Ravel Noctuelles:

Images and Ideas in Modern French Piano Music Siglind Bruhn, 1997 In our visually oriented society music appears to stand apart from other arts Yet just as a poet can write a poem whose focus is a painting so musicians have composed scores based on poems paintings and other non musical art forms In instrumental music such reinterpretations are especially intriguing as the verbal or visual stimulus does not appear in performance but is rendered in musical form In this study Siglind Bruhn investigates how three French composers of the twentieth century Claude Debussy Maurice Ravel and Olivier Messiaen express extra musical subtexts in their piano works She shows how the relation between the subtexts and the musical works can be broadly categorized in terms of pictoriality and interiority In all cases Bruhn analyzes each musical piece and each source text in its entirety and in depth drawing on her broad background in both literary and musical interpretation of the twentieth century For pianists who seek to better understand an individual work for scholars in the growing field of musical hermeneutics and for lovers of music in general this volume explores and makes explicit connections between music and other arts

Ravel Roger Nichols, 2011-01-01 This new biography of Maurice Ravel 1875-1937 by one of the leading scholars of nineteenth and twentieth century French music is based on a wealth of written and oral evidence some newly translated and some derived from interviews with the composer's friends and associates As well as describing the circumstances in which Ravel composed the book explores new evidence to present radical views of the composer's background and upbringing his notorious failure in the Prix de Rome his incisive and often combative character his sexual preferences and his long final illness It also contains the most detailed account so far published of his hugely successful American tour of 1928 The world of Maurice Ravel including friendships and some fallings out with Debussy Fauré Diaghilev Gershwin and Toscanini is deftly uncovered in this sensitive portrait

After Debussy Julian Johnson, 2020 Focusing on the music of Debussy and its legacy in the century since his death this book offers a groundbreaking new perspective on twentieth century music that foregrounds a sensory logic of sound over quasi linguistic ideas of structure or meaning

Five Centuries of Keyboard Music John Gillespie, 2013-04-09 Gillespie discusses 350 composers and their works for harpsichord and piano including Bach Handel Mozart Beethoven and Debussy Includes 116 musical examples illustrations and a glossary of musical terms

Details of Consequence Gurminder Kaur Bhogal, 2013-10 Details of Consequence examines a trait that is rarely questioned in fin de siècle French music ornamental extravagance In re-evaluating the status of ornament for French culture this book investigates how musical and visual expressions of decorative detail shaped widespread discussions on identity style and aesthetics
