had left that deep stain in the darker granite as a perpetual memorial of the swift vengeance of the Jacquelin Grays This at least was what was asserted and believed by the old negroes and perhaps by some of the whites too a little And if the negroes did not know who did So Jacquelin often pondered Steve Allen who was always a reckless talker however used to say that the stain was nothing but a bit of red sandstone which had out cropped at the point where that huge fragment was broken off and rolled along by a glacier thousands of years ago far to the northward but this view was to the other children s minds clearly untenable for there never could have been any glacier there glaciers as they knew from their geographies being confined to Switzerland and the world having been created only six thousand years ago The children were well grounded by their mothers and Miss Thomasia in Bible history Besides there was the picture of the Indian killer in the black frame nailed in the wall over the fireplace in the great hall and one could not go anywhere in the hall without his fierce eyes following you with a look so intent and piercing that Mammy Celia was wont to use it half jestingly as a threat effectual with little Jacquelin when he was refractory that if he did not mind the Indian killer would see him and come after him How often Mammy Celia employed it with Jacquelin and how severe she used to be with tall reckless Steve because he scoffed at the story and to tease her threatened with appropriate gesture to knock the picture out of the frame and see what was in the secret cabinet behind it What would have happened had Steve carried out his threat Jacquelin as a boy quite trembled to think for though he admired Steve his cousin above all other mortals as any small boy admires one several years his senior who can ride wild horses and do things he cannot do this would have been to engage in a contest with something supernatural and not mortal Still he used to urge Steve to do it with a certain fascinating apprehensiveness that made the chills creep up and down his back
