Career Education: Implications for Minorities United States. Office of Education,1973 Career Development as a Partner in Nation Building Australia Wendy Patton,2019-07-15 Despite examples of vocational guidance practice being evident in Australia since the mid 1800s there remains a spasmodic and patchwork approach to practice across the country For decades it is a field which has been paradoxically boosted and challenged by changing economic and political agendas Repeated international national and State reviews emphasise the vital nature of a systemic national approach to career development however authors repeatedly lament the lack of a sustained focus on career activity as a major national priority There is no broad comprehensive historical reckoning of the history of career development theory and practice in Australia since this early period Career development theory and practice in Australia has been forged in partnership with developments in an international context In documenting the shared history with other countries the author significantly adds to the body of knowledge on career development as a field in Australia and internationally The book provides new understandings about the historical development of this field of knowledge and in particular the challenging and cyclical nature of its policy history Mapping the Future of Undergraduate Career Education Melanie V. Buford,Michael J. Sharp,Michael J. Stebleton,2022-07-19 This timely book explores current trends and future possibilities for undergraduate career education the nature of the changing workplace and its impact on students in colleges and universities Built on decades of experience in career development and professional learning the editors raise and investigate multiple critical issues facing career educators in higher education today preparing students for the future of work exploring the increasing centrality of experiential learning in career education examining innovative paradigm shifts in career education and developing strategies for equity focused and inclusive programming for all students Reckoning with the effects of Covid 19 on the world of career development this book draws on contributions from leading scholars entrepreneurs and practitioners from across the fields of education business STEM and the humanities to offer an inclusive and innovation focused approach to supporting scholars practitioners and students involved with career education development and counseling for a new generation and a new world of work Career Education Implementation Incentive Act, 1977 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Human Resources. Subcommittee on Education, Arts, and Humanities,1977 Careers Education Suzy Harris,1999-06-28 Careers Education takes a critical look at policy and practice in the context of the new role of the privatized Careers Education and Guidance Service Suzy Harris places the present situation within the context of subordination to market principles delineates the changing and uncertain relationship between schools and the Careers Service shows how the politics of curriculum relevance marginalizes careers teaching describes the downward path to complete exclusion from The National Curriculum and points the way for policymakers to eschew rhetoric and rebuild the Careers Service This book will be an essential resource to help careers and guidance practitioners make sense of their situation for students and research Reports on the Implementation of the Vocational Education Amendments of 1968 United States.
