Mark Gibney

Making It Home A Child's Eye Of Life As A Refugee:

Global Refugee Crisis Mark Gibney, 2010-09-16 This book documents the current global refugee crisis and examines the interrelated factors of immigration enforcement international human rights law political violence and refugee protection There are two disparate components to the global refugee crisis first there are about 46 million refugees and Internally Displaced Persons IDPs most of whom are struggling to survive in the poorest and most violent countries in the world and second our interpretation of international human rights law allows this state of affairs to worsen Refugee protection has been a longstanding policy that ostensibly protects victims of human rights violations from other countries In actuality protection is largely negated by systematic efforts by industrialized states to reduce the number of refugees arriving at the borders This book provides a comprehensive examination of this worldwide problem and rejects the idea that the majority of asylum seekers abuse the system to gain entrance into the country

There's No Place Like Home Stephanie Hemelryk Donald, 2018-03-27 Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2018 The Wizard of Oz brought many now iconic tropes into popular culture the yellow brick road ruby slippers and Oz But this book begins with Dorothy and her legacy as an archetypal touchstone in cinema for the child journeying far from home In There's No Place Like Home distinguished film scholar Stephanie Hemelryk Donald offers a fresh interpretation of the migrant child as a recurring figure in world cinema Displaced or placeless children and the idea of childhood itself are vehicles to examine migration and cosmopolitanism in films such as Le Ballon Rouge Little Moth and Le Havre Surveying fictional and documentary film from the post war years until today the author shows how the child is a guide to themes of place self and being in world cinema

Exploring the Links between Social Connections, Care and Integration Marcia Vera Espinoza, Arek Dakessian, Clayton Boeyink, 2024-10-18 Integration has in recent decades emerged as the primary policy tool through which the nations of the global north and increasingly the global south shepherd their immigrants to achieve the same social and economic outcomes as natives taking into account their characteristics OECD 2018 Despite scholarship on the importance of social connections to facilitate feelings of belonging and settlement lack of consensus around what integration means has led to bustling critique of the notion as prescribing processes through which migrant others must work their way into acceptance in the body social Moreover scholars recognise that discourses and practices of integration are often used as means to justify accompanying policies of disintegration and exclusion Put differently there is a humanitarian hand that cares and a hand that strikes Frameworks for understanding migration and integration traverse the realms of theory policy and practice and are usually intertwined with discourses and regimes of care and connectedness This Research Topic aims to further unsettle debates around integration and care through an engagement with the value commitments that underlie integration projects and that drive everyday practice and service provision drawing upon perspectives beyond the global north

Women in Islam Terence Lovat, 2012-06-12 The role of women in Islamic societies not to mention in the religion itself is a defining issue It is also one that remains resistant to universal dogma with a wide range of responses to women's social roles across the Islamic world. Reflecting this heterogeneity, the editor of this volume has assembled the latest research on the issue which combines contemporary with historical data. The material comes from around the world as well as from Muslim and non-Muslim researchers. It takes in work from majority Muslim nations such as Bangladesh, Iran, Iraq, Lebanon, Pakistan, Palestine, Tunisia and Turkey as well as countries with troubled interfaith relations such as India and Israel. Nations with minority Muslim populations such as France, the UK, Canada and Australia are also represented. The work also features varying Islamic subgroups such as the two main ones, Sunni and Shi'a, as well as less well-known populations such as the Ismaili Muslims. In each case, the work is underpinned by the very latest socio-theological insights and empirical data. Chicken Soup for the Child's Soul Jack Canfield, Mark Victor Hansen, 2012-08-07 Through this collection of heartfelt true stories about family ties helping neighbors and lasting friendships, children will see how other kids their age have learned valuable lessons from the choices they've made and most of all, they will realize that they are not alone. Kaapse bibliotekaris, 2019 Issues for Nov 1957 include section Accessions Aanwinsten Sept 1957. Life in Britain & Germany on the Road to War Anton Rippon, Nicola Rippon, 2025-11-04 In December 1922 the distinguished foreign correspondent Leonard Spry warned Britain to keep your eye on Hitler. The carnage of the so-called war to end all wars had left 900,000 British servicemen dead and more than 2 million suffering physical and psychological wounds, but there was hope. The vanquished had been left with no military capacity to wage another war and with a huge debt to pay to the victors. The Treaty of Versailles had surely made it impossible for the world to ever again be threatened by Germany. Safe in that knowledge, Britain now had her eye firmly set on new challenges. The cost of the war had already triggered her decline as the world's greatest economic power. The Great Depression that followed the Wall Street Crash of 1929 now saw Britain riven by unemployment and poverty. Seven General Elections between 1918 and 1935 resulted in mostly minority and coalition governments bringing further uncertainty. And all the time an Austrian ex-corporal by the name of Adolf Hitler was on the rampage, first with his swashbuckling gangs in Bavaria and then on an inexorable march to power throughout the rest of Germany and beyond. Life in Britain and Germany on the Road to War tells the story of one of the most eventful, tumultuous and heart-breaking periods in history. The twenty-one years that separated the First and Second World Wars and that eventually saw everyone's eyes firmly fixed on Hitler. Women of the Somali Diaspora Joanna
