I was in the dream as my own sight It s not hard to imagine seeing through a dream because we ve all done it Seeing is what we do in dreams and on rare occasions some people say that they have actually seen themselves I have never seen myself in any dream yet I exist within the dream as merely sight Kind of like life without a mirror to reflect myself upon Anyway other short pages are simply word interpretations and fragments of assumptions I simply picked then dissected words for my own personal amusement However at times other people within my dreams would offer their opinions relative to what I was writing Some of these folks in my dreams didn t stick around that long only a few seconds A hit and run deal best describes them These people would blatantly talk out loud for no apparent reason yet what they said made me discover some writing perspectives I never understood before Most times what was said conveyed nicely onto the page I was writing Again I did not argue with the flow of what we accomplished I have to mention them for without their help I wouldn t have had much to write about A few of the pages are dedicated to soldiers Unfortunately the world still needs required army s Actually the world would do rather nicely without them for it is we who not the world in need of battle Three mentioned stories are about soldiers and unfortunately they are not stories on a female soldier The soldiers are men within the book One came from a very seemingly long dream and two came from partial dreaming I ll let you decide which is which Soldiers and death are long acquaintances that only time can control Actually timing and a soldiers death are one in the same For whatever reason the death undertones arrived on my pages it became written equally as easy I shall never understand death as I feel we never really die anyway We re just simply removed Many other pages reflect upon our human condition We all go through the same feelings or emotions so I figured I would collect some basic categories and dissect the word I feel it broke up the pages as to inflict conclusions yet keep my personal feelings at bay This is by no means a self help book We as a species have possibly uncountable help books at our disposal Fine by me but little knowledge can be obtained if

A War Of Lies And Memories Jacob B Roberts,2024-10-01 The year is 2020 but nobody really cares to keep track The United States fell to the Soviet Union in the year 2000 after the Invasion of 1963 Over three decades of bloodshed and fighting tens of thousands of deaths littered out fields for a while the rain washed the blood down our city streets and created the red streets One day a family from the elite class had gotten sick of the poverty and corruption that plagued the remaining rubble of the country These are the Romanovs They rallied the people together and managed to start pulling us out of the living hell we were in For a while it looked like we were going to be ok under the rule of Demitri Romanov We were a new country emerging from the rubble and ash The Romanov Republic of America But the poverty and hardships didn t end with the fighting Now that the Romanovs have power they refuse to give it up Now a boy with no memories and a girl with far too many must come to term with their pasts and fight their way through the lies and deceit that fill their lives and nation Igniting a revolution that may save their country

Whitetail Hunting Memories Dragan Vujic,2010-03-11 A collection of whitetail hunting stories Every hunt is a cherished memory Each outing is an opportunity to observe and learn Over time the accumulation of incremental knowledge and experience leads to the formulation of proficient hunting strategies Age and repetition eventually bring about success

The Seed Keeper Diane Wilson,2021-03-09 A haunting novel spanning several generations The Seed Keeper follows a Dakh ta family s struggle to preserve their way of life and their sacrifices to protect what matters most Rosalie Iron Wing has grown up in the woods with her father Ray a former science teacher who tells her stories of plants of the stars of the origins of the Dakh ta people Until one morning Ray doesn t return from checking his traps Told she has no family Rosalie is sent to live with a foster family in nearby Mankato where the reserved bookish teenager meets rebellious Gaby Makespeace in a friendship that transcends the damaged legacies they ve inherited On a winter s day many years later Rosalie returns to her childhood home A widow and mother she has spent the previous two decades on her white husband s farm finding solace in her garden even as the farm is threatened first by drought and then by a predatory chemical company Now grieving Rosalie begins to confront the past on a search for family identity and a community where she can finally belong In the process she learns what it means to be descended from women with souls of iron women who have protected their families their traditions and a precious cache of seeds through generations of hardship and loss through war and the insidious trauma of boarding schools Weaving together the voices of four indelible women The Seed Keeper is a beautifully told story of reawakening of remembering our original relationship to the seeds and through them to our ancestors

A Memoir of the Professional Life of Thomas Abthorpe Cooper Joseph Norton Ireland,1888

Memories of the Way It Was K.L. Smith,2025-10-04 Memories of the Way It Was is a random collection of my thoughts and memories of my life As an elderly adult I have time to sit for hours and reminisce and remember moments from my past I have time to analyze the past moments of my life and how these past moments have helped shape me into the person that I am In the pages of this book I have written stories about friends and relatives from my past and present I have written a partial accounting of my family s history according to how it was told to me and from my personal observations and experiences I was there in the flesh to live these moments and I am left with precious memories All my life I have had vivid dreams that seemed real Strange and unusual things happen in my dreams Strange and unusual things happen in my life I was raised by an extremely superstitious mother who had prophetic dreams My head and heart are filled with memories of so many things in life that my parents told me I have so many memories of my siblings and the things I learned from them The days that I lived are gone forever The way things were will never be that way again These days will only be remembered by those who lived them or from the pages of the books written about those moments from the past Those days are gone forever Soon these memories will die with those who lived them That is why I have written twelve books full of the way life was in the 1940s up until the present day My mother used to tell me and my siblings stories of her past I wanted my children and grandchildren to know her stories as well as my own stories The next generation will have stories of their own to tell but life as my parents lived it and as I lived it will never be again When I explore my memories of the way things were I believe we were once better people than we are today As I get older I find that a lot of things no longer matter It does not matter to me who my relatives were or where they came from All that matters is that I was born and had the privilege of living the four seasons of my life in God s beautiful world Ultimately we are all God s children and brothers and sisters in Christ We are all connected through God My book is written in no particular order Each chapter is a stand alone story that can be read randomly just as it is written Each chapter is a piece of my life and heart I pray that my stories and ramblings will stoke memories and bring pleasure to anyone who reads them I am thankful for the people places and the events that make up the days of my life I am incredibly grateful for the life that God has allowed me to live
