Make Disciples Reaching The Postmodern World For Christ:

Make Disciples! Terry A. Bowland, 1999 Let us make no mistake about it Evangelism is not simply learning Bible facts Evangelism is not simply understanding sociological information Evangelism is taking part in God's great work of redeeming the world through Christ It is to reach out and allow God's power and presence to extend into the lives of people through our daily lives When we increasingly become aware of God working within us the result will be joy joy in our daily tasks and joy in the lives we touch Wherever God's will is done the ultimate result for us will be joy Invitation to Educational Ministry

George Hillman, Sue Edwards, 2018-09-25 Because teaching is at the heart of Christian ministry the editors of Invitation to Educational Ministry have assembled a team of seasoned experts to present a comprehensive plan of Christian education This volume will help church staff parachurch leaders and small group teachers become more effective influential and creative After laying a biblical and practical foundation for Christian education the contributors provide specific guidance on teaching a variety of individuals and groups including children adults singles seniors and non Christians The final section shares valuable insights on leading small groups teaching innovatively and overseeing a healthy educational ministry among other topics Each chapter is designed to equip educators with the most relevant information and includes many useful features Real life case studies Scriptural support Explanations of key terms and concepts Practical suggestions Resources for additional study Sidebars illustrating best principles and practices Questions of the Soul S. Valentine, 2015-01-27 The Festival of Young Preachers is a trans denominational one of a kind event designed to showcase and encourage young people who aspire to be preachers of the Gospel Questions of the Soul celebrates the preaching ministry of the millennial generation with its collection of sermons preached during the 2014 Festival Sacred

Subdivisions Justin Wilford, 2012-11-19 In an era where church attendance has reached an all time low recent polling has shown that Americans are becoming less formally religious and more promiscuous in their religious commitments Within both mainline and evangelical Christianity in America it is common to hear of secularizing pressures and increasing competition from nonreligious sources Yet there is a kind of religious institution that has enjoyed great popularity over the past thirty years the evangelical megachurch Evangelical megachurches not only continue to grow in number but also in cultural political and economic influence To appreciate their appeal is to understand not only how they are innovating but more crucially where their innovation is taking place In this groundbreaking and interdisciplinary study Justin G Wilford argues that the success of the megachurch is hinged upon its use of space its location on the postsuburban fringe of large cities its fragmented dispersed structure and its focus on individualized spaces of intimacy such as small group meetings in homes which help to interpret suburban life as religiously meaningful and create a sense of belonging Based on original fieldwork at Rick Warren's Saddleback Church one of the largest and most influential megachurches in America Sacred Subdivisions explains how evangelical megachurches thrive by transforming mundane secular spaces into arenas of religious significance Repairing the Missional Breach Kevin Blackwell, 2024-04-02 Making disciples is the primary calling of the church however in the past decades of American evangelicalism there has been a breach of Christ's Great Commission as found in Matt 28:19-20. Much of this failure can be attributed to the doctrine and practice within three modern church movements. The book offers a history and critique of modern American evangelical church movements including the Church Growth, Emergent Church, and Missional Church movements. Each of these movements did not result in disciple making multiplication. In this book you will find an analysis of disciple making in these movements as compared to the methods and model of Jesus. Informed by these critiques, formative ministry adjustments are presented as a faithful path for future missional approaches.

Preaching to a Postmodern World Graham M. Johnston, 2001-07-01 While growing churches dot our urban centers and country landscapes, churchgoers and students today are actually less likely to maintain a Christian worldview than in the past. In fact, the majority of society does not even believe in objective truth. A minister out of touch with this culture is like an uninformed missionary trying to teach in a foreign country. To communicate God's Word effectively in the twenty-first century, teachers need to know how to connect with and confront an audience of postmodern listeners. In Preaching to a Postmodern World, Johnston shows pastors, seminary students, professors, lay teachers, and church leaders can reach the present age without selling out to it. The book discusses how to distinguish between modernism and postmodernism, understand postmodern worldviews, change the style of preaching without compromising the substance, take advantage of new opportunities provided by the cultural shift, show an inattentive society the relevance of God's truth. The author's keen insights into contemporary pop and media culture also help equip speakers to address today's listeners with clarity and relevance.

Making Disciples in a World Parish Paul W. Chilcote, 2011-04-01 In this collection of inspirational and challenging essays, Methodists from around the globe reflect on the practice of disciple making in their own contexts. From their own perspectives, they address questions like: What are the challenges you face? What biblical images shape your missional practice? What examples of Christian authenticity inspire your communities? What gifts related to mission and evangelism do you offer the global community of faith? Churches on every continent have their own stories of struggle and faithfulness. Indeed, each distinct community within any given region has a voice of its own that deserves to be heard. The voices included in this volume belong to women and men alike. Likewise, they resound with the accents of Africa and Asia, Latin and North America, Europe, and Oceania. Each voice is distinct but all articulate a vision of faith made effective through love. In a world characterized variously by poverty and violence as well as prosperity and peace, the church must reclaim its central mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ. In their effort to articulate a vision of mission and evangelism, the contributors to this volume bear witness to the fact that we can no longer do this work in isolation from one another. To be the ambassadors of the gospel, we need each other, and we need to pay attention to the voices that sound different from our own. This volume takes a large step in that vital direction.

F. Culpepper, 2009 Bible Study for Busy Pastors and Ministers, Volume 3 Reginald F. Davis, 2024-04-08 Now more than ever before pastors and ministers should make sure the Word of God goes forth in a world that has lost its moral and spiritual way In America we are living on the edge When we go to the marketplaces schools churches outside activities we don't know if a mass shooting might take place We don't know what to expect in public places because violence and killings have become commonplace Many of our youth are dying from drug poisoning gun shootings and suicide Racial hatred is on the rise and kids are taking guns to school causing lockdowns and distress All around us is sorrow sadness and senselessness The only hope light and transformation is God's Word and its application These thematically arranged Bible lessons can help in the process of humanity finding their way back to God through Jesus Christ Adventist Review, 2006 New Doors in Ministry to Women Sue Edwards, Kelley Mathews, Foreword by Vickie Kraft A revolutionary biblical approach to life changing women's ministries in churches on campuses and around the world The Church Made Flesh Alan Todd, 2014-12-19 In his book The Church Made Flesh Alan takes the spiritual pulse of the Pentecostal Apostolic Church and lays bare its true condition Tapping into a rich spiritual repertoire of experiences both anecdotal and other erudite sources this book is a tour de force that revisits bedrock issues such as the cost of discipleship church planting and church order among others Employing a fruitful dialectic of tension these issues are explored in the intersection between the nascent Apostolic Church of the first century AD and its contemporary incarnation The denouement is an incisive accessible candid and profound exposition that is a must in every discerning minister and laypersons library Paul Thomas PhD Education Kings College London Lecturer University of Oslo Norway Institute for Pedagogy Comparative and International Education Give yourself this book and then help God solve the next vexing problem in the North American Apostolic church Sorry this book is not designed to grace the shelf of your library You should really read it on your knees Embark on your journey with tears in your eyes Bishop Paul Reynolds International Honorary General Presbyter United Pentecostal Church International The Church Made Flesh challenges today's commonly adopted church system of attraction by comparing it the 1st century's church model which exercised Apostolic authority by going out to the world Without apology Alan combats the readers thinking on how well today's church is executing the Great Commission and touching the lives of people of all nations For those that are ready to effect change in this world the biblical way this is a book that you must not only have but study and wrestle with Michael Whitton Minister of Operations Global Apostolic Ministries Toronto Canada Reaching People Under 40 while Keeping People over 60 Edward H Hammett, 2007-02-01 Many established churches are facing a number of challenges in today's increasingly secular culture Such a shift in many communities creates a challenge of church growth and church health when it seems that satisfying the needs of one group creates barriers to reaching another group So many are asking How do you keep people over sixty years of age who often hold church culture values while at the same time reach people under forty who often hold postmodern values If a church is interested in growing this situation becomes a major challenge Reaching People under 40 while Keeping People over 60 looks at the church as it seeks to function in a new world. It looks at the differences in the generations and at postmodernism not just a generational difference but a global change. Most importantly Reaching People under 40 while Keeping People over 60 looks at what a church can do in this new age to help the church survive and thrive. Foreword by Bill Easum. A TCP Leadership Series title. Organic Ministry to Women Sue Edwards, Kelley Matthews, 2019-09-24. With Millennial and Generation Z women coming of age in our churches and society new approaches to women's ministry are required to meet their distinct needs. Drawing on decades of experience ministering to women authors Sue Edwards and Kelley Matthews explain how their Transformation Model can energize women's ministry for all generations and in multiple settings. Individual chapters are devoted to applying the Model which is centered on Scripture and building relationships to ministry in the local church, the college campus and cross culturally in missions. Organic Ministry to Women is packed with practical advice and real life illustrations of how to implement the principles of the Transformation Model. Edwards and Matthews also profile numerous leading women's ministers like Jen Wilkin, Priscilla Shirer and Jackie Hill Perry drawing wisdom and inspiration from their lives and ministries. Helpful appendixes provide additional resources including sample job descriptions for ministry leaders, a Bible study lesson and a training guide for small group leaders. A revised and expanded version of New Doors in Ministry to Women this updated edition takes into account the latest cultural and ministry trends and is an invaluable resource for current and future leaders in ministry to women.

A Strategy For Reaching Secular People Ernan A. Norman, D. Min., 2007-05-11. Dr. Ernan A. Norman, D. Min. has identified strategies to implement John 13:35. All people will know that you are my followers if you love each other. An excellent source for the essential principles of discipleship in a postmodern world. This book is written in nontechnical language based on the experiences as a student pastor and professor. I believe that the concepts presented are fundamental and are in harmony with the model demonstrated by Jesus during His ministry on earth. Meeting people at their level, putting their needs ahead of His own, treating people with respect, befriending the nonreligious and inviting them into a relationship with Himself are some of the concepts that are identified and supported as strategies for reaching secular people. This book is an outstanding and important piece of work and easily readable. I would urge A Strategy for Reaching Secular People on members and leaders in every church if they are willing to challenge basic assumptions and embrace change relative to reaching lost people. Strategies that remove the barriers that keep people from hearing about God's love and to create a warm, friendly, uncritical and non judgmental attitude of acceptance are clearly presented. Full of practical how to's and watch out's this book by Ernan Norman is for individuals serious about sharing the love of God. As we interact with and minister to secular people matters such as marriage and family, academics, employment, addictions and human rights must be addressed. Norman clearly gives strategies for intentional efforts to reach secular postmodern men and women in our day. The central concept is the example of Jesus that we should follow. A must read. Weymouth Spence, Ed. D. President of Washington Adventist
