Lazenby, 2014-01-30 Revealing in an original and provocative study the mystical contents of the works of famous atheists Virginia Woolf and Iris Murdoch Donna Lazenby shows how these thinkers refusal to construe worldviews on available reductive models brought them to offer radically alternative pictures of life which maintain its mysteriousness and promote a mystical way of knowing A Mystical Philosophy contributes to the contemporary resurgence of interest in Spirituality but from an entirely new direction This book provides a warning against reductive scientific and philosophical models that impoverish our understanding of ourselves and the world and a powerful endorsement of ways of knowing that give art and a restored concept of contemplation their consummative place Claudel Angelo Caranfa, 1989 Exploring Paul Claudel's relationship to the creative geniuses Gide Merleau Ponty Proust Redon Sartre Van Gogh and Weil this work clearly demonstrates Claudel's centrality to aesthetic philosophy in France and the profound connection in his work between aesthetics and religious faith Symbols of the Kabbalah Sanford L. The authors look at the Aristotelian background of Maimonides psychology Maimonidean mysticism his beliefs about prophecy and sexuality and what is known of Maimonides client population A final chapter discusses Maimonides and Freud noting that many distinctive features of the cure of souls are shared by Freud's original formulation of psychoanalysis Indeed the many points of convergence suggest Freud's direct or indirect contact with Maimonides legacy Reaching Deeper Laurel Hallman, 2008-05-27 A sermon is an event in a particular time and place with a particular preacher and congregation With the exception of one essay and one sermon preached in a larger context the place was The First Unitarian Church of Dallas Texas a church firmly in the Bible Belt with a people seeking open minded and open hearted wisdom for life clarity of purpose and the nourishment of worshipping together in the music silence prayer and preaching of a specific Unitarian Universalist Church These sermons are an inadequate representation of what happened when they were preached And in turn they are an inadequate effort by the preacher who after all is human They were preached each week whether the preacher was ready or not They have been slightly edited for clarity but remain largely as a text for preaching That is to say the sentences are often incomplete and the text sometimes follows a circuitous path to make a point That said this selection of sermons taken as a whole represents the deepening of a congregation and minister over time and should be read with the grace and forgiveness that was present when they were delivered The Theatre of the Mind Henryk Skolimowski, 1984-01-01 This stimulating book expresses the eonic drama of our eternal growth from instinct to intuition Skolimowski is a constant delight and surprise as an image breaking philosopher scientist mystic He establishes his position as an intrepid spokesperson for ecologically sound progress He writes irreverent things in a reverent manner From Prometheus to Prigogine through a philosophy founded on experience he develops the law of progressive development based on an ever growing sensitivity to life Man the author concludes is a mind making animal and evolution works through us We are its custodians the inheritors of tremendous stores of knowledge and of tremendous confusion Glory to evolution concludes Skolimowski
