ideological framework of Italy This study identifies and analyses the ways in which each of these cities preserved the structures of the Late Antique social and cultural world or in which they adapted each and every element available to them to their own needs at various times and in various ways to create a new identity based partly on their Roman heritage and partly on their growing integration with the rest of medieval Italy It tells a story which encompasses the main contemporary narratives documentary evidence recent archaeological discoveries and discussions on art history it follows the markers of status and identity through titles names ethnic groups liturgy and ritual foundation myths representations symbols and topographies of power to shed light on a relatively little known area of early medieval Italian history
