Making a Difference Dorothy Jo Watson,1996 Dorothy Watson s writing collected in this anthology is in some ways a history of the concerns and interests as well as the excitement of the whole language movement over the last few decades

Building Classroom Reading Communities Rita A. Moore,Victoria N. Seeger,2010 This title presents a successful approach for motivating students as individual readers while encouraging peer to peer learning By showing how to use retrospective miscue analysis RMA and socratic circles together the authors help teachers create a sense of community in the classroom and promote achievement for every student Resources in Education ,1998

Promoting a Global Community Through Multicultural Children's Literature Stan Steiner,2001-03-15 You will find this book invaluable for teaching students the beauties of diversity and for building understanding of cultures from around the world This book features more than 800 titles both single volume and series selected for their multicultural content and compelling reflections of the social issues of diverse cultures The more than 100 interdisciplinary application strategies for titles range from reading aloud with follow up discussions to social activism Fully indexed by author and title this guide includes Web sites for literature integration contact information a discussion of the benefits of multicultural literature and suggestions for further reading The perfect guide for introducing students to other cultures and customs Reading Conversations Rita A. Moore,Carol Gilles,2005 Grades 4 12 Foreword by Dorothy Watson Miscue analysis may be the single best tool for assessing readers difficulties With Reading Conversations you can take this tool to a new level moving beyond diagnosis and into developmental strategies that involve not only teacher student explorations of how students make meaning with texts but also peer led discussions In retrospective miscue analysis RMA you work directly with students engaging them in conversations about their reading miscues RMA sessions achieve three important goals helping you understand what readers are thinking as they read making readers more aware of their actions and thoughts during reading investing your students in the process of improving their own reading by building on their strengths Then as your readers better understand their own strengths and weaknesses they can take on increasing responsibility by discussing their processes with peers through collaborative retrospective miscue analysis CRMA Grounded in scientific research Reading Conversations includes chapters on using RMA and CRMA at the elementary middle and high school levels reproducible self and teacher assessment forms and testimonials and vignettes from teachers who have successfully adopted RMA and CRMA in their classrooms Put the strategies in Reading Conversations into practice implement RMA in your reading instruction and get to know students abilities better than ever before Then use CRMA to further invest students in their learning and watch as your struggling readers develop the skills and confidence they need to enjoy a lifetime of reading Reconsidering a Balanced Approach to Reading Constance Weaver,1998 This collection reflects the stance that a truly balanced approach to reading instruction will focus not only on reading but on literacy integrate language and literacy across disciplines attend to reading writing and
