Rival Power Dimitar Bechev,2017-08-22 A nuanced and comprehensive study of the political dynamics between Russia and key countries in Southeast Europe Is Russia threatening to disrupt more than two decades of E U and U S efforts to promote stability in post communist Southeast Europe Politicians and commentators in the West say yes With rising global anxiety over Russia s political policies and objectives Dimitar Bechev provides the only in depth look at this volatile region Deftly unpacking the nature and extent of Russian influence in the Balkans Greece and Turkey Bechev argues that both sides are driven by pragmatism and opportunism rather than historical loyalties Russia is seeking to assert its role in Europe's security architecture establish alternative routes for its gas exports including the contested Southern Gas Corridor and score points against the West Yet leaders in these areas are allowing Russia to reinsert itself to serve their own goals This urgently needed guide analyzes the responses of regional NATO members particularly regarding the annexation of Crimea and the Putin Erdogan rift over Syria

Making Russia and Turkey Great Again? Norman A. Graham, Folke Lindahl, Timur Kocaoglu, 2021-03-19 This study analyzes theoretically and empirically the background of the rise to power of Vladimir Putin in Russia and Recep Tayyip Erdogan in Turkey It situates this analysis in the contexts of the historical assessment of the fragility of liberal democracy and the persistence and growth of authoritarianism populism and dictatorship in many parts of the world The authors argue that the question whether Putin and Erdogan can make Russia and Turkey great again is hard to confirm personal ambition for power and wealth is certainly key to an understanding of both rulers They each squandered opportunities to build from free and fair democratic electoral legitimacy and economic progress The prospect for restored national greatness depends on how they can handle the economic and political challenges they now face and will continue to face in the near future in a climate of global pandemic and economic recession Both rulers so far have succeeded in maintaining and increasing their powers and influence in their respective regions but neither has made real contributions to regional stability and order Chaos seems to be growing and the EU and the U S thus far seem unable to provide coherent responses to mitigate the impact of their adventurism and disruption
