which eventually resulted in the Pop Art produced by the 1959 62 generation Boshier Phillips Jones Hockney et al Alex Seago traces the emergence of English postmodernism through the pages of ARK The Journal of the Royal College of Art interviewing ARK's editors art editors and contributors including Len Deighton novelist and art editor of ARK 10 Clifford Hatts student at the RCA 1946 8 and later head of the Design Group BBC Peter Blake RCA Painting School 1953 6 Robyn Denny RCA Painting School 1954 7 ARK's object of enquiry remained the elusive but necessary relationships between the arts and the social context throughout its twenty five year history making it a valuable archive for the cultural historian in its most memorable issues ARK's layouts complemented the contents to produce distillations of the energy and enthusiasm of the period under review Arthur Danto and the End of Art Raquel Cascales, 2019-08-20 To get a comprehensive understanding of the core concept of the end of art this book analyses the intellectual trajectory of Arthur Danto highlighting his successive achievements in philosophy of action philosophy of history and philosophy of art If as Danto says everything is extensively associated with everything else it is impossible to avoid putting the philosophy of art in relation with his whole philosophical system A critical appraisal of research in arts, health and wellbeing Stephen Clift, Gunter Kreutz, Stephen Pritchard, Michael Koon Boon Tan, Kai Lehtikainen, Andre De Quadros, Esther Coren, Kate Phillips, 2023-06-23

results and should be replaced by attempts to define the point of such things which is cumulative and ever subject to change He shows that while it is not possible to define what art is other than being an open kind it is possible to define what a painting is as a species of drawing regardless of whether that painting is an artwork or not at any given time The book demonstrates that things can be artworks on some occasions but not necessarily on others though it is easier for a thing to acquire artwork status than to lose it That is the movement of a thing into and out of the artworld is not symmetrical All such considerations are properly matters not of ontology what is and what is not an artwork but of use that is how a thing might or might not function as an artwork under any given circumstances These considerations necessarily affect the approach to paintings that at any given time might be able to function as an artwork or might not be able to function as such Only by taking these factors into account can anyone make viable knowledge about the past This lively discussion ranges over innumerable examples of paintings from Rembrandt to Rothko as well as plenty of far less familiar material from contemporary Catholic devotional works to the Chinese avant garde Its aim is to enhance philosophical acuity in respect of the analysis of paintings and to increase their amenability to philosophically satisfying historical use Paintings and the Past is a must read for all advanced students and scholars concerned with philosophy of art aesthetics historical method and art history
