Fandom Culture and The Archers Cara Courage, Nicola Headlam, 2022-05-18 Fandom Culture and The Archers looks beyond the popular success of the Archers to explore how the program and the themes it discusses are used in teaching, learning, research and professional settings and how the Academic Archers fandom helps shape these real life impacts.

The Toxic Classroom Richard Steward, 2020-06-09 The Toxic Classroom offers a wide ranging look at education today and explores in detail the pressures children experience as a result of constant change, digital technology and political interference. Beginning with what it is like to be a child in the classroom, the book goes on to provide a detailed analysis of the curriculum, assessment and accountability, school structures, educating for global citizenship and the plethora of social issues schools are now expected to solve. Written from the perspective of a successful headteacher with over 30 years teaching experience, the book considers what needs to be done to put things right and outlines a more equitable and effective school system. Each chapter outlines the steps schools can implement immediately and the longer term policy changes that are needed to detoxify the classroom and facilitate a genuine love of learning. Offering a challenging yet compelling argument for putting education back into the hands of teachers, this book will be of great interest both to the general reader and to those working within education such as teachers and professionals who wish to improve the ways in which children learn and develop.

Media Studies Sarah Casey, Benyahia, Abigail Gardner, Philip Rayner, Peter Wall, 2013-12-13 Bringing together key writings with original textbook material, the second edition of Media Studies: The Essential Resource explains central perspectives and concepts within Media Studies. Readers are introduced to a range of writing on media topics promoting an understanding of the subject from both contemporary and historical perspectives. The text is split into three parts covering Analysis and Perspectives, Media Audiences and Ecologies and Creativities. The key areas of study are discussed with accessible readings from essential theoretical texts and fully supported with an author commentary. Theoretical perspectives are used to analyse contemporary media forms and activities, direct students to interrogate readings further and apply their learning. Encouraging critical and analytical study, Media

Studies The Essential Resource helps students to understand the main theories and theorists within Media Studies

Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts, Volume II James Flood, Shirley Brice Heath, Diane Lapp, 2015-04-22 The Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts Volume II brings together state of the art research and practice on the evolving view of literacy as encompassing not only reading writing speaking and listening but also the multiple ways through which learners gain access to knowledge and skills It forefronts as central to literacy education the visual communicative and performative arts and the extent to which all of the technologies that have vastly expanded the meanings and uses of literacy originate and evolve through the skills and interests of the young A project of the International Reading Association published and distributed by Routledge Taylor Francis Visit <http://www.reading.org> for more information about International Reading Association books membership and other services

Disciplinary Literacy and Explicit Vocabulary Teaching: A whole school approach to closing the attainment gap Kathrine Mortimore, 2020-12-15 Firmly rooted in research evidence of what works within the classroom for our most disadvantaged students Disciplinary Literacy and Explicit Vocabulary Teaching offers teachers and school leaders practical ways in which those students who are behind in their literacy capabilities can make excellent progress Building on the work of Geoff Barton in his influential book Don't Call it Literacy Kathrine Mortimore outlines the unique literacy challenges posed by specific subject areas for those with weaker literacy skills and more importantly how these challenges can be addressed and overcome A student's GCSE results are vital in giving them the choices they deserve in order to go on to the next stage of their academic careers This book draws on the success stories of schools and subjects that have made significant improvements in the outcomes of the children they teach regardless of their starting points From the inevitable success of Michaela Community school to the gains made by the English department at Torquay Academy and the rapid reading improvements at Henley Bank this book draws on both whole school initiatives and subject specific strategies which have had proven success This book places a wide and balanced knowledge rich curriculum at the centre of any school improvement strategy designed to improve literacy and illustrates the role that all subjects must combine to play in building the vital background knowledge and vocabulary that young people need in order to read independently This curriculum must then be delivered using those teaching methods that have had the greatest impact on disadvantaged learners and this book sets out how the methodology of direct and explicit instruction can be adopted within each subject area Alongside this is a useful summary of staff development and inset which offers practical ways in which teachers adoption of these effective strategies can be facilitated There are also useful sections on creating a whole school dictionary of essential vocabulary creating a culture of reading and writing and also those key literacy barriers experienced by those students with some of the most common special educational needs
