Quamina, 1987 Managing FDI for Development in Resource-Rich States L. Barclay, 2015-04-28 This book is a timely study in light of the resurgence of resource nationalism that is currently occurring in several resource rich developing countries It moves away from the traditional explanations for the disappointing economic performance of resource rich developing countries notably those advanced by key researchers Guyana International Monetary Fund. Western Hemisphere Dept., 2014-09-26 The economy has experienced seven consecutive years of robust growth buoyed by high commodity prices foreign direct investment and expansion of private sector credit As part of a strategy to sustain growth reduce poverty and curtail dependence on imported oil the authorities are pursuing the Amaila Falls Hydro electric Project AFHP entailing investment of about 30 percent of GDP However steps by Parliament that delayed important approvals led the private sector partner to withdraw which could delay the project while additional financing is sought Meanwhile public debt remains high around 60 percent of GDP limiting the room to finance inclusive growth Making it Flow Commonwealth Foundation, 2004 These nine case studies of experiences in the provision of water and electricity services from across the Commonwealth present lessons arising from different ways of providing basic infrastructure services These include privatization public sector community partnership and NGO led service provision An overview chapter sets these experiences in the broader context of current debates and issues in essential service provision It highlights some of the issues that emerge from the case studies in the areas of utility reform including pricing and subsidies the importance of community awareness and decentralization and examines some of the challenges to private provision The case studies were commissioned by the Commonwealth Foundation to expand the debate on essential service delivery and inform policy and practice with examples from experience Prepared by researchers and civil society activists from Bangladesh Canada Ghana Guyana India Papua New Guinea South Africa Trinidad and Tobago and Uganda a common thread of the case studies is concern about putting people s needs at the centre of decision making about essential service delivery and factoring in the differential effects of policies on various groups in society Guyana's Great Economic Downswing, 1977-1990 Ramesh Gampat, 2020-10-19 Much of Guyana's 20th century history was defined by the PNC dictatorship and the political and economic wreckage it left behind. In Guyana's Great Economic Downswing 1977 to 1990 Dr Ramesh Gampat presents a comprehensive study of these specific years when the national economy contracted by 27 percent annually. He explores the multiple facets of the country's political tribalism which does not value freedom, liberty and the flourishing of all people; it values only freedom, liberty and flourishing of tribes. The study reinforces the widely held belief that until and unless these adversarial groups subsume their respective selfish interests and commit to the common cause of national peace and development, the great downswing might not rest as a historical event but could well re-emerge with further economic devastation if the lessons go unheeded. Dr Gampat makes a strong case for federalism as a solution to Guyana's ethnic politics. Federalism, he posits, would ensure that all Guyanese have equal access to opportunities and resources since a system of provincial governance would be better placed to address discriminatory policies and practices at a localised level. With the country sitting on the cusp of transformative development to be propelled by new found oil wealth, there is an urgency to settle the divisive politics if every Guyanese is to benefit fairly and equitably from the economic boom. Guyana's Great Economic Downswing 1977 to 1990 offers up a studied and comprehensive analysis that should be part of that bipartisan discourse going forward. Ryhaan Shah, Novelist, Social Activist. A few piecemeal academic articles analyzing Guyana's economic evolution over the period 1977 to 1990 were written but they are scattered and lost away in various journals. What was missing is a comprehensive and rigorous exploration of the era of Cooperative Socialism. Dr Ramesh Gampat's book fills this gap. It is a superb synthesis of historical, theoretical and econometric exploration of the Great Downswing. The book not only provides estimates of important macroeconomic concepts such as Guyana's total factor productivity and long term growth but also produces the useful statistics and reviews of poverty, inequality, life expectancy, education outcomes as well as a detailed analysis of the rice sector. As if these are not enough, Gampat sets the tone by situating the exploration in the country's long standing and debilitating ethno-political dynamics. This self-contained book will be of tremendous use to policy makers, journalists and students interested in the historical context of present day outcomes. I highly recommend this book to public libraries and home reference libraries. Tarron Khemraj, William and Marie Selby Professor of Economics and International Studies, New College of Florida Making a Difference Smaro Kamboureli, 1996 This first comprehensive anthology of ethnic and aboriginal writing in Canada offers a wide range of writing styles in fiction and poetry with a focus on Native and immigrant experiences, ethnic ancestry and the complex spectrum of cultural differences. It begins with the first ethnic authors who wrote ethnic literature in English and includes established and new voices that have made a difference to our understanding of Canadian identity The Americas Kimberly J.
