Rekindling Democracy Cormac Russell, 2020-06-01 Finally a book that offers a practical yet well researched guide for practitioners seeking to hone the way they show up in citizen space At a time when public trust in institutions is at its lowest expectations of those institutions to make people well knowledgeable and secure are rapidly increasing These expectations are unrealistic causing disenchantment and disengagement among citizens and increasing levels of burnout among many professionals Rekindling Democracy is not just a practical guide it goes further in setting out a manifesto for a more equitable social contract to address these issues Rekindling Democracy argues convincingly that industrialized countries are suffering through a democratic inversion where the doctor is assumed to be the primary producer of health the teacher of education the police officer of safety and the politician of democracy Through just the right blend of storytelling research and original ideas Russell argues instead that in a functioning democracy the role of the professionals ought to be defined as that which happens after the important work of citizens is done The primary role of the twenty first century practitioner therefore is not a deliverer of top down services but a precipitator of more active citizenship and community building Trauma Trails, Recreating Song Lines Judy Atkinson, 2002 Providing a ground breaking answer to the questions of how to solve the problems of cross generational trauma Trauma Trails moves beyhond the rhetoric of victimhood and provides inspiration for anyone concerned about Indigenous and non Indigenous communities today Tomb Raider Archives Vol. 1 - 4 (2016-2018) , There s only one woman capable of tracking down the world s rarest artifacts Lara Croft Armed with her iconic twin pistols and aided by roguish playboy Chase Carver and her buttoned up assistant Madeline Hovan Lara crisscrosses the globe in search of adventure Join Lara as she fights against a shadowy organization intent on her destruction faces the ultimate betrayal and uncovers legendary treasures The Stoneholding James G. Developing Magical Consciousness Susan Greenwood, 2019-09-30 Offering a new template for future exploration Susan Greenwood examines and develops the notion that the experience of magic is a panhuman orientation of consciousness

a form of knowledge largely marginalized in Western societies In this volume she aims to form a bridge of communication between indigenous magical or shamanic worldviews and rationalized Western cultures She outlines an alternative mythological framework for the latter to help develop a magical perception as well as giving practical case studies derived from her own research The form of magic discussed here is not fantastic or virtual but ecological and sensory Magical knowledge infiltrates the body in its deepest levels of the subconscious and unconscious as well as conscious awareness it is felt and understood through the connection with an inspirited world that includes the consciousness of other beings including those of plant animal and the physical environment This is anthropology from the heart rather than the head and it engages with the messy area of emotions an embodiment of the senses and struggles to find a common language of listening to one another across a void of differences The aim is to provide a non reductive structure for the creative interplay of both magical and analytical modes of thought Passion is a motivator for change and a change in attitude to magic as an integrative force of human understanding is the main thread of this work

Zones of Re-membering Don Gifford, 2011-03 Don Gifford in Zones of Re membering shows clearly thoughtfully yet entertainingly how no one explanation will account for the depth and complexity of human experience and its grounding in Memory Because consciousness is a function of Memory life without Memory is no life at all as Alzheimer s all too frequently demonstrates Both our individual and collective Memory is stored in the arts he contends which in turn provide a way of knowing and of nourishing Memory and consciousness Memory like language is never really stable or accurate but appears as narrative and these narratives collectively form our entire culture For Gifford the profoundest explorer of the human consciousness time and memory is James Joyce and in its range of reference wit and humanity the spirit of Joyce permeates this book
