Nuevos Destinos Español Para Hispanohablantes:

Nuevos Destinos: Español para Hispanohablantes A. Raymond Elliott, 1998-08 Nuevos Destinos is a comprehensive video based set of Spanish language materials that builds upon and expands the story of the popular Destinos video series that debuted in 1992 This is the core student textbook that accompanies the video a text designed to expand upon heritage speakers existing knowledge of and communicative abilities in the Spanish language Throughout the text students build and reinforce grammar skills in Spanish while exploring interesting themes and intriguing questions related to the Hispanic American experience Back cover Español para Hispanohablantes A. Raymond Elliott, 1999 Developing Minority Language Resources Guadalupe Valdés, 2006-01-01 This book documents ongoing language shift to English among Latino professionals in California It then describes current instructional practices used in the teaching of Spanish as an academic subject at the high school and university levels to heritage language students who although educated entirely in English acquired Spanish at home as a first language It specifically examines the potential contribution of these instructional practices to the maintenance of Spanish World Language Teacher Education Jacqueline F. Davis, 2010-07-01 The significant change in public schools over the last two decades warrants a response in how we prepare teachers This volume is an effort to share the contributors knowledge experience and ideas with colleagues particularly with novice language teacher educators The suggestions in the chapters are primarily provided for the teaching methods course but many can be adapted to other education courses or for professional development programs The first section of the introduction provides a review of issues identified in teacher education including debates accountability and government influence over education The second section explores teacher educators in the literature such as issues in their practice and a focus on foreign language teacher educator practice The third section provides a brief overview of the chapters in the book 2015 U.S. Higher Education Faculty Awards, Vol. 1 Faculty Awards, 2015-11-30 FacultyAwards.org is the first and only university awards program in the United States based on faculty peer evaluation Faculty Awards was created to recognize outstanding faculty members as viewed by their Faculty peers at colleges and universities across the United States Faculty members voted through the 2014 2015 academic year for their peers at their academic departments and schools within a number of categories Access to FacultyAwards.org to nominate and vote for Faculty was limited to university professors or faculty members at accredited U S institution of higher education Faculty members were nominated and voted for by other faculty members in their own academic departments and schools We strove to maintain an accurate peer review process Voting was not open to students or the public at large In addition faculty members voted for educators only at their own college or university Winners for the 2014 2015 academic year in all departments and colleges across U S institutions of higher education were announced in March 2015 and are permanently archived at FacultyAwards.org as well as recognized in this 2015 print edition of the Faculty Awards Compendium For the academic year 2014 2015 votes were cast to nominate and vote for Faculty members and no self voting was allowed to assure the integrity of the whole process This volume of the Faculty Awards Compendium includes Faculty awardees within Fine Arts Humanities Liberal Arts and Social Sciences Disciplines for the 2014 2015 academic year A total of 1608 winning Faculty members in 584 higher education institutions were determined after tallying the votes We would like to thank all Faculty members who participated in the voting process and to wish all the Faculty awardees continued success in their academic endeavors We look forward to resuming the voting process for the 2015 2016 academic year awards
