Rattling Those Dry Bones Women Changing The Church:

Rattling Those Dry Bones June Steffensen Hagen, 1995 Twenty two remarkable women of faith share their personal views and experiences of what holds them in the church This powerful collection includes some of the church s most well respected leaders theologians and teachers such as Madeleine L Engle Susan Cole Elisabeth Moltmann Wendel Virginia Ramey Mollenkott Rosemary Haughton and Nancy Hardesty The Living Church ,1995 Living on the Boundaries Nicola Hoggard Creegan, Christine D. Pohl, 2005-10-06 Nicola Hoggard Creegan and Christine D Pohl tell their own stories and draw from the experiences of ninety other women scholars to helpfully and hopefully address the boundary between the evangelical world and the concerns of feminism found in the academy Women Preaching Revolution Elaine J. Lawless, 2015-08-10 Do women preach differently than men In Women Preaching Revolution Elaine J Lawless contends that they do Drawing on her study of more than 150 sermons and extensive interviews with the clergywomen who preached them Lawless argues that women have changed traditional preaching in ways that reflect their socialization as women and their experiences of being female in America Many of the women in her study were expected to take courses on the art of preaching as part of their seminary training Most of them rejected the sermon structure and strategies they were taught in seminary viewing them as part of a male homiletic tradition and developed styles that celebrate their commitment to connection relationship and dialogue Dry Bones Rattling Mark R. Warren, 2010-09-13 Dry Bones Rattling offers the first in depth treatment of how to rebuild the social capital of America s communities while promoting racially inclusive democratic participation The Industrial Areas Foundation IAF network in Texas and the Southwest is gaining national attention as a model for reviving democratic life in the inner city and beyond This richly drawn study shows how the IAF network works with religious congregations and other community based institutions to cultivate the participation and leadership of Americans most left out of our elite centered politics Interfaith leaders from poor communities of color collaborate with those from more affluent communities to build organizations with the power to construct affordable housing create job training programs improve schools expand public services and increase neighborhood safety In clear and accessible prose Mark Warren argues that the key to revitalizing democracy lies in connecting politics to community institutions and the values that sustain them By doing so the IAF network builds an organized multiracial constituency with the power to advance desperately needed social policies While Americans are most aware of the religious right Warren documents the growth of progressive faith based politics in America He offers a realistic yet hopeful account of how this rising trend can transform the lives of people in our most troubled neighborhoods Drawing upon six years of original fieldwork Dry Bones Rattling proposes new answers to the problems of American democracy community life race relations and the urban crisis Desperate for Authenticity Patricia Hawley, 2010-08-04 Virginia Ramey Mollenkott is a pioneer in the endeavors to integrate feminism with Christian theology specifically evangelical theology Desperate for Authenticity considers her personal development alongside her theological development to provide insight into her contributions in the scholarly arena Dr Mollenkott was one of the first evangelicals who demanded that concern for marginalized and vulnerable populations of people be nurtured A foreword by Dr Mollenkott is included as a response to some of the ideas within this book A House of Prayer for All Peoples Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook, 2002-12-31 Contrary to the oft repeated truism there are churches in America where Sunday is not the most segregated day of the week as Sheryl Kujawa Holbrook convincingly demonstrates in her compelling exploration of congregations tackling racial justice issues Yet the truism continues to haunt many congregations and Kujawa Holbrook reveals through story and thoughtful analysis what it means to create and live out multiracial community Focusing on six congregations from different denominations geographical regions and settings the author shows us the joys and struggles in their intentional pursuits of a more diverse and just community The stories in A House of Prayer for All Peoples will inspire leaders to explore their congregation's history study their community's demographics and most of all search their souls for ways they can develop and celebrate the diversity in their midst The book is capped by an extensive annotated resource list for readers who want to explore the topic further Evangelical

Feminism Pamela Cochran, 2005 For most people the terms evangelical and feminism are contradictory Evangelical invokes images of conservative Christians known for their strict interpretation of the Bible as well as their support of social conservatism and traditional gender roles So how could an evangelical support feminism a movement that seeks at its most basic level to redress the inequalities injustice and discrimination that women face because of their sex Evangelical Feminism offers the first history of the evangelical feminist movement It traces the emergence and theological development of biblical feminism within evangelical Christianity in the 1970s how an internal split among members of the movement came about over the question of lesbianism and what these developments reveal about conservative Protestantism and religion generally in contemporary America Cochran shows that biblical feminists have been at the center of changes both within evangelicalism and in American culture more broadly by renegotiating the religious symbols which shape its deepest values

Evangelical Christian Women Julie Ingersoll, 2003-12 Evangelical Christian Women draws on two years of ethnographic research nationwide to shed new light on the gender conflict faced by women in evangelical Christianity

The Encyclopedia of Christian Literature George Thomas Kurian, James D. Smith III, 2010-04-16 The written word is one of the defining elements of Christian experience As vigorous in the 1st century as it is in the 21st Christian literature has had a significant function in history and teachers and students need to be reminded of this powerful literary legacy Covering 2000 years The Encyclopedia of Christian Literature is the first encyclopedia devoted to Christian writers and books In addition to an overview of the Christian literature this two volume set also includes 40 essays on the principal genres of Christian literature and more than 400 bio bibliographical essays describing the principal writers and their works These essays examine the evolution of Christian thought as reflected in the literature of every age The companion volume also features bibliographies an index a timeline of Christian Literature and a list of the greatest Christian authors The encyclopedia will appeal not only to scholars and Christian evangelicals but students and teachers in seminaries and theological schools as well as to the growing body of Christian readers and bibliophiles

Caring for God's People Philip Culbertson, 2000-01-01 Culbertson has built his text around the ideal of Christian wholeness and maturity a healthy interconnectedness of self within community Culbertson presents three schools of counseling theory family systems theory narrative counseling theory and object relations theory Each of these is explained and then applied to various counseling situations pre marital counseling marriage counseling divorce counseling counseling gay men and women and grief counseling Culbertson addresses issues of gender families sexual orientation the relationship of emotions to spirituality and the relevance of the counselor's own self understanding From publisher's description Update, 1990

Dimensions of Madeleine L'Engle Suzanne Bray, 2017-01-03 Best known for her Newbery Medal winning novel A Wrinkle in Time Madeleine L'Engle 1918 2007 had a long and successful writing career Her books enjoyed popular acclaim and she was in constant demand to give speeches write forewords and advise and encourage younger authors Yet her work particularly her adult fiction has been largely ignored by scholars This collection of new essays gives overdue critical attention to L'Engle's complete body of work from her familiar young adult fiction to her religious writings poems and short stories Back Talk!

Susan Willhauck, 2005 Wilhauck has heard the church say to women Don't give me any back talk Too often she contends women have been told what to do in order to get ahead In Feminist Bookstore News, 1995-02

Cloudhand, Clenched Fist Rhea Y. Miller, 1996 Social activist Rhea Miller contrasts clenched fist establishment mentality with tai chi's Cloudhand stance to demonstrate the infinite possibility inherent in chaos and shares transforming insights into the relationships among cosmic social and spiritual forces

She Has Done a Good Thing Mary Swartley, Rhoda Keener, 1999 In this book edited by Mary Swartley and Rhoda Keener women tell how God has called them to leading roles in church ministries Just as the church has told the stories of women in the Bible we can learn from the experiences of these Mennonite women of faith who responded to God's call As you read their stories you may begin to see God working in your life in new ways God may be calling you to be courageous and willing to risk the unknown with the confidence that God will also be your strength and guide These dramatic stories of Mennonite women theologians pastors educators and administrators speak to issues of denominational change and struggle and also generally to interrelations of women men and faith

The People(s) Called Methodist William Benjamin Lawrence, Dennis M. Campbell, Russell E. Richey, 1998 Contemporary Authors New Revision Series Scot Peacock, 2001-09 In response to the escalating need for up to date information on writers Contemporary Authors New Revision Series brings researchers the most recent data on the world's most popular authors These exciting and unique author profiles are essential to your holdings because sketches are entirely revised and up to date and completely replace the original Contemporary Authors entries For your convenience a soft cover cumulative index is sent biannually While Gale
