Raymond Pettibon Thes 19781998:

Foul Perfection Mike Kelley, 2003-06-20 Critical writings and commentary by the Los Angeles based artist Mike Kelley. The work of artist Mike Kelley b 1954 embraces performance installation drawing painting video and sculpture. Drawing distinctively on high art and vernacular traditions including historical research popular culture and psychology Kelley came to prominence in the 1980s with a series of sculptures composed of craft materials. His recent work offers dialogues with architecture and with repressed memory syndrome and a sustained inquiry into his own aesthetic and social history. The subjects on which Kelley has written are as varied as his artistic media. They include the work of fellow artists sound caricature the uncanny UFOlogy and gender bending. This book offers a diverse collection of Kelley's writings from the last twenty five years. It contains major critical texts on art film and the wider culture including his piece on the aesthetic he calls urban Gothic. It also contains essays mostly commissioned for exhibition catalogs and journals on the artists and groups David Askevold yvind Fahlstr m Douglas Huebler John Miller Survival Research Laboratories and Paul Thek among others. Kelley's voices are passionate analytic and ironic and his critical intelligence is leavened with touches of whimsy. Unsettling the Literary West Nathaniel Lewis, 2003-01-01 The test of western literature has invariably been Is it real Is it accurate Authentic. The result is a standard anything but literary as Nathaniel Lewis observes in this ambitious work a wholesale rethinking of the critical terms and contexts and thus of the very nature of western writing. Why is western writing virtually missing from the American literary canon but a frequent success in the marketplace. The skewed status of western literature Lewis contends can be directly attributed to the strategies of the region's writers and these strategies depend consistently on the claim of authenticity. A perusal of western American authorship reveals how these writers effectively present themselves as accurate and reliable recorders of real places histories and cultures but not as stylists or inventors. The imaginative qualities of this literature are thus obscured in the name of authentic reproduction. Through a study of a set of western authors and their relationships to literary and cultural history Lewis offers a reconsideration of the deceptive and often undervalued history of western American literature. With unequivocal admiration for the literature under scrutiny Lewis exposes the potential for startling new readings once western writing is freed from its insistence on a questionable authenticity. His book sets out a broader system of inquiry that points writers and critics of western literature in the direction of a new and truly sustaining literary tradition. Current Biography Yearbook, 2005 The aim of Current Biography Yearbook is to provide reference librarians students and researchers with objective accurate and well documented biographical articles about living leaders in all fields of human accomplishment.
