Long Term Care Crisis Elders Trapped In The No Care Zone:

Caring for Our Elders Patricia Kolb, 2003-10-01 Almost forty percent of American adults age sixty five and over spend some time in a nursing home and residents in nursing homes will be increasingly diverse racially and ethnically because of changing demographics The decision to place a family member in a nursing home is often extremely difficult especially when the family belongs to a group with a strong tradition of filial responsibility Despite these realities little has been written about the stresses families of diverse cultural backgrounds experience in making this challenging decision This book describes the experiences of seventy five African American and Afro Caribbean white Jewish and Latina o residents and their relatives and friends who have been their caregivers Integrating original qualitative research with quantitative data and theoretical perspectives and findings from other studies Patricia Kolb not only presents new perspectives on how caregiving varies across racial and ethnic backgrounds but also dispels numerous stereotypes about nursing home placement among diverse groups

The Need for Theory Simon Biggs, Jon Hendricks, Ariela Lowenstein, 2020-11-25 The Need for Theory speaks to the burgeoning need for critical thinking in social gerontology The editors have brought together some of the foremost contributors to theoretical advances in the field This volume incorporates state of the art theorizing with a focus on selected topical areas facing gerontologists around the world Using their keen insights into substantive issues the contributors examine personal and structural changes affecting individuals over the life course Extolling the need for theory is not enough the contributors focus their insights on a panoply of substantive issues linking the personal with the political and with the structural parameters that shape the process of aging no matter where it occurs

Health Care Financing Review ,1994

Human Behavior in the Social Environment Carel B. Germain, Martin Bloom, 1999 It also takes into account the expected and unexpected stresses challenges and life tasks that can influence development within social environments

BOOK JACKET

Young V. Old Susan Macmanus, 2018-02-12 Arguing that an inter generational war is brewing in the United States this book paints a picture of the ageing of America and what it means for politics and policy questions including social security health care crime jobs social welfare defence and foreign affairs Differences between older and younger citizens are examined in the light of voting and registration patterns ideological and party preferences and varieties of political activism Contemporary media and new technologies are highlighted as sources of disparities and bridges between the generations how they watch politics how they prefer to solve social problems and how inter generational understanding may be improved through communication and education

Aging and Caring at the Intersection of Work and Home Life Anne Martin-Matthews, Judith E. Phillips, 2010-10-18 There are not many books that address the boundaries of care of older people from a work life perspective This book authored by contributors from various countries looks at the boundaries of care by looking at private and public help professional and personal help and paid and unpaid caregivers It captures and conceptualizes the complexity of the intersection of work and home life as it relates to the provision of assistance and support to older relatives in a variety of care work contexts It explores these issues within a critical framework rather than from an assumed stress or burden perspective which dominates current texts on the topic Readers of this volume will gain a deeper understanding of issues of care provision amongst networks of careers and helpers and of the particular dynamics of care when it is episodic or framed by constraints of space and time as a result of geography In addition each chapter addresses issues of diversity with sensitivity to gender race and ethnicity This book will be of use to academics and graduate students in Gerontology Family Studies IO psychology Gender Studies and Sociology

The Family Track Constance Coiner,Diana Hume George,1998 At a time when the academy is an ever more demanding arbiter and shaper of the lives of those it employs this book discusses the challenges and benefits of balancing a rewarding professional life with the competing needs to nurture children care for aging parents and engage in other personal relationships

Precarity and Ageing Amanda Grenier,Chris Phillipson,Richard A. Settersten Jr,2021-07-14 This edited collection develops an exciting new approach to understanding the changing cultural economic and social circumstances facing different groups of older people

The Long Term Care Crisis Carroll L. Estes,James H. Swan,1993 This book examines the implementation of the prospective payment system PPS in the US for Medicare hospital reimbursement which started in 1983 The authors discuss the impact of the PPS on health care provision and conclude that rather than improving conditions for the elderly in their transition from hospital to community and decreasing escalating health costs the PPS has restructured the system with the result that the greater financial burden is placed on informal caregivers community and home health care agencies and the elderly themselves
