Mozambican Woman In The Revolution:

The Mozambican Woman in the Revolution, 1977 Women and Revolution in Africa, Asia, and the New World Mary Ann Tétreault, 1994 The contributors use a variety of theoretical approaches to analyze how women as a class have experienced specific twentieth century revolutions They identify the issues that prompted women to participate in the struggles the roles they played the contributions they made and their hopes for better lives for themselves as women in the post revolutionary society Women's Lived Landscapes of War and Liberation in Mozambique Jonna Katto, 2019-11-11 This book tells the history of the changing gendered landscapes of northern Mozambique from the perspective of women who fought in the armed struggle for national independence diverting from the often told narrative of women in nationalist wars that emphasizes a linear plot of liberation Taking a novel approach in focusing on the body senses and landscape Jonna Katto through a study of the women ex combatants lived landscapes shows how their life trajectories unfold as nonlinear spatial histories This brings into focus the women s shifting and multilayered negotiations for personal space and belonging This book explores the life memories of the now aging female ex combatants in the province of Niassa in northern Mozambique looking at how the female ex combatants experiences of living in these northern landscapes have shaped their sense of socio spatial belonging and attachment It builds on the premise that individual embodied memory cannot be separated from social memory personal lives are culturally shaped Thus the book does not only tell the history of a small and rather unique group of women but also speaks about wider cultural histories of body landscape relations in northern Mozambique and especially changes in those relations Enriching our understanding of the gendered history of the liberation struggle in Mozambique and informing broader discussions on gender and nationalism this book will be of interest to students and scholars of African history especially the colonial and postcolonial history of Lusophone Africa as well as gender women s history and peace and conflict studies The Mozambican Woman in the Revolution Central Committee, 1972 Cinemas of the Mozambican Revolution Ros Gray, 2020 As one of the first cultural acts after independence in 1975 Frelimo s new socialist government of Mozambique set up a National Institute of Cinema the INC In a country with little experience of cinema the INC was tasked to deliver to the people an image of the people A unique culture of revolutionary cinema emerged building on films made during the armed struggle The Mozambican Women in the Revolution LSM (Liberation Support Movement) Information Center, 1974 Women's Activism and Feminist Agency in Mozambique and Nicaragua Jennifer Leigh Disney, 2008 In Women s Activism and Feminist Agency in Mozambique and Nicaragua Jennifer Leigh Disney investigates the contours of women s emancipation outside the framework of liberal democracy and a market economy She interviews 146 women and men in the two countries to explore the comparative contribution of women s participation in subsistence and informal economies political parties and civil society organizations She also discusses military struggles against colonialism and imperialism in fostering feminist agency to provide a fascinating look at how each movement evolved and how it changed in a post revolutionary climate Third World, Second Sex (Volume 1) Miranda Davies,1983 Third World Second Sex brings together women s organizations from over 20 Third World countries giving voice to their own experiences and perspectives This important book reflects as a result the accelerating pace of women s struggles in countries as diverse as India and El Salvador Oman and Mauritius Chile and Zimbabwe The issues these women face include their role in national liberation movements and armed struggles the need or otherwise for an autonomous women s movement in Third World Countries and the changing position of women after a revolutionary transition They also give accounts of specific feminist campaigns against malviolence against company exploitation and in the area of women and health This book reveals how Third World women are confronting traditional male dominated structures with courage and initiative The experiences of this new generation of women s movements can contribute to an understanding among other Third World women of their problems and how to analyse and solve them It also adds a rich new dimension to women s perspectives elsewhere in the world A useful listing of women s organizations worldwide is also included Nationalism and Territoriality in Barue and Mozambique André Van Dokkum,2020-05-06 Nationalism as an ideology coupling self conscious peoples to fixed territories is often seen as emerging from European historical developments also in postcolonial countries outside Europe Andr van Dokkum s Nationalism and Territoriality in Barue and Mozambique shows that this view is not universally true The precolonial Kingdom of Barue in what is now Mozambique showed characteristics generally associated with nationalism giving the country great resilience against colonial encroachment Postcolonial Mozambique on the other hand has so far not succeeded in creating national coherence The former anti colonial organization and now party in power Frelimo has always stressed national unity but only under its own guidance paradoxically producing disunity Gender and Social Movements Bahati M. Kuumba,2001-09-05 Do men and women experience participation in social movements differently Are gender roles reproduced or undermined during a struggle for liberation In this brief text examining gender roles in social movements M Bahati Kuumba shows how liberation struggles are viewed through women s eyes and how gender affects women s mobilization strategies and outcomes in social movement organizations Using two well known examples the American civil rights movement and the South African national liberation movement Kuumba documents the circumscribed roles of women the unheralded role of movement leaders such as Ella Baker and Frances Baard and how gender affected movement activities and results Gender and Social Movements is the ideal text to introduce a sophisticated view of race and gender into social movement courses
