Altizer, Alma B. Altizer, 1973-07-31 Alienation ecstasy death rebirth in the poetry of Michelangelo Donne and d Aubigne these archetypal themes make possible the ultimate formulation of new poetic symbolizations of self and world As their poetry evolves from a primarily rhetorical towards a fully symbolic mode images of loss of self in ecstasy or in alienation of death and rebirth recur with increasing frequency and intensity Whether the context is love poetry or religious poetry the basic problem remains the same love is the link between the two kinds of poetry And love is indeed a problem for these three poets since it involves the self in relation to the other the other being either God or another human being Increasingly the work of each poet centers on a need to analyze or abolish the gulf separating subject and object self and other The dominant mode of most of the three poets work is neither rhetorical nor symbolic but expressive This transitional mode reveals the individual poet's most urgent concerns and conflicts his sense of self in Its most isolated or burdensome affirmative or struggling state Under lying most of their poems is a profound self consciousness a heightened awareness of self as a powerful separate entity with a corresponding objectification of all reality outside of self The Renaissance in general is a time of increasing individualism and 1 self consciousness The Cumulative Book Index ,1988 A world list of books in the English language The Flowering of Modern Chinese Poetry ,2016-09-01 The May Fourth Movement launched an era of turmoil and transformation in China as Western ideas and education encroached on the Confucian traditions at the root of Chinese society The Republican period 1919-49 witnessed an outpouring of poetry in a form and style new to China written in the common people's language baihua plain speech The New Poetry broke with the centuries old tradition of classical poetry and its intricate forms and the rise of China's modern poetry reflects the rise of modern China The Flowering of Modern Chinese Poetry presents English translations of over 250 poems by fifty poets including a rich selection of poetry by women writers to provide a nuanced picture of the rapid development of vernacular verse in China from its emergence during the May Fourth Movement through the years of the Japanese invasion to the Communist victory in the Civil War in 1949 Michel Hockx introduces the historical and literary contexts of the various schools of vernacular poetry that developed throughout the period the pioneers formalists symbolists peasants and soldiers poets and Shanghai poets of the late 1940s Each selection of verse begins with a biographical sketch of the author's life and literary career including their roles in the Civil War and Japanese occupation Introducing English readers to master poets who are virtually unknown to Western audiences this anthology presents a collection of verse written in an age of struggle that attests to the courage sensitivity and imagination of the Chinese people The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1988

Mother-play and Nursery Songs; Poetry, Music and Pictures for the Noble Culture of Child Life Friedrich Wilhelm August Froebel,1906 The Concept of Negritude in the Poetry of Leopold Sedar Senghor Sylvia Washington Ba,2015-03-08 Negritude has been defined by L opold S dar Senghor as the sum of the cultural values of the black world as they are expressed in the life the institutions and the works of black men Sylvia Washington B analyzes Senghor's poetry to show how the concept of negritude infuses it at every level A biographical sketch describes his childhood in Senegal his distinguished academic career in France and his election as President of Senegal Themes of alienation and exile pervade Senghor's poetry but it was by the opposition of his sensitivity and values to those of Europe that he was able to formulate his credo Its key theme and the supreme value of black African civilization is the concept of life forces which are not attributes or accidents of being but the very essence of being Life is an essentially dynamic mode of being for the black African and it has been Senghor's achievement to communicate African intensity and vitality through his use of the nuances subtleties and sonorities of the French language In the final chapter Sylvia Washington B discusses the future of Senghor's belief that the black man's culture should be recognized as valid not simply as a matter of human justice but because the

Hart Crane's Poetry John T. Irwin, 2011-11-17 In one of his letters Hart Crane wrote Appollinaire lived in Paris I live in Cleveland Ohio comparing misspelling and all the great French poet s cosmopolitan roots to his own more modest ones in the midwestern United States Rebelling against the notion that his work should relate to some European school of thought Crane defiantly asserted his freedom to be himself a true American writer John T Irwin long a passionate and brilliant critic of Crane gives readers the first major interpretation of the poet s work in decades Irwin aims to show that Hart Crane s epic The Bridge is the best twentieth century long poem in English Irwin convincingly argues that compared to other long poems of the century The Bridge is the richest and most wide ranging in its mythic and historical resonances the most inventive in its combination of literary and visual structures the most subtle and compelling in its psychological underpinnings Irwin brings a wealth of new and varied scholarship to bear on his critical reading of the work from art history to biography to classical literature to philosophy revealing The Bridge to be the near perfect synthesis of American myth and history that Crane intended Irwin contends that the most successful entryway to Crane s notoriously difficult shorter poems is through a close reading of The Bridge Having admirably accomplished this Irwin analyzes Crane s poems in White Buildings and his last poem The Broken Tower through the larger context of his epic showing how Crane in the best of these worked out the structures and images that were fully developed in The Bridge Thoughtful deliberate and extraordinarily learned this is the most complete and careful reading of Crane s poetry available Hart Crane may have lived in Cleveland Ohio but as Irwin masterfully shows his poems stand among the greatest written in the English language A Hundred Little 3D Pictures /

Poetry Daniel Abdal-Hayy Moore, 2013 A Hundred Little 3D Pictures started out from those once popular computer generated images a certain stare unfocused or crosseyed could render in layered three dimensions with some really astonishing results Recall the excitement in childhood when we looked into a diorama and saw back and back past whatever was being portrayed not very far back really perhaps maybe only a shoebox length back but peering through the front hole with the little flashlight or christmas bulb illuminating it we saw a wee world that gave us shivers of delight The Poetic Image C. Day Lewis, 2011-09-28 This book a most important and original contribution to the literature of interpretative criticism contains the Clark Lectures delivered at Cambridge University in 1946 Its theme is poetic imagery not only in its stricter sense of simile metaphor and image but in the wider application of the term by which every good poem is itself a total image made up of a multiplicity of component images The book is therefore more than an academic study of one aspect of poetic material and technique it is an investigation into the nature of poetry itself taking as its clue the belief as old as Aristotle that the power of image making is the one sure sign of poetic genius Beneath all the manifestations of the poetic image Mr Day Lewis traces one principle at work the abiding impulse in every human being to seek order and harmony behind the manifold and the changing

Reflections on Spanish American Poetry Jorge C. Andrade, 1973-06-30 In these five essays the Ecuadorian poet Jorge Carrera Andrade traces the evolution of Spanish American poetry from the sixteenth century to the present The author shows how Spanish American literature grew out of the special conditions produced when the New World environment totally transformed Old World culture and society Initially the brilliance of the land and its extraordinary peoples inspired European interest in exotic travel and utopianism later Old World literary currents came to have distinctive expression in Spanish American writing Poetry and Society in Spanish America follows the historic commitment of the New World poets to social issues particularly such unique ones as the endeavor to bring the Indians into national life while Trends in Spanish American Poetry dwells on the more purely aesthetic concerns that have stimulated the poets of the twentieth century Throughout Carrera Andrade ties his analysis to specific poems and poets In the last two essays the author presents a clear perspective of his poetic development from 1930 to 1960 A Decade of My Poetry and Poetry of Reality and Utopia will especially interest readers of Carrera Andrade s poetry for not only do they elucidate the personal history and philosophy informing his poems they also reveal how truly his inspiration springs from that unique Spanish American world he has so clearly delineated
