Making Of Eastern Europe:

The Making of Eastern Europe Philip Longworth, 1992-08-18 Why has the collapse of Communism resulted in so much disappointment for the hopeful millions of Eastern Europe In this original and provocative book Philip Longworth argues that their predicament is only partly due to the imposition of the Soviet system but rather they are the heirs of misfortune which dates back centuries In exploring the origins of current problems this sweeping history ranges from the present day to the time of Constantine the Great from the Urals to the Mediterranean and the Baltic and emphasises culture and society as well as politics and economics The resulting analysis provides the crucial and until now much needed long term background to the difficulties now facing Eastern Europe This new perspective and the insight it brings will improve our understanding of this complex region and be of immense value to all who want to understand Eastern Europe s past and present

The Making of Eastern Europe Philip Longworth, 1997-05-14 Why has the collapse of Communism resulted in so much disappointment for the hopeful millions of Eastern Europe In the revised edition of this thoughtful and provocative book Philip Longworth argues that their predicament is only partly due to the imposition of the Soviet system but rather that they are the heirs of misfortune which dates back centuries In exploring the origins of current problems this sweeping history ranges from the present day to the time of Constantine the Great the Urals to the Mediterranean and the Baltic and emphasises culture and society as well as politics and economics In an additional new chapter Philip Longworth analyses the collapse of Communism and the advent of post communism This book will be of immense value to all who want to understand Eastern Europe s past and present

The Making of Détente Wilfried Loth, George Soutou, 2010-04-05 Containing essays by leading Cold War scholars such as Wilfried Loth Geir Lundestad and Seppo Hentil this volume offers a broad ranging examination of the history of détente in the Cold War The ten years from 1965 to 1975 marked a deep transformation of the bipolar international system of the Cold War The Vietnam War and the Prague Spring showed the limits of the two superpowers who were constrained to embark on a wide ranging détente policy which culminated with the SALT agreements of 1972 At the same time this very détente opened new venues for the European countries French policy towards the USSR and the German Ostpolitik being the most evident cases in point For the first time since the 1950s Western Europe began to participate in the shaping of the Cold War The same could not be said of Eastern Europe but ferments began to establish themselves there which would ultimately lead to the astounding changes of 1989 90 the Prague Spring the uprisings in Gdansk in 1970 and generally the rise of the dissident movement That last process being directly linked to the far reaching event which marked the end of that momentous decade the Helsinki conference The Making of Détente will appeal to students of the Cold War international history and European contemporary history

Pilgrimage, Politics and Place-Making in Eastern Europe

Professor John Eade, Mr Mario Katić, 2014-06-28 Since the beginning of the anthropology of pilgrimage scant attention has been paid to pilgrimage and pilgrim places in eastern and south eastern Europe Seeking to address such a deficit this book brings together scholars from eastern and south eastern Europe to explore the crossing of borders in terms of the relationship between pilgrimage and politics and the role which this plays in the process of both sacred and secular place making

Cabinets in Eastern Europe J. Blondel, F. Müller-Rommel, 2016-01-03 Cabinets in Eastern Europe is a comprehensive study which enables the reader to compare the origins structure composition and activities of these cabinets and to draw lessons from this comparison Each chapter begins with a survey of the evolution of cabinets since the fall of communism at the beginning of the 1990s The emphasis is then laid on the place of the cabinet in the constitution and on the role of presidents and prime ministers in the formation of the life of each cabinet At a time when most Eastern European countries are candidates for membership in the European Union this volume provides a unique comparative presentation of the way in which cabinets have been evolving in Eastern Europe since the end of communism
