The Prose of the World Sara Danus,2006 Joseph Conrad Norman Sherry,1976-06-01 The Collected Critical Heritage II comprises 40 volumes covering 19th and 20th century European and American authors These volumes will be available as a complete set mini boxes sets by theme or as individual volumes This second set compliments the first 68 volume set of Critical Heritage published by Routledge in October 1995 The Critical Heritage series gathers together a large body of critical figures in literature These selected sources include contemporary reviews from both popular and literary media

Literature, Ethics, and Decolonization in Postwar France Daniel Just,2015-02-09 Against the background of intellectual and political debates in France during the 1950s and 1960s Daniel Just examines literary narratives and works of literary criticism arguing that these texts are more politically engaged than they may initially appear As writings by Roland Barthes Maurice Blanchot Albert Camus and Marguerite Duras show seemingly disengaged literary principles such as blankness minimalism silence and indeterminateness can be deployed to a number of potent political and ethical ends At the time the main focus of this activism was the escalation of violence in colonial Algeria The poetics formulated by these writers suggests that blankness weakness and withdrawal from action are not symptoms of impotence and political escapism in the face of historical events but deliberate literary strategies aimed to neutralize the drive to dominate others that characterized the colonial project

Nineteenth Century Literature Criticism Russel Whitaker,2005-05 Presents literary criticism on the works of nineteenth century writers of all genres nations and cultures Critical essays are selected from leading sources including published journals magazines books reviews diaries broadsheets pamphlets and scholarly papers Criticism includes early views from the author s lifetime as well as later views including extensive collections of contemporary analysis New Approaches in Flaubert Studies Tony Williams,Mary Orr,1999 A collection of critical essays on the work of Flaubert

Psychosomatic Disorders in Seventeenth-Century French Literature Bernadette Höfer,2016-04-15 Bernadette H fer s innovative and ambitious monograph argues that the epistemology of the Cartesian mind body dualism and its insistence on the primacy of analytic thought over bodily function has surprisingly little purchase in texts by prominent classical writers In this study H fer explores how Surin Moli re Lafayette and Racine represent interconnections of body and mind that influence behaviour both voluntary and involuntary and that thus disprove the classical notion of the mind as distinct from and superior to the body The author s interdisciplinary perspective utilizes early modern medical and philosophical treatises as well as contemporary medical compilations in the disciplines of psychosomatic medicine neurobiology and psychoanalysis to demonstrate that these seventeenth century French writers established a view of human existence that fully anticipates current thought regarding psychosomatic illness Courbet's Landscapes Paul Galvez,2022-01-01 A groundbreaking insight into Gustave Courbet and his bold experiments in landscape painting Between 1862 and 1866 Gustave Courbet embarked on a series of sensuous landscape paintings that would later inspire the likes of Monet Pissarro and C zanne This series has long been neglected in favor of Courbet's paintings of rural French life Courbet's Landscapes The Origins of Modern Painting explores these astonishing paintings staking a claim for their importance to Courbet's work and later developments in French modernism Ranging from the grottoes of Courbet's native Franche Comte to the beaches of Normandy Paul Galvez follows the artist on his travels as he uses a palette knife to transform the Romantic landscape of voyage into a direct visceral confrontation with the material world The Courbet he discovers is not the celebrated history painter of provincial life but a committed landscapist whose view of nature aligns him with contemporary developments in geology history linguistics and literature Genesis, 2000 Taking Stock - Twenty-Five Years of Comparative Literary Research, 2019-10-29 Read an interview with Norbert Bachleitner In this 200th volume of Internationale Forschungen zur Allgemeinen und Vergleichenden Literaturwissenschaft the editors Norbert Bachleitner Achim H H Iter and John A McCarthy take stock of the discipline It focuses on recurrent questions in the field of Comparative Literature What is literature What is meant by comparative Or by world What constitute transgressions or refractions What ultimately does being at home in the world imply When we combine the answers to these individual questions we might ultimately reach an intriguing proposition Comparative Literature contributes to a sense of being at home in a world that is heterogeneous and fractured rather than affirming a monolithic canon marked by territory and homogeneity The volume unites essays on world literature literature in the context of the history of ideas comparative women and gender studies aesthetics and textual analysis and literary translation and tradition Jean Giono's Hidden Reality Edward Bruce Ford, 2004 This volume demonstrates that throughout his career Jean Giono believed that true reality was hidden behind appearances Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003 Katherine Mansfield and Literary Impressionism Julia van Gunsteren, 2024-08-26 American Book Publishing Record R.R. Bowker Company, 1978 The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries The Hidden Reader Victor Brombert, 1988 Victor Brombert is an unrivaled interpreter of French literature and the writers he considers in this latest book are ones with whom he has a long acquaintance These essays eleven of them appearing in English for the first time and some totally new give us an acute analysis of the major figures of the nineteenth century and a splendid lesson in criticism Brombert shows how a text works its structure and narrative devices and the symbolic function of characters episodes words and he highlights the distinctive postures and styles of each writer He gives us a sense of the hidden inner text as well as the techniques writers have devised to lead their readers to the discovery of what is hidden With wonderful subtlety he unravels the reader's participatory response whether it be Hugo reading Shakespeare Sartre reading Hugo Stendhal reading Rousseau T S Eliot misreading Baudelaire or Baudelaire Balzac and Flaubert reading their own sensibilities This book is a sterling example of the finest kind of literary criticism wise intelligent responsive sympathetic that reveals central aspects of the creative process and returns the reader joyfully to the texts themselves

Exotic Subversions in Nineteenth-century French Fiction Jennifer Yee, 2017-07-05 In the course of the nineteenth century France built up a colonial empire second only to Britain's The literary tradition in which it dealt with its colonial Other is frequently understood in terms of Edward Said's description of Orientalism as both a Western projection and a will to govern over the Orient There is however a body of works that eludes such a simple categorisation offering glimpses of colonial resistance of a critique of imperialist hegemony or of a blurring of the boundaries between the Self and the Other Some of the ways in which the imperialist enterprise is subverted in the metropolitan literature of this period are examined in this volume through detailed case studies of key works by Chateaubriand Hugo Flaubert and Segalen

The Turn of the Mind Adré Marshall, 1998 James's narrative strategies are discussed in the context of the techniques employed by his literary predecessors Illuminating comparisons are made with novelists such as Jane Austen and George Eliot and particular attention is paid to the French novelist Flaubert who was probably the most significant influence on James The author examines James's stylistic devices in a selection of representative works from his early middle and late periods Roderick Hudson The Portrait of a Lady and The Golden Bowl

The School of Montaigne in Early Modern Europe Warren Boutcher, 2017-03-09 This major two volume study offers an interdisciplinary analysis of Montaigne's Essais and their fortunes in early modern Europe and the modern western university Volume one focuses on contexts from within Montaigne's own milieu and on the ways in which his book made him a patron author or instant classic in the eyes of his editor Marie de Gournay and his promoter Justus Lipsius Volume two focuses on the reader writers across Europe who used the Essais to make their own works from corrected editions and translations in print to life writing and personal records in manuscript The two volumes work together to offer a new picture of the book's significance in literary and intellectual history Montaigne's is now usually understood to be the school of late humanism or of Pyrrhonian scepticism This study argues that the school of Montaigne potentially included everyone in early modern Europe with occasion and means to read and write for themselves and for their friends and family unconstrained by an official function or scholastic institution For the Essais were shaped by a battle that had intensified since the Reformation and that would continue through to the pre Enlightenment period It was a battle to regulate the educated individual's judgement in reading and acting upon the two books bequeathed by God to man The book of scriptures and the book of nature were becoming more accessible through print and manuscript cultures But at the same time that access was being mediated more intensively by teachers such as clerics and humanists by censors and institutions by learned authors of past and present and by commentaries and glosses upon those authors Montaigne enfranchised the unofficial reader writer with liberties of judgement offered and taken in the specific historical conditions of his era The study draws on new ways of approaching literary history through the history of the book and of reading The Essais are treated as a mobile transnational work that travelled from Bordeaux to Paris and beyond to markets in other countries from England and Switzerland to Italy and the Low Countries Close analysis of editions paratexts translations and annotated copies is informed by a distinct concept of the social context of a text The concept is derived from anthropologist Alfred Gell's notion of the art nexus the specific types of actions and agency relations mediated by works of art understood as indexes that give rise to inferences of particular kinds Throughout the two volumes the focus is on the particular nexus in which a copy an edition an extract is embedded and on the way that nexus might be described by early modern people
