

A night scene of a road with a large fire in the distance. The road is illuminated by streetlights, and the fire is a bright orange and yellow glow. The text is overlaid on the image.

When you look back,
The only things you can Keep forever are the memories.

The Onam Rhyme and Other Passages from Time Biju Vasudevan, 2017-02-23 THE ONAM RHYME AND OTHER PASSAGES FROM TIME is a compendium of Traditional English Poetic Works As opposed to Modern Poetry This book is a meandering journey through a multitude of emotions and insights ranging from the sublime and exhilarating to the dark and depressing This book like life is painted in shades of grey where the light blends in with the shadows and black merges into white forming shades of grey at the borders where they meet There is nothing called absolute joy and neither absolute sorrow no absolute victory and neither absolute defeat in life Everything is relative and are governed by the laws of relativity as expounded by science too Nobody is perfect and nobody is completely flawed too Everything is ephemeral and temporary including our emotions too The only thing that is permanent in this world is His Eternal Grace which is boundless and unending The central message of this collection of poetry is the divesting of the self from the ephemeral and attaching the self firmly with the eternal which is His Mysterious Grace I sincerely hope that the readers shall find this collection to be worth their while

Remember Me Davide Sisto, 2021-04-13 As the end of December draws near Facebook routinely sends users a short video entitled Your Year on Facebook It lasts about a minute and brings together the images and posts that received the highest number of comments and likes over the last year The video is rounded off with a message from Facebook that reads Sometimes looking back helps us remember what matters most Thanks for being here It is this looking back increasingly the focus of social networks that is the inspiration behind Davide Sisto's brilliant reflection on how our relationship with remembering and forgetting is changing in the digital era The past does not really exist it is only a story we tell ourselves But what happens when we tell this story not only to ourselves but also to our followers when it is recorded not only on our social media pages but also on the pages of hundreds or thousands of others making it something that can be viewed and referenced forever Social media networks are becoming vast digital archives in which the past merges seamlessly with the present slowly erasing our capacity to forget And yet at the same time our memory is being outsourced to systems that we don't control and that could become obsolete at any time cutting us off from our memories and risking total oblivion This timely and thoughtful reflection on memory and forgetting in the digital age will be of interest to students and scholars in media studies and to anyone concerned with the ways our social and personal lives are changing in a world increasingly shaped by social media and the internet
