The Subjective Self Harwood Fisher, 2001-01-01 For all their strides in understanding how we create and think about cultures psychologists linguists and logicians have had difficulty explaining how we conceive our selves how the self can in fact be both the object and the subjective originator of its surroundings Harwood Fisher's purpose in this far reaching interdisciplinary book is to depict the subjective self in its true complex duality In The Subjective Self Fisher argues that the key to depicting both aspects of the self simultaneously and thus modeling it more holistically than before is to visualize the self in a logical space From an origin point inside this space the self tries out metaphors and launches categories to logically order what it wants sees and encounters This is a creative cognitive process metaphoric framing by which the self invents new forms and depicts new organizations of its experiences impressions and information It is also a generative linguistic process bracketing by which the self can step outside its own expressed thoughts gain new levels of awareness re position itself as an agent responsible for its ideas and statements and in short empower its own identity The framing sets in motion versatile mental categories forms that are projected into mental space where they become objectified The bracketing sets in motion the logical bounds of the I stabilizing the individual s identity and giving thrust to the subjective self s dynamic causal role In elaborating this theory Fisher extends the ideas of Kurt Lewin Jean Piaget and C S Peirce among others By drawing on each of these thinkers he is able to bring their common themes of perspective and construction together in his portrait of the self as a creative iconic space The Four Books Daniel K. Gardner,2007-03-15 In this engaging volume Daniel Gardner explains the way in which the Four Books Great Learning Analects Mencius and Maintaining Perfect Balance have been read and understood by the Chinese since the twelfth century Selected passages in translation are accompanied by Gardner s comments which incorporate selections from the commentary and interpretation of the renowned Neo Confucian thinker Zhu Xi 1130 1200 This study provides an ideal introduction to the basic texts in the Confucian tradition from the twelfth through the twentieth centuries It guides the reader through Zhu Xi s influential interpretation of the Four Books showing how Zhu through the genre of commentary gave new coherence and meaning to these foundational texts Since the Four Books with Zhu Xi s commentary served as the basic textbook for Chinese schooling and the civil service examinations for more than seven hundred years this book illustrates as well the nature of the standard Chinese educational curriculum Report of Annual Meeting United States. Veterans Administration. Voluntary Service. National Advisory Committee,1968 My Search for God Through the Akashic Records Lee Fisher,2014-05-29 What is a soul Does the soul have a personality The Akashic Records response was The soul is the personality There is no determining factor as to how many times the soul re incarnates This is left up to the individual as to how many times they re incarnate There is no such thing as a failed incarnation The soul is never discarded or destroyed Once the soul reaches perfection it rejoins the spirit of God for all eternity Eunoia Niti Majethia,2014-12-02 Eunoia is a haunting collection of eclectic poems some light and breezy others dark and gripping some offering solace and comfort others setting you thinking about the meaning of life and everything we do Yet throughout Majethia very boldly helps the reader explore and discover jump into danger into depths dare and dream showing the reader what a fascinating and twisted feeling it is to live within the skin of the universe rather than live on top of it Its a must have collection for every genre of thinker as it speaks to everyone from the timid wallflower and the soul seeker to the tormented the devout the enthusiast and people all along the spectrum of possible emotions and existence Also interspersed with thought provoking answer this and say it to yourself styled
