great interest to scholars of developmental psychology early literacy and narratology as well as to professionals working with preschoolers Most of all it will fascinate parents who themselves share stories with their child Inventing a Classroom Kathryn F. Whitmore, Caryl G. Crowell, 1994 What are the patterns of teaching and learning that make a classroom holistic How do children invent oral and written language How do they create the culture and curriculum of a classroom How does the spirit of community and collaboration develop among children and teachers What are the relationships between literacy schooling and socialization as they form among the children These are a few of the broad questions that Kathy Whitmore and Caryl Crowell answer in this absorbing portrait of Caryl's third grade classroom the Sunshine Room Over the span of a school year we watch the students in this bicultural classroom within a bilingual working class neighborhood work and develop together as a community of learners It is the story of how the Sunshine Room like many whole language classrooms invents itself and how in this process the children themselves are continually inventing oral and written language culture and curriculum In two separate collaborative voices the authors carry readers through several critical events in the life of the classroom the process through which the children and the teachers negotiate the curriculum the creation of a theme study about the Middle Ages and a vicarious experience of the Middle East war through children's literature and discussions On an individual level the deep friendship between Seaira an English speaking child from the volunteer community and Lolita a bilingual Latina from the barrio is symbolic of the bicultural experience fostered in the Sunshine Room Reading Step by Step , Two Books Are Better Than One! Shari Frost, 2016-06-03 Today's early literacy programs are more demanding than ever No longer is it sufficient to teach letters letter sounds sight words and simple texts in kindergarten through second grade Children are expected to read and comprehend texts in a variety of genres with increasing complexity Then they must integrate the ideas and concepts from those texts into their own writing Two Books are Better Than One Reading and Writing and Talking and Drawing Across Texts in K 2 helps teachers meet those demands Each chapter contains an anchor lesson focused on a different way of connecting texts including by theme characters perspective structure or genre The lessons feature research based and common core aligned strategies interactive read alouds shared reading and writing scaffolded small group reading accountable talk close reading and opinion narrative and explanatory writing Each anchor lesson features two high quality children's books and each chapter is rounded out with a list of other recommended book pairs to support you in creating your own lessons
