Re-imagining American Catholicism Eugene C. Kennedy, 1985

Re-imagining Life Together in America

Catherine T. Nerney, Hal Taussig, 2002 Well written and highly accessible this book interweaves a thorough review of developments in Christian community from the first century to the present with powerful new discoveries in scriptural theological and historical research that has uncovered deep communal strands in the foundational literature and notions of Christianity The result is a profound call for the renewal of Christian community and churches as crucial models and inspirations for the new search for wholeness in America The Frontiers of Catholicism Gene Burns, 1994-08-17 Why does the Catholic Church take a politically conservative stance on some issues such as abortion and birth control while on others such as social programs and nuclear policy it resembles the left Why do some Catholic groups reject the legitimacy of Church hierarchy and yet choose to remain within its fold To explain these apparent contradictions Gene Burns examines the origins of contemporary diversity and conflict in the Catholic Church as well as the processes of ideological change With valuable insights into the American Catholic Church the modern papacy and the Latin American Church The Frontiers of Catholicism is as much a political study of ideological dynamics as it is an institutional study of religious change Re-imagining

Ireland Andrew Higgins Wyndham, 2006 Accompanying DVD is a videorecording of the television program produced by Virginia Foundation for the Humanities and Paul Wagner Productions in association with Radio Telefís Éireann and originally broadcast in 2004 Catholic Bishops in American Politics Timothy A. Byrnes, 2014-07-14 Over the past twenty years the American Catholic bishops have played a leading role in the antiabortion movement published lengthy and highly detailed pastoral letters on nuclear weapons and on the American economy and involved themselves collectively and individually in several national election campaigns What is the source of the sometimes controversial political role of these religious leaders Timothy Byrnes proposes a new answer in this lucid description of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops and its activities He demonstrates that the key to the political role of the bishops and other modern American religious leaders has been political change rather than religious revival Originally published in 1991 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

American Catholics in the Protestant Imagination Michael P. Carroll, 2007-11-12 Michael P Carroll argues that the academic study of religion in the United States continues to be shaped by a Protestant imagination that has warped our perception of the American religious experience and its written history and analysis In this provocative study Carroll explores a number of historiographical puzzles that emerge from the American Catholic story as it has been understood through the

Protestant tradition Reexamining the experience of Catholicism among Irish immigrants Italian Americans Acadians and Cajuns and Hispanics Carroll debunks the myths that have informed much of this history Shedding new light on lived religion in America Carroll moves an entire academic field in new exciting directions and challenges his fellow scholars to open their minds and eyes to develop fresh interpretations of American religious history Reconstructing Catholicism Robert Ludwig,2000-04-04 A leading pastoral theologian re imagines Catholicism for a new millenium Catholic Social Thought Jonathan Boswell,Francis P. McHugh,Johan Verstraeten,2000 These essays are an attempt to recover something of the form style and force of Catholic non official social thinking in the face of contemporary social thought and contemporary injustice in advanced societies After an opening essay by the doyen of Catholic writers in this field Jean Yves Calvez SJ the book is divided into three sections The first and largest group of essays discuss patterns and predicaments of Catholic social thought in general terms and from different points of view The context here is partly the debate on modernity high modernity and post modernity partly the issue of how far and in what ways Catholic Social Thought can claim to be distinctive relative to contemporary secular thought The second section of the book focusses on relationships between Catholic social thought and its restatement and a number of contemporary debates on public issues Particular attention is given in successive essays to issues of anti poverty human rights economic theory and international finance A third and shorter section describes a number of institutional projects which attempt to carry Catholic social values forward into concrete action focussing on work in health and welfare grass roots economic co operation anti poverty and international peace and justice Final contributions by the reputed international scholar in this field John Coleman SJ and the book editors respectively evaluate the collection as a whole and discuss further steps Public Witness Camilla J. Kari,2004 In 1792 the Catholic bishops of the United States began issuing joint pastoral letters at periodic intervals intending the letters to be missives directed to validating patriotism and gathering the support of the faithful Today the U S bishops continue to issue such letters which along with the letters that preceded them explain the historic conditions confronting American Catholics Public Witness The Pastoral Letters of the American Catholic Bishops allows readers to learn of the highlights and obscure portions of the letters without reading through several volumes of Victorian prose While viewing the letters as a stable genre that evolves to accommodate change in form and purpose Kari provides historical background a summary and a rhetorical analysis of the pastoral letters The origin of the practice the production of the letters and the reception of the letters by the public and press are explained Well documented and accessible Public Witness is suited for the scholar and the general audience Chapters are Frontiers and Foreigners 1792 1884 The Twentieth Century 1919 1980 The Challenge of Peace Economic Justice for All The Pastoral That Wasn't and Contributions to Public Discourse OUR UNFINISHED BUSINESS Phillip Berryman,2013-02-20 What human ends are served by our economic policies To whom is what owed in our country today Is there an acceptable argument for just wars or for the proliferation of nuclear weapons In the final years of the Reagan era The U S Catholic bishops emerged as articulate sources of dissenting wisdom publicly testing our foreign and domestic policies against the principles of morality and humanity With the same succinct style of Liberation Theology Phillip Berryman analyzes two recent and widely circulated texts the 1982 Challenge of Peace on nuclear arms and the 1986 Economic Justice For All Drawing on debate in and beyond church circles over these letters Berryman argues that as we search for acceptable answers to urgent political questions we must use ethical and moral traditions if we are to confront them squarely Only then can we promote peace and prosperity for all

Irish Catholic Writers and the Invention of the American South Bryan Giemza, 2013-07-08 In this expansive study Bryan Giemza recovers a neglected subculture and retrieves a missing chapter of Irish Catholic heritage by canvassing the literature of American Irish writers from the U S South Giemza offers a defining new view of Irish American authors and their interrelationships within both transatlantic and ethnic regional contexts From the first Irish American novel published in Winchester Virginia in 1817 Giemza investigates a cast of nineteenth century writers contending with the turbulence of their time writers influenced by both American and Irish revolutions Additionally he considers dramatists and propagandists of the Civil War and Lost Cause memoirists who emerged in its wake Some familiar names reemerge in an Irish context including Joel Chandler Harris Lafcadio Hearn and Kate O Flaherty Chopin Giemza also examines the works of twentieth century southern Irish writers such as Margaret Mitchell John Kennedy Toole Flannery O Connor Pat Conroy Anne Rice Valerie Sayers and Cormac McCarthy For each author Giemza traces the influences of Catholicism as it shaped both faith and ethnic identity pointing to shared sensibilities and contradictions Flannery O Connor for example resisted identification as an Irish American while Cormac McCarthy described by some as anti Catholic continues a dialogue with the Church from which he distanced himself Giemza draws on many never before seen documents including authorized material from the correspondence of Cormac McCarthy interviews from the Irish community of Flannery O Connor s native Savannah Georgia and Giemza s own correspondence with writers such as Valerie Sayers and Anne Rice This lively literary history prompts a new understanding of how the Irish in the region helped invent a regional mythos an enduring literature and a national image

Elizabeth Seton Catherine O'Donnell, 2018-09-15 From socialite to saint it was an extraordinary journey for Seton one gracefully chronicled in Catherine O'Donnell s richly textured new biography A remarkable biography of a remarkable woman Wall Street Journal In 1975 two centuries after her birth Pope Paul VI canonized Elizabeth Ann Seton making her the first saint to be a native born citizen of the United States in the Roman Catholic Church Seton came of age in Manhattan as the city and her family struggled to rebuild themselves after the Revolution explored both contemporary philosophy and Christianity converted to Catholicism from her native Episcopalian faith and built the St Joseph s Academy and Free School in Emmitsburg Maryland Hers was an exemplary early American life of struggle ambition questioning and faith and in this flowing biography Catherine O'Donnell has given Seton her due O'Donnell places Seton squarely in the context of the dynamic and risky years of the American and French Revolutions and their aftermath Just as Seton s dramatic life was studded with hardship achievement and grief so were the social economic political and religious scenes of the Early American Republic in which she lived O Donnell provides the reader with a strong sense of this remarkable woman s intelligence and compassion as she withstood her husband s financial failures and untimely death undertook a slow conversion to Catholicism and struggled to reconcile her single minded faith with her respect for others different choices The fruit of her labors were the creation of a spirituality that embraced human connections as well as divine love and the American Sisters of Charity part of an enduring global community with a specific apostolate for teaching The trove of correspondence journals reflections and community records that O Donnell weaves together throughout Elizabeth Seton provides deep insight into her life and her world Each source enriches our understanding of women s friendships and choices illuminates the relationships within the often opaque world of early religious communities and upends conventional wisdom about the ways Americans of different faiths competed and collaborated during the nation s earliest years Through her close and sympathetic reading of Seton s letters and journals O Donnell reveals Seton the person and shows us how with both pride and humility she came to understand her own importance as Mother Seton in the years before her death in 1821

Journal of Moral Theology, Volume 5, Number 1 David M. McCarthy, 2016-03-11 Grace and Peace in the Earthly City Volume 5 Number 1 January 2016 Edited by David M McCarthy Catholic Moral Traditions and Energy Ethics For the Twenty First Century Erin Lothes Biviano David Cloutier Elaine Padilla Christiana Z Peppard and Jame Schaefer Human Capacities and the Problem of Universally Equal Dignity Two Philosophical Test Cases and a Theistic Response Matthew Petrusek A Case Study of Scholasticism Peter Abelard and Peter Lombard on Penance Lucas Briola An Analysis of GSUSA s Policy of Serving Transgender Youth Implications for Catholic Practice John Grabowski and Christopher Gross For He is our Peace Thomas Aquinas on Christ As Cause of Peace in the City of Saints Matthew A Tapie Infused Virtue and 22 Carat Morally Right ACTS Angela Knobel Natural Law New Directions In Thomistic Theological Ethics Charles R Pinches Review Essay on the Social Problem of Family Homes for Conviviality David Matzko McCarthy Lead Us Not Into Temptation Jason Berry, 2000 While seminaries by many accounts admit an increasing number of homosexuals women are strictly barred from ministerial roles The church s time honored tradition of avoiding scandal also backfires For by the shielding of fallen clerics Berry shows the suffering of the abused is often compounded Geopolitics of Global Catholicism Petr Kratochvíl, 2024-05-29 Geopolitics of Global Catholicism uncovers the key trends in today s Catholicism providing an incisive analysis of its deep entanglement with national regional as well as global politics This book offers an exciting exploration of five versions of local Catholicism s and sheds light on the various theo political constellations that not only differ widely across these national contexts but also have global geopolitical consequences It is built around a novel theoretical argument showing that Catholic geopolitics contains not only a spatial dimension as classic geopolitical studies would have it but also a temporal one As a consequence the Catholic role in the world cannot be simply understood as a result of the spatial expansion of the Church but rather as a result of the complex relationships between Catholicism and colonization inculturation backwardness and modernization s To counter the lingering Eurocentrism of most studies of the Catholic Church this book s case studies explore Catholic geopolitics in five non European contexts focusing mainly on the Global South plus the United States Latin America Brazil North America the United States Asia India and China and Africa the Democratic Republic of the Congo These case studies also show that the successes and failures of Catholicism cannot be explained by a recourse to a single top down interpretation of Catholic geopolitics but rather by exploring the various Catholic spatio temporal constellations on the global regional and local levels With the accelerating diversification of the Church and the growing role of the Global South these local and regional influences gain further importance as they are likely to increasingly define the future of Catholicism This book will be of utmost interest to scholars of International Relations Religious Studies Political Science and Theology as well as Geopolitics especially to those studying the global rise of religion Its accessible language will also appeal to the wider public beyond academia especially those interested in global Christianity as well as church leaders and members of Catholic organizations

Latino Religions and Civic Activism in the United States Gastón Espinosa, Virgilio P. The Crisis of Conversion J. August Higgins, 2024-06-25 This book attempts to identify a central problem within the North American evangelical imagination around the issue of religious experience and its relationship to the basic hermeneutical stance of biblical and theological interpretation The relatively recent emergence of the academic discipline of Christian spirituality offers a new set of methodological insights that may help to mediate the theological impasse between more conservative and progressive perspectives concerning the appropriate role of human experience for evangelical thought and practice Specifically we will explore the experience of religious conversion that lies at the center of evangelical spirituality in critical dialogue with the challenges and opportunities brought about by recent philosophical discourse and the postmodern turn variously understood

Public Religions in the Modern World José Casanova, 2011-08-29 In a sweeping reconsideration of the relation between religion and modernity Jose Casanova surveys the roles that religions may play in the public sphere of modern societies During the 1980s religious traditions around the world from Islamic fundamentalism to Catholic liberation theology began making their way often forcefully out of the private sphere and into public life causing the deprivatization of religion in contemporary life No longer content merely to administer pastoral care to individual souls religious institutions are challenging dominant political and social forces raising questions about the claims of entities such as nations and markets to be value neutral and straining the traditional connections of private and public morality Casanova looks at five cases from two religious traditions Catholicism and Protestantism in four countries Spain Poland Brazil and the United States These cases challenge postwar and indeed post Enlightenment assumptions about the role of modernity and secularization in religious movements throughout the world This book expands our understanding of the increasingly significant role religion plays in the ongoing construction of the modern world The Rise and Fall of Catholic Religious Orders Patricia Wittberg, 1994-01-01 A sociological analysis of the periodically recurring cycles of Roman Catholic religious life applying the theories and research on large scale social movements and on the internal dynamics of other intentional communities to the data presented in historical works on specific periods Following an introductory chapter The Extent of the Problem
