Reading Between the Lines

An inference is a conclusion you come to based on reasoning and evidence within a text. Read each paragraph below and answer the inference question that follows.

Harold grunted as he walked into the house. He carried four paper bags in his arms, each one filled to the brim. Suddenly, he tripped and one of the bags fell, spilling oranges, a loaf of bread, and two sticks of butter onto the floor. "At least I didn't drop the eggs!" he exclaimed.	Where was Harold before he got home? How do you know?
Each day, before Renee goes to work, she puts on her brown uniform and sturdy work boots. She has to get to work early because a lot of creatures, big and small, are counting on her for their breakfast. Later in the day, she will make sure their habitats are clean. Sometimes she gets dirty at work, but she enjoys seeing all the people who come to visit, peering through fences and windows as she works.	Where does Renee work? How do you know?
Patrick arrived home from school with a grin. He burst through the front door and ran into the living room where he saw boxes wrapped in shiny paper and balloons tied to a chair. On the counter sat a chocolate cake with eleven candles. He reached for a taste of the frosting, but his mother scolded, "We have to sing to you before eating the cake!"	What is Patrick celebrating? How do you know?
Lucy sighed happily as she curled into a ball and basked her fur. After a long afternoon of laying in the sun, she was happy to be snuggled up on her soft bed. She gazed contentedly as she closed her eyes, ready for a nap. Suddenly, she heard a buzzing noise. Her eyes snapped open and her ears twitched. She spotted a fly landing nearby. Lucy watched it carefully for a moment and then, POUNCE! She caught it!	Who is Lucy? How do you know?

Clough, 2013-08-01 This book examines one of the most pressing cultural concerns that surfaced in the last decade the question of the place and significance of the animal This collection of essays represents the outcome of various conversations regarding animal studies and shows multidisciplinary at its very best namely a rigorous approach within one discipline in conversation with others around a common theme The contributors discuss the most relevant disciplines regarding this conversation namely philosophy anthropology religious studies theology history of religions archaeology and cultural studies The first section Thinking about Animals explores philosophical anthropological and religious perspectives raising general questions about the human perception of animals and its crucial cultural significance The second section explores the intriguing topic of the way animals have been used historically as religious symbols and in religious rituals The third section re examines some Christian theological and biblical approaches to animals in the light of current concerns The final section extends the implications of traditional views about other animals to more specific ethical theories and practices Exploring the Composition of the Pentateuch L. S. Baker Jr., Kenneth Bergland, Felipe A. Masotti, A. Rahel Wells, 2020-12-11 For many years the historical critical quest for a reconstruction of the origins and development of the Pentateuch or Hexateuch has been dominated by the documentary hypothesis the heuristic power of which has produced a consensus so strong that an interpreter who did not operate within its framework was hardly regarded as a scholar However the relentless march of research on this topic has continued to yield new and refined analyses data methodological tools and criticism In this spirit the contributions to this volume investigate new ideas about the composition of the Pentateuch arising from careful analysis of the biblical text against its ancient Near Eastern background Covering a wide spectrum of topics and diverging perspectives the chapters in this book are grouped into two parts The first is primarily concerned with the history of scholarship and alternative approaches to the development of the Pentateuch The second focuses on the exegesis of particular texts relevant to the composition of the Torah The aim of the project is to foster investigation and collegial dialogue in a spirit of humility and frankness without imposing uniformity In addition to the editors the contributors include Tiago Arrais Richard E Averbeck John S Bergsma Joshua A Berman Daniel I Block Richard Davidson Roy E Gane Duane A Garrett Richard S Hess Benjamin Kilcher Michael LeFebvre Ji Moskala and Christian Vogel
