Poetics of Emptiness Jonathan Stalling, 2010 Poetics of Emptiness traces the historically specific intertextual pathways of a single if polyvalent philosophical term emptiness as it is transformed within twentieth century American poetry and poetics This conceptual migration is detailed in two sections The first focusing on transpacific Buddhist poetics discusses Ernest Fenollosa's The Chinese Written Character as a Medium for Poetry as an expression of Fenollosa's Buddhist poetics explores classical Chinese poetics as it was known by Fenollosa and talks about the role of emptiness in Gary Snyder The second half on transpacific Daoist poetics explores the career of poet translator critic Wai lim Yip and engages the weave of post structural thought and Daoist and shamanistic discourses in Theresa Hak Kyung Cha Formulating interpretive frames as hybrid as the texts being read this book unveils one of the most important yet still largely unknown stories of American poetry and poetic

Water and Art David Clarke, 2012-01-01 Restless protean fluid evanescent despite being a challenge to represent visually water has gained a striking significance in the art of the twentieth century This may be due to the fact that it allows for a range of metaphorical meanings many of which are particularly appropriate to the modern age Water is not merely a subject of contemporary art but also a material increasingly used in art making giving it a distinct dual presence Water and Art probes the ways in which water has gained an unprecedented prominence in modern Western art and seeks to draw connections to its depiction in earlier art forms David Clarke looks across cultures finding parallels within contemporary Chinese art which draws on a cultural tradition in which water has an essential presence and is used as both a subject and a medium The book features a wealth of images by artists from East and West including Fu Baoshi Shi Tao Wei Zixi Fang Rending Leonardo da Vinci Bernini Turner Gericault Klee Matisse Monet Picasso Mondrian and Kandinsky Fast
