Rust,2012-08-08 Few travellers through the relentless expanse of the Karoo take in much beyond the band of tar stretching arrow straight ahead of them through the endlessness Yet this ancient land hides a treasure trove of rock art the scorched mountains at its southern edge contain countless overhangs and caves lavishly decorated with handprints animals and strange creatures In this book words and images explore the fascinating relationship of San rock art to shamanistic rituals and to stories that are still told in the Klein Karoo to this day notably those of mythical beings half human half fish who are said to dwell in the solitary springs and watercourses that nourish this semi arid region Known in the vernacular as watermeide these fabled creatures have the power to heal and destroy to bring life giving rain or destructive floods Filled with a deep reverence for the artists and storytellers of old Ren e Rust and Jan van der Poll have documented a unique piece of living heritage Through them the rock begins to breathe and the ancient pictograms reach out to us across the ages Archaeologist Ren e Rust has a doctoral degree from the Department of Geography and Environmental Studies at Stellenbosch University She has been researching and documenting the San paintings found in the mountains and ravines of the Klein Karoo and further afield in the Langeberg and Outeniqua Mountains for more than two decades She lives on a farm in Grabouw with her husband and children Jan van der Poll worked as a journalist advertising copywriter and translator before embarking on a career in photography After a decade with CapeNature he joined the Western Cape government s museum service where he records the rich heritage of local communities He is a member of the South African Archaeological Society and a keen mountaineer A Practical Sketch of the Cholera of 1848 Sherrard Freeman STATHAM,1852

My Iron Lung , The Lord of the East Wind Aloysius Fitzgerald FSC,2023-12-07 Because we biblical scholars tend to work primarily on texts in libraries offices studies and so on in North America Europe and elsewhere we frequently do not think to ask questions concerning such mundane subjects as the weather in ancient Israel and Judah Yet the Hebrew Bible makes frequent references to weather particularly in relation to the portrayals of theophany that come to mind when we try to understand the Bible s descriptions of the manifestations of divine presence in the world Indeed Fitzgerald in this very interesting monograph points out how frequently we make the error of ignoring the weather in our reading of biblical texts
