Raymond Poincaré and the French Presidency Gordon Wright, 1967     Raymond Poincare and the French Presidency Gordon Wright, 1967     Raymond Poincaré and the French Presidency Gordon Wright (historicus), 1942     The Lost History of 1914 Jack Beatty, 2012-02-21 Challenges beliefs that World War I was inevitable documenting largely forgotten events in each of the warring countries to reveal how several factors may have prevented the war or caused a different outcome     Raymond Poincare and the French Presidency-N.Y., Octagon Books, 1967 Gordon Wright,     Strategy and Command Roy A. Prete, 2021-06-16 Falling between the War of Movement in 1914 and the major attrition battles of 1916 1915 was a critical year in the First World War As France failed in ever larger offensives to break through the German trenches Britain shifted its strategy from defence of empire to total commitment to the continental war In the second of three planned volumes Roy Prete analyzes the political and military policies and strategies of Britain and France and their joint command relationship on the Western Front in 1915 The opposing strategies of the two governments proved to be the main determinant in the sometimes ragged relations between the French commander in chief Joseph Joffre and his British counterpart Sir John French as they sought to drive the German army out of France and to aid their hard pressed Russian ally With an impressive marshalling of evidence Strategy and Command demonstrates that the increased British commitment to the continental war manifested in sending Kitchener's New Armies to France in 1915 was largely due to the disastrous situation of the Russian army on the Eastern Front and the perceived weakness of the French government Based on extensive research in French and British political and military archives this new in depth study of Anglo French military relations on the Western Front in 1915 fills a major gap in the unfolding drama of the First World War     America's French Orphans Emmanuel Destenay, 2024-06-30 An exploration of how Americans evaded neutrality by sponsoring 300 000 children of France's war dead between 1914 and 1921     Mr. President, How Long Must We Wait? Tina Cassidy, 2020-03-03 In this heroic narrative The Wall Street Journal discover the inspiring and timely account of the complex relationship between leading suffragist Alice Paul and President Woodrow Wilson in her fight for women's equality Woodrow Wilson lands in Washington DC in March of 1913 a day before he is set to take the presidential oath of office He is surprised by the modest turnout The crowds and reporters are blocks away from Union Station watching a parade of eight thousand suffragists on Pennsylvania Avenue in a first of its kind protest organized by a twenty five year old activist named Alice Paul The next day The New York Times calls the procession one of the most impressively beautiful spectacles ever staged in this country Mr President How Long Must We Wait weaves together two storylines the trajectories of Alice Paul and Woodrow Wilson two apparent opposites Paul's procession of suffragists resulted in her being granted a face to face meeting with President Wilson one that would lead to many meetings and much discussion but little progress for women With no equality in sight and patience

wearing thin Paul organized the first group to ever picket in front of the White House lawn night and day through sweltering summer mornings and frigid fall nights From solitary confinement hunger strikes and the psychiatric ward to ever more determined activism Mr President How Long Must We Wait reveals the courageous near death journey it took spearheaded in no small part by Alice Paul s leadership to grant women the right to vote in America A remarkable tale Kirkus Reviews and a rousing portrait of a little known feminist heroine this is an eye opening exploration of a crucial moment in American history one century before the Women s March

Europe between Democracy and Dictatorship Conan Fischer,2010-09-20 Fischer offers a captivating analysis of Europe s turbulent history during the first half of the twentieth century from the optimism at the turn of the century to the successive waves of destruction of the First and Second World Wars Written by a leading authority in this field the book draws upon his areas of expertise Reflects the most recent scholarship in this period of history While laying stress on Europe s major powers and the seminal events of the earlier twentieth century Fischer pays due attention to the smaller European countries from the Atlantic to the Black Sea and the Baltic to the Mediterranean Extends beyond the political sociological and economic paradigms to include extensive references to the European cultural scene Organized both as a broad chronology and thematically in order to allow for historical insights and entry into the key debates and literature

Twilight of the Titans Paul K. MacDonald,Joseph M. Parent,2018-04-15 In Twilight of the Titans Paul K MacDonald and Joseph M Parent examine great power transitions since 1870 to determine how declining powers choose to behave identifying the strong incentives to moderate their behavior when the hierarchy of great powers is shifting Challenging the conventional wisdom that such transitions push declining great powers to extreme measures this book argues that intimidation provocation and preventive war are not the only alternatives to the loss of relative power and prestige Using numerous case studies MacDonald and Parent show how declining states tend to behave the policy options they have how rising states respond to those in decline and what conditions reward particular strategic choices

Lloyd George and the Generals David R. Woodward,2004-11-23 The frustrating stalemate on the western front with its unprecedented casualties provoked a furious debate in London between the civil and military authorities over the best way to defeat Germany The passions aroused continued to the present day The mercurial and dynamic David Lloyd George stood at the centre of this controversy throughout the war His intervention in military questions and determination to redirect strategy put him at odds with the leading soldiers and admirals of his day Professor Woodward a student of the Great War for some four decades explores the at times Byzantine atmosphere at Whitehall by exhaustive archival research in official and private papers The focus is on Lloyd George and his adversaries such as Lord Kitchener General Sir William Robertson and Field Marshall Sir Douglas Haig The result is a fresh compelling and detailed account of the interaction between civil and military authorities in total war

The Hijaz Malik Dahlan, 2018-08-01 Dahlan offers an alternative vision of Islamic governance through the history and promise of the Hijaz the first state of Islam The Hijaz in the west of present day Saudi Arabia was the first Islamic state in Mecca and Medina This new interpretative history offers a fresh vision of Islamic governance and law as a positive force for political reform in the Middle East and beyond Applying key Islamic principles of public good to contemporary life Malik Dahlan challenges two dominant narratives He reclaims the development of Islamic statecraft as the wellspring of collective identity and statesmanship in the Arab world simultaneously influenced and disrupted by Westphalian statehood models and Enlightenment notions of self determination He equally rejects the appropriation of Islamic governance and the Caliphate concept by both the post modern non territorial Al Qaeda and the neo medievalist ISIS Celebrating the history and untapped potential of a region where Arab leaders built the ideological foundations of an emerging polity The Hijaz is a compelling alternative analysis of governance in the Arabian Peninsula and the global Islamic community and of its interaction with the wider world      The Origins of World War I Richard F. Hamilton, Holger H. Herwig, 2003-02-24 This work poses a straightforward yet at the same time perplexing question about World War I Why did it happen Several of the oft cited causes are reviewed and discussed The argument of the alliance systems is inadequate lacking relevance or compelling force The arguments of mass demands those focusing on nationalism militarism and social Darwinism it is argued are insufficient lacking indications of frequency intensity and process how they influenced the various decisions The work focuses on decision making on the choices made by small coterie in Austria Hungary Germany Russia France Britain and elsewhere The decisions made later by leaders in Japan the Ottoman Empire Italy the Balkans and the United States are also explored The final chapters review the basic causes once again An alternative position is advanced one focused on elites and coterie their backgrounds and training and on their unique agendas      T.
