Catalog of the Special Negro and African Collection Vail Memorial Library, 1970 The Cumulative Book Index, 1998 A world list of books in the English language Revaluation and Preservation of Indigenous Knowledge Systems in Modern Society Masenya, Tlou Maggie, Bhuda, Monicca Thulisile, 2025-05-08 Indigenous Knowledge can be used to integrate education in today's society honoring and respecting the diversity of knowledge sources and fostering an inclusive and fair learning environment This increases cultural pride and consequently the drive to find creative solutions to local problems using resources and inventiveness that are available locally Indigenous people have important knowledge about the ecosystem in the area and how best to manage its natural resources A growing number of people outside of indigenous knowledge systems are interested in them as a result of the current global ecological catastrophe and the understanding that overuse of natural resources arises from unsuitable attitudes and technology Indigenous Knowledge is the basis from which alternative ways of managing resources can be developed using indigenous technologies that are cost effective and economically affordable Revaluation and Preservation of Indigenous Knowledge Systems in Modern Society contributes to the role of indigenous knowledge in the contemporary society by focusing on the preservation promotion and dissemination of indigenous knowledge Covering topics such as food security intellectual property protection and biocultural community protocols this book is an excellent resource for knowledge managers records managers indigenous knowledge owners indigenous communities librarians computer scientists data curators sociologists anthropologists policymakers government officials professionals researchers scholars academicians and more Author-Title.-[2] Subject Vail Memorial Library, 1970 AB Bookman's Weekly, 1999 Guide to Reprints, 2009 Decolonizing International Relations Branwen Gruffydd Jones, 2006-09-20 The discipline of International Relations IR is concerned with the powerful states and actors in the global political economy and dominated by North American and European scholars This book exposes the ways in which IR has consistently ignored questions of colonialism imperialism race slavery and dispossession in the non European world Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal, 1972 Proceedings of the 2022 Conference of The Computational Social Science Society of the Americas Zining Yang, Santiago Núñez-Corrales, 2023-10-10 This book contains a selection of the latest research in the field of computational social science CSS methods uses and results as presented at the 2022 annual conference of the Computational Social Science Society of the Americas CSSSA Computational social science CSS is the science that investigates social and behavioral dynamics through social simulation social network analysis and social media analysis The CSSSA is a professional society that aims to advance the field of computational social science in all areas including basic and applied orientations by holding conferences and workshops promoting standards of scientific excellence in research and teaching and publishing research findings and results Imagining Economics Otherwise Nitasha Kaul, 2007-10-04 The result of a multifaceted investigation into the nature of knowledge produced by economics this book re examines certain understood ways of thinking about economics as a discipline especially in relation to questions of identity and difference British Books in Print ,1980 The Making of Modern Africa ,1971 The Practice of Humanitarian Intervention Kai Koddenbrock,2015-08-27 This book examines the practices in Western and local spheres of humanitarian intervention and shows how the divide between these spheres helps to perpetuate Western involvement Using the Democratic Republic of the Congo as a case study an object of Western intervention since colonial times this book scrutinizes the contemporary practice of humanitarian intervention from the inside It seeks to expose how humanitarian aid and peacekeeping works what obstacles they encounter and how they manage to retain their legitimacy By examining the relationship between the West and the DR Congo this volume asks why intervention continues to be so central for the relationship between Western and local spheres Why is it normal and self evident The main answer developed here is that the separation of these two spheres allows intervention to enjoy sufficient degrees of legitimacy to be sustained Owing to the contradictions that surface when juxtaposing the Western and Congolese spheres this book highlights how keeping them separate is key to sustaining intervention Bridging the divide between the liberal peace debate in International Relations and anthropologies of humanitarianism this volume thus presents an important contribution to taking both the legitimizing proclamations and local realities of intervention seriously The book will be of much interest to students of statebuilding peacebuilding peacekeeping anthropology research methods and IR in general Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1998 How Colonialism Preempted Modernity in Africa Olúfémi Táíwò,2010-01-11 Based on the idea that Africa was already becoming modern before being derailed by colonialism the author insists that Africa can get back on track and advocates a renewed engagement with modernity Tools toward shaping a positive future for Africa are immigration capitalism democracy and globalization The History of Modern Europe: pt. I. From the rise of the modern kingdoms to the peace of Westphalia, in 1648 William Russell,1871 Paul Ricoeur Alison Scott-Baumann,2023-08-21 This open access book employs Paul Ricoeur s methodologies to identify challenge and replace with responsible language the many continuing abuses of power including in the university curriculum and in the international discourse of right wing populism Using Ricoeur s philosophy the book provides a meta frame for current debates about the university and a pragmatic micro frame for supporting staff and students to develop important conversations on campus It introduces the Community of Inquiry approach and describes its use to engage with complex ideas on which society has recently become silent By contrasting Ricoeur s work on Algeria and his work in Chicago USA a bias blind spot is revealed in his desire for dialectical balance and reciprocity This prevented him and for some years the author from accepting the connections between colonialism slavery and racism and the urgent need for reparative justice With Ricoeur the readers can think differently how to recognize and tackle racism and the democratic deficit how to reduce epistemic injustice by learning how to speak out how to move away from forced polarities and develop a pedagogy of hope as well as an acceptance of provisionality and the intractability of certain existential problems The Routledge Companion to Art and the Formation of Empire Emily C. Burns, Alice M. Rudy Price, 2025-05-30 This companion comprises essays that analyze interactions between art and global imperial relationships from 1800 to World War II The essays in this volume expose and add to historical layers of meaning in their discussions of art and empire Found across much of the globe sites of sedimentary rock allegorize the dynamics of art and empire and frame the section structure for this book Twenty two authors unpack imperial layers in a variety of global and historical contexts through case studies that center art and visual and material culture The authors show how art and aesthetics have operated as tools of empire Interpreting a comprehensive array of media as well as inter media dialogues they analyze and intervene in how we remember and examine entwinements between empire and aesthetic practices In this volume s attention to the role of art in imperial formation as well as the legacy of colonization the essays disentangle sediments of culture as they are moved and shaped by homogenizing forces of empire showing that the aesthetics of empire inflect not only individuals makers and economies but also practices of circulation and collecting The book will be of interest to graduate students researchers and professors and may be used in classes focused on art history imperialism and colonialism Guide to Reprints 2007 K.
