Beyond the Epic Gene D. Phillips, 2006-11-24 Two-time Academy Award winner Sir David Lean (1908-1991) was one of the most prominent directors of the twentieth century, responsible for the classics The Bridge on the River Kwai (1957), Lawrence of Arabia (1962), and Doctor Zhivago (1965). British-born Lean asserted himself in Hollywood as a major filmmaker with his epic storytelling and panoramic visions of history, but he started out as a talented film editor and director in Great Britain. As a result, he brought an art-house mentality to blockbuster films. Combining elements of biography and film criticism, Beyond the Epic: The Life and Films of David Lean uses screenplays and production histories to assess Lean's body of work. Author Gene D. Phillips interviews actors who worked with Lean and directors who knew him, and their comments reveal new details about the director's life and career. Phillips also explores Lean's lesser-studied films, such as The Passionate Friends (1949), Hobson's Choice (1954), and Summertime (1955). The result is an in-depth examination of the director in cultural, historical, and cinematic contexts. Lean's approach to filmmaking was far different than that of many of his contemporaries. He chose his films carefully and, as a result, directed only sixteen films in a period of more than forty years. Those films, however, have become some of the landmarks of motion picture history. Lean is best known for his epics, but Phillips also focuses on Lean's successful adaptations of famous works of literature, including retellings of plays such as Brief Encounter (1945) and novels such as Great Expectations (1946), Oliver Twist (1948), and A Passage to India (1984). From expansive studies of war and strife to some of literature's greatest high comedies and domestic dramas, Lean imbued all of his films with his unique creative vision. Few directors can match Lean's ability to combine narrative sweep and psychological detail, and Phillips goes beyond Lean's epics to reveal this unifying characteristic in the director's body of work. Beyond the Epic is a vital assessment of a great director's artistic process and his place in the film industry.

How Stage Playwrights Saved the British Cinema, 1930-1956 David Cottis, 2024-12-26 Examines the film careers and work of British playwrights who worked as screenwriters between 1930 and 1956. During the period between the 1927 Cinematograph Films Act and the new drama of the 1950s, many British writers associated with the stage also wrote for films, bringing the techniques of the well-made play with them. Some, like Bernard Shaw, Noel Coward, and Terence Rattigan, were screenwriter stars; part of the publicity of the films they worked on, Pygmalion, Brief Encounter, The Way to the Stars. Others were less celebrated but had long successful screen careers, such as R. C. Sherriff, author of Journey's End, who worked on films as different as The Invisible Man, The Four Feathers, and The Dam Busters. Using the authors' original archives, this book follows the way in which these writers adapted their stage skills for the screen, contributing to the post-war Golden Age of the British cinema and creating the classic form of screenplay that continues today Six Dramatists in Search of a Language Andrew K.

Kennedy,1975-01-23 In this penetrating study Andrew Kennedy sets out to analyse the modern movement in drama through the theatrical language of six key figures writing in English Shaw Eliot Beckett Pinter Osborne and Arden Dr Kennedy argues that a study of theatrical language should be an exercise in practical criticism and not merely narrowly linguistic The whole range of theatrical expressiveness must be examined in detail from play text and performance alike and the conclusions correlated with the author's known intentions if a full evaluative judgement is to be attempted Dr Kennedy shows how the modern movement in drama reveals a growing difficulty in creating any type of fully expressive dramatic language He has written a work with an unusual breadth of reference which should prove of value to all students of modern drama modern English and European literature and to the theatre going public Broadway Yearbook 2001-2002 Steven

Larson,2001 SHAW 21 offers readers an eclectic perspective on Shaw his works and his contemporaries Basil Langton actor and director reminisces about his early development as an actor his meeting with Shaw and his career as director of many of Shaw's plays He focuses upon Shaw's stagecraft augmenting his views with those of Sybil Thorndike and Sir Lewis Casson whom he interviewed in 1960 Galen Goodwin Longstreth analyzes the correspondence between Shaw and Ellen Terry and argues that the exchange is itself a literary genre a dramatic performance that reveals their personal identities The next two contributors Stanley Weintraub and Andrea Adolph examine the Shaw Virginia Woolf relationship Weintraub focuses on those occasions when their respective lives touched each other what their feelings for each other were and how those occasions were obliquely woven into Shaw's plays most notably Heartbreak House Professor Adolph argues that in Woolf's only dramatic text Freshwater A Comedy she was conforming to the traditional theatrical mode of the day dominated of course by Shaw but that she subverted his traditional literary depiction of paternity as for example the paternity dramatized in Major Barbara Sidney Albert and Bernard Dukore provide unique perspectives on reading Major Barbara Albert shows how John Bunyan's The Pilgrim's Progress serves as Shaw's source for Barbara's progress toward enlightened understanding Dukore focusing on the perspective of the familial relationship within the play concludes that Shaw's dialectic gives the kids the future and not the dad It will be the next generation not Father Undershaft who will determine where society will go next Julie Sparks and Martin Bucco approach Shaw from a comparative basis juxtaposing him with two American writers contemporaries of Shaw Mark Twain and Sinclair Lewis respectively Sparks explores the commonality that exists in Shaw's and Twain's thinking about evolution namely their heretical visions of a post Darwinian Eden Both viewed conventional Christianity iconoclastically but both arrived at different conclusions about human origin and destiny a view Sparks describes as emanating from the deist pessimist evolutionary determinist perspective versus the mystic optimistic creative evolutionist perspective or the Personal Godhead versus the Impersonal Force Professor Bucco enumerates the many references Sinclair Lewis makes to Bernard Shaw throughout his writings both prose and fiction to underscore the American novelist's admiration for the Irish playwright both recipients of the Nobel Prize for Literature The final two contributors to SHAW 21 Rodelle Weintraub and William Doan provide the readers with distinctive perspectives on John Bull's Other Island and The Doctor's Dilemma respectively Weintraub recasts the play into a dream sequence whereby Doyle's dream becomes an artifice for problem solving Implied within Father Keegan's lines in the play Every dream is a prophecy every jest is an earnest in the womb of Time is the resolution of Doyle's problem with Nora the girl he had left behind and of the dream of modernizing Roscullen Doan suggests that in The Doctor's Dilemma Shaw uses the idea of unconsummated adultery to argue for the efficacy of art over science In the conflict between the artist and the scientist the latter plans to have the artist's muse In the end not only is he deprived of the wife but also of the works of art themselves and the spirit that animates them SHAW 21 also includes three reviews of recent additions to Shavian scholarship as well as John R Pfeiffer's Continuing Checklist of Shaviana The Judge, 1916 Dotac, 1927 The Theatre, 1914 Theatre Magazine W.
