Re Imagining The Museum Beyond The Mausoleum:

Re-imagining the Museum Andrea Witcomb,2003 Re Imagining the Museum presents new interpretations of museum history and contemporary museum practices Through a range of case studies from the UK North America and Australia Andrea Witcomb moves away from the idea that museums are always conservative to suggest they have a long history of engaging with popular culture and addressing a variety of audiences She argues that museums are key mediators between high and popular culture and between government media practitioners cultural policy makers and museums professionals Analyzing links between museums and the media looking at the role of museums in cities and discussing the effects on museums of cultural policies Re Imagining the Museum presents a vital tool in the study of museum practice Curious

Lessons in the Museum Claire Robins,2016-05-13 Amongst recent contemporary art and museological publications there have been relatively few which direct attention to the distinct contributions that twentieth and twenty first century artists have made to gallery and museum interpretation practices There are fewer still that recognise the pedagogic potential of interventionist artworks in galleries and museums This book fills that gap and demonstrates how artists have been making curious but none the less useful contributions to museum education and curation for some time Claire Robins investigates in depth the phenomenon of artists interventions in museums and examines their pedagogic implications She also brings to light and seeks to resolve many of the contradictions surrounding artists interventions where on the one hand contemporary artists have been accused of alienating audiences and on the other appear to have played a significant role in orchestrating positive developments to the way that learning is defined and configured in museums She examines the disruptive and parodic strategies that artists have employed and argues for that they can be understood as part of a move to re establish the museum as a discursive forum This valuable book will be essential reading for students and scholars of museum studies as well as art and cultural studies The International Handbooks of Museum Studies, 4 Volume Set Sharon

Macdonald,Helen Rees Leahy,2015-07-20 The International Handbooks of Museum Studies is a multi volume reference work that represents a state of the art survey of the burgeoning field of museum studies Featuring original essays by leading international museum experts and emerging scholars readings cover all aspects of museum theory practice debates and the impact of technologies The four volumes in the series divided thematically offer in depth treatment of all major issues relating to museum theory historical and contemporary museum practice mediations in art design and architecture and the transformations and challenges confronting the museum In addition to invaluable surveys of current scholarship the entries include a rich and diverse panoply of examples and original case studies to illuminate the various perspectives

Unprecedented for its in depth topic coverage and breadth of scholarship the multi volume International Handbooks of Museum Studies is an indispensable resource for the study of the development roles and significance of museums in contemporary society Museum Communication and Social Media Kirsten Drotner,Kim Christian Schrøder,2014-03-14

Visitor engagement and learning outreach and inclusion are concepts that have long dominated professional museum discourses. The recent rapid uptake of various forms of social media in many parts of the world however calls for a reformulation of familiar opportunities and obstacles in museum debates and practices. Young people as both early adopters of digital forms of communication and latecomers to museums increasingly figure as a key target group for many museums. This volume presents and discusses the most advanced research on the multiple ways in which social media operates to transform museum communications in countries as diverse as Australia, Denmark, Germany, Norway, the UK and the United States. It examines the socio-cultural contexts, organizational and education consequences and methodological implications of these transformations.

Museums and their Communities Sheila Watson, 2007-08-07 Using case studies drawn from all areas of museum studies, Museums and their Communities explores the museum as a site of representation, identity and memory and considers how it can influence its community. Focusing on the museum as an institution and its social and cultural setting, Sheila Watson examines how museums use their roles as informers and educators to empower or to ignore communities. Looking at the current debates about the role of the museum, she considers contested values in museum functions and examines provision, power, ownership, responsibility and institutional issues. This book is of great relevance for all disciplines as it explores and questions the role of the museum in modern society.

Museum Exhibitions and Suspense Ariane Karbe, 2022-12-29 Museum Exhibitions and Suspense takes insights from screenwriting to revolutionise our understanding of exhibition curating. Despite all genuine efforts to reach broader audiences, museums persistently fear risking their credibility by becoming too popular. Thus the enormous potential to learn from other storytelling forms more experienced in the field of entertainment remains essentially unexploited. Museum Exhibitions and Suspense unlocks this creative potential. A comparative in-depth analysis of three classical Hollywood films and three cultural historical exhibitions demonstrates how dramatic suspense techniques can be applied to exhibitions. These techniques must be adapted to the typical epic character of the exhibition medium. By differentiating between mild and wild suspense, the book provides a new understanding of the nature of suspense itself. Museum Exhibitions and Suspense addresses academics and students in the fields of museum studies, gallery studies and heritage studies interested in how exhibitions function and in how to achieve dramaturgical effects like suspense. It also appeals to scholars and students within film studies who want to gain a deeper understanding of suspense. It provides an important resource for curators and other museum practitioners and scriptwriters who intend to create stories with a wide audience appeal.

Tourism in the Arab World Hamed Almuhrzi, Hafidh Alriyami, Noel Scott, 2017-06-15 This book is the first to explore Arabic tourism from a business viewpoint rather than taking a sociological, anthropological or political stance. It focuses on business planning, management and marketing destinations in the Arab World, which are topics crucial for industry stakeholders and which have previously been neglected in the tourism literature. The book examines similarities and differences in the emergence and development of the tourism industry in countries across the Arab world as well as its inbound and outbound travel flows It analyses several different aspects of Arabic tourism including tourism policy organisation and planning tourism product development destination marketing and consumer behaviour This volume will be of interest to postgraduate students and researchers of tourism studies business and Middle Eastern studies

Museums in a Troubled World Robert R. Janes, 2009-05-12 Are Museums Irrelevant Museums are rarely acknowledged in the global discussion of climate change environmental degradation the inevitability of depleted fossil fuels and the myriad local issues concerning the well being of particular communities suggesting the irrelevance of museums as social institutions At the same time there is a growing preoccupation among museums with the marketplace and museums unwittingly or not are embracing the values of relentless consumption that underlie the planetary difficulties of today Museums in a Troubled World argues that much more can be expected of museums as publicly supported and knowledge based institutions The weight of tradition and a lack of imagination are significant factors in museum inertia and these obstacles are also addressed Taking an interdisciplinary approach combining anthropology ethnography museum studies and management theory this book goes beyond conventional museum thinking Robert R Janes explores the meaning and role of museums as key intellectual and civic resources in a time of profound social and environmental change This volume is a constructive examination of what is wrong with contemporary museums written from an insider's perspective that is grounded in both hope and pragmatism The book's conclusions are optimistic and constructive and highlight the unique contributions that museums can make as social institutions embedded in their communities and owned by no one

Heritage and Identity Marta Anico, Elsa Peralta, 2008-11-26 Heritage and Identity explores the complex ways in which heritage actively contributes to the construction and representation of identities in contemporary societies providing a comprehensive account of the diverse conceptions of heritage and identity across different continents and cultures This collection of thought provoking articles from experts in the field captures the richness and diversity of the interlinked themes of heritage and identity Heritage is more than a simple legacy from the past and incorporates all elements past and present that have the ability to represent particular identities in the public sphere The editors introduce and discuss a wide range of interconnected topics including multiculturalism and globalization local and regional identity urban heritage difficult memories conceptions of history ethnic representations repatriation ownership controversy contestation and ethics and social responsibility The volume places empirical data within a theoretical and analytical framework and presents an interdisciplinary approach to the study of the representation of the past invaluable for anyone interested in heritage and museum studies

Museums, Modernity and Conflict Kate Hill, 2020-11-26 Museums Modernity and Conflict examines the history of the relationship between museums collections and war revealing how museums have responded to and been shaped by war and conflicts of various sorts Written by a mixture of museum professionals and academics and ranging across Europe North America and the Middle East this book examines the many ways in which museums were affected by major conflicts such as the World Wars considers how and why they attempted to contribute to the war effort analyses how wartime collecting shaped the nature of the objects held by a variety of museums and demonstrates how museums of war and of the military came into existence during this period Closely focused around conflicts which had the most wide ranging impact on museums this collection includes reflections on museums such as the Louvre the Stedelijk in the Netherlands the Canadian War Museum and the State Art Collections Dresden Museums Modernity and Conflict will be of interest to academics and students worldwide particularly those engaged in the study of museums war and history Showing how the past continues to shape contemporary museum work in a variety of different and sometimes unexpected ways the book will also be of interest to museum practitioners

Collecting and Exhibiting Computer-Based Technology Petrina Foti, 2018-11-05 Computer technology has transformed modern society yet curators wishing to reflect those changes face difficult challenges in terms of both collecting and exhibiting Collecting and Exhibiting Computer Based Technology examines how curators at the history and technology museums of the Smithsonian Institution have met these challenges Focusing on the curatorial process the book explores the ways in which curators at the institution have approached the accession and display of technological artifacts Such collections often have comparatively few precedents and can pose unique dilemmas In analysing the Smithsonian's approach Foti takes in diverse collection case studies ranging from DNA analyzers to Herbie Hancock's music synthesizers from iPods to born digital photographs from the laptop used during the filming of the television program Sex and the City to Stanley the self driving car Using her proposed model of expert curation she synthesizes her findings into a more universal framework for understanding the curatorial methods associated with computer technology and reflects on what it means to be a curator in a postdigital world Collecting and Exhibiting Computer Based Technology offers a detailed analysis of curatorial practice in a relatively new field that is set to grow exponentially It will be useful reading for curators scholars and students alike

The Aftermaths of Participation Susanne Boersma, 2022-12-02 How do participatory museum projects with forced migrants impact both the museum and the participants What happens during these projects and what is left of them afterwards Based on interviews with museum practitioners facilitators and project participants Susanne Boersma brings together unique insights into museum work with forced migrants Her study of participatory projects in Germany the Netherlands and the UK reveals museums limiting infrastructures the shortcomings of their ethical frameworks and the problems of addressing forced migrants as communities Outlining the diverging objectives experiences and outcomes of participatory projects she suggests how these might be united in practice

Museum Practice Conal McCarthy, 2020-11-19 MUSEUM PRACTICE Edited by CONAL MCCARTHY Museum Practice covers the professional work carried out in museums and art galleries of all types including the core functions of management collections exhibitions and programs Some forms of museum practice are familiar to visitors yet within these diverse and complex institutions many practices are hidden from view such as creating marketing campaigns curating and designing exhibitions developing fundraising and sponsorship plans crafting mission statements handling repatriation claims dealing with digital media and more Focused on what actually occurs in everyday museum work this volume offers contributions from experienced professionals and academics that cover a wide range of subjects including policy frameworks ethical guidelines approaches to conservation collection care and management exhibition development and public programs From internal processes such as leadership governance and strategic planning to public facing roles in interpretation visitor research and community engagement and learning each essential component of contemporary museum practice is thoroughly discussed Museum Theory Andrea Witcomb,Kylie Message,2020-11-19 MUSEUM THEORY EDITED BY ANDREA WITCOMB AND KYLIE MESSAGE Museum Theory offers critical perspectives drawn from a broad range of disciplinary and intellectual traditions This volume describes and challenges previous ways of understanding museums and their relationship to society Essays written by scholars from museology and other disciplines address theoretical reflexivity in the museum exploring the contextual theoretical and pragmatic ways museums work are understood and are experienced Organized around three themes Thinking about Museums Disciplines and Politics and Theory from Practice Practicing Theory the text includes discussion and analysis of different kinds of museums from various primarily contemporary national and local contexts Essays consider subjects including the nature of museums as institutions and their role in the public sphere cutting edge museum practice and their connections with current global concerns and the links between museum studies and disciplines such as cultural studies anthropology and history Changes in Museum Practice Hanne-Lovise Skartveit,Katherine J. Goodnow,2010 By examining the ways in which museums involve refugees and asylum seekers Changes in Museum Practice New Media Refugees and Participation explores the opportunities around new media Leading artists curators and academics come together to outline different degrees of participation by audiences and communities and explore a range of topics from video games to theatre from photography to participatory video and digital storytelling Case studies are used throughout to highlight the unique ways that various approaches to inclusion and participation can be used successfully Book Jacket The Local Museum in the Global Village Insa Müller,2020-10-06 In remote areas of Europe local history museums struggle to connect with the rapidly changing and increasingly diverse communities around them Insa Müller asks how these museums can recast themselves to strengthen the links to their communities Combining theoretical deliberations empirical investigations of the case of two Norwegian islands and a museum experiment she offers starting points for rethinking the local history museum while at the same time providing suggestions for locally adapted museum practice Defining the Modern Museum Lianne McTavish,2013-01-01 Partiendo del museo público más antiguo de Canadá el New Brunswick Museum en Saint John la autora realiza un estudio de los museos como instituciones culturales entre 1842 y 1950 enfatizando sus relaciones con las escuelas las bibliotecas o las agencias gubernamentales Museum Marketing Ruth Rentschler,Anne-Marie Hede,2009-11-04 Museums have moved from a product to a marketing focus within the last ten years

This has entailed a painful reorientation of approaches to understanding visitors as customers new ways of fundraising and sponsorship as government funding decreases and grappling with using the internet for marketing This book brings the latest in marketing thinking to bear on the museum sector taking into account both the commercial issues and social mission it involves Carefully structured to be highly accessible the book offers A contemporary and relevant and global approach to museum marketing written by authors in Britain Australia the United States and Asia An approach that reflects the particular challenges museums of varying sizes face when seeking to market an experience to a diverse set of stakeholders audience funders sponsors and government A particular focus on museum marketing in the Information Age Major case studies at the beginning and end of each section of the book and smaller case studies within chapters The hugely experienced author team includes both leading academics and practitioners to ensure the book has broad appeal and is both relevant innovative and progressive in approach It will be essential reading for students in museum studies non profit marketing and arts management and marketing It will also be equally relevant for professionals working in and managing museums and galleries heritage attractions and ministries of arts Reshaping Museum Space Suzanne Macleod, 2005-10-09 Collating the views of international museum professionals architects designers and academics this book highlights the complexity and significance of museum space studies recent developments in museum architecture and exhibition design From Museum Critique to the Critical Museum Katarzyna Murawska-Muthesius, Piotr Piotrowski, 2016-03-03 Since the late nineteenth century museums have been cited as tools of imperialism and colonialism as strongholds of patriarchy masculinism homophobia and xenophobia and accused both of elitism and commercialism But could the museum absorb and benefit from its critique turning into a critical museum into the site of resistance rather than ritual This book looks at the ways in which the museum could use its collections its cultural authority its auratic space and resources to give voice to the underprivileged and to take an active part in contemporary and at times controversial issues Drawing together both major museum professionals and academics it examines the theoretical concept of the critical museum and uses case studies of engaged art institutions from different parts of the world It reaches beyond the usual focus on western Europe America and the World including voices from as well as about eastern European museums which have rarely been discussed in museum studies books so far
