Bacon, 2016-02-11 The doctrine of the Trinity poses a series of problems for feminist theology At a basic level the androcentric nature of trinitarian language serves to promote the male as more fully in the image of God and as the archetype of humanity pushing women to the margins of personhood It is no surprise then that feminist scholarship on this doctrine has often focused on what s wrong with the Trinity setting out the problems raised by the use of traditional androcentric trinitarian language This book brings together a discussion of feminist theological methodology with a critical exploration of the doctrine of the Trinity Focussing on what s right with the Trinity as opposed to what s wrong with the Trinity it considers the usefulness of this doctrine for feminist theology today It replaces a stress on trinitarian language with an emphasis on trinitarian thought exploring how we might effectively think rather than speak God in light of feminist concerns In particular it asks how a trinitarian understanding of God might support and be supported by key values which underpin a feminist way of doing theology specifically values which underpin the methodological use of women s experience in feminist theology The central argument is that thinking God as Trinity need not serve to reinforce patriarchal values and ideals but may in fact promote the subjectivity and personhood of women The Dramatizing of Theology Matthew S.

Farlow, 2017-07-14 Matthew Farlow traces the thoughts of Balthasar and Barth so as to enter into theological truth of God s Being in Act This exploration embarks on a journey into the reality of our Triune God who has engaged his creation so as to elicit fellow actors God seeking out humanity is God with us a truth that not only informs our theological endeavors but invites us into the dramatic performance of reconciliation As Farlow illumines God is an acting God who seeks fellow participants in his ongoing drama of salvation Through the dramatizing of theology the church and her theologians come to realize God's threefold movement revelation invitation and reconciliation It is a unified act that startles humanity and thus theology out of its spectator's seat so as to drag it onto the world's stage As Farlow discusses it is through the dramatizing of theology that we find ourselves best equipped to participate faithfully in the role of a lifetime

Gender and the Nicene Creed Elizabeth Geitz, 2004-03 A cogent and persuasive plea for a return to the full catholic tradition which would make a critical contribution to the debate about gender in matters of faith The Most Rev Desmond M Tutu Writers of scripture and theologians have used scores of images to describe God Jesus and the Holy Spirit Yet only the patriarchal perspective seemed to survive and be taught In this comprehensive reflection on the Nicene Creed Geitz looks to the writings of theologians mystics and scholars throughout the centuries for a balanced and scholarly approach to an often divisive issue of Christians Elizabeth Geitz writes My desire is to help us move from an initial emotional response to feminine tradition of the church to one that is based on sound biblical historical and theological principles

Theological Models of the Doctrine of the Trinity James Henry Owino Kombo, 2016-08-30 The doctrine of the Trinity is the foundational doctrine for all Christian theology doxology and practice In this publication James Kombo brings a unique and valuable contribution to understanding the Trinity and how God can be understood within the context of any culture and language Kombo first recognizes and brings into focus God's self presentation in Scripture as the triune God Moving from the early church through various church traditions over the centuries he interacts with how each tradition viewed God and their interpretation of the Trinity Closing with a distinctly African view of God from the Luo language tradition used mostly in Kenya and Tanzania Kombo emphasises the benefits of considering alternative models of interpretation from various regions of the world Kombo's work applying his research across cultures makes this an excellent resource in any context of ministry and the academy

Deep Memory, Exuberant Hope Walter Brueggemann, The leading Old Testament theologian reflects on the meaning of the gospel in today's world. These studies on a variety of biblical texts focus deftly on reading, listening to, and proclaiming the gospel in a broken, fragmented, and post-Christendom world. Brueggemann explores how these traditions have the potential to continually resonate in our contemporary communities and individual lives. Our Hearts Wait Walter

Brueggemann, 2022-11-01. The Walter Brueggemann Library brings together the wide-ranging and enlivening thought of popular biblical scholar Walter Brueggemann over his storied career. Each volume collects previously published work on a biblical theme that has deeply informed Brueggemann's scholarship in an accessible digest for readers who want to freshly engage his prophetically minded but approachable writing on the topic. In Our Hearts Wait, Brueggemann meditates on the emotional range of our longings and gratitudes in the psalms, revealing how this bold outpouring of our full selves to the divine has effects far beyond introspection. He traces how the language of the psalms offers a template for liturgies that shape not only our collective worship and communities but the worlds they create and sustain. Words of worship do not fall vacant and inactive; they help bring into being realities both sacred and sociopolitical. Throughout this exploration of the psalms, Brueggemann shows readers how the language we use in worship performs what it proclaims. It nurtures and challenges us in seasons of orientation and praise, disorientation and grief, reorientation and thanksgiving, bringing our full attention to each experience in its turn. But in doing so, the words and deeds of worship can also sharpen our awareness of social constructions and relationships that undergird our common life. They reveal power imbalances and uneven distributions of resources and, if we let them, urge us forward in our efforts toward justice. Thus, psalms of praise express trust in and abandonment to God and also pose sharp critiques of unjust public policies that abandon those who are socially invisible. The psalms of grief and lament accompany communities through real experiences of loss and suffering but also make room for the sufferers to be heard and to challenge the status quo. The language of worship, when used intentionally and with care, helps to create a reality marked by fidelity, abundance, truth, hope, and dependence on God. With Brueggemann as guide, readers can apprehend the potency of the psalms' bold petition and dialogue with God, giving voice to the distressed and anticipating the transformation of our lives together and as a society. Questions for reflection are included at the end of each chapter, making this book ideal for individual or group study. Paragon of Excellence Dennis Ngien, 2023. Ngien demonstrates that for Martin Luther, the apostle Peter stood alongside John and Paul as a preacher of the genuine and pure gospel. Luther's sermons on 1 Peter illustrate the range and depth of the reformer's mature theological thought. Peter's epistle stands as what Luther considered one of the foremost books of the New Testament. Because of Christ Carl E. Braaten, 2018-10-11. Carl Braaten's memoirs tell the story of his life as a theologian, from his early years as a missionary kid in Madagascar to his years of study at the universities of Paris, Harvard, Heidelberg, and Oxford, to his decades of teaching. Throughout the book, he delves into the many theological movements, controversies, and personalities that shaped his thinking and writing. Braaten's fight for the faith is reflected in his theological work, spoken and written, that tangles with the isms of the surrounding culture of American religion Because of Christ is more than simply a biography it is a chronicle of the chief theological conflicts of the twentieth century that put the integrity of the gospel to the test What Kind of God? Terence E. Fretheim,2015-04-10 Terence E Fretheim has long been a leading voice in Old Testament theology In this volume thirty of his classic studies have been gathered together for the first time under the rubrics God and the World God and Suffering God Wrath and Divine Violence God and the Pentateuch God and the Prophets and God and the Church s Book Here readers can find a compelling answer to the question that has motivated Fretheim s work for more than forty years namely what kind of God is the God of Scripture The studies are introduced by a critical overview of Fretheim s career and theology by the editors and a retrospective by Fretheim himself Gift and Promise Ed Schroeder,2016-08-01 Gift and Promise shows that the theology of the Augsburg Confession is as much a gift to the world today as it was when first presented in 1530 Building on a book started by Ed Schroeder three chapters are presented in the first part nine of his students present the theology of the Augsburg Confession in language that makes it accessible to those without a scholarly background including pastors students and lay people interested in Lutheran history and theology Gift and Promise establishes the theological hub of the Augsburg Confession what the Confession itself calls the central teaching of the Christian faith in the doctrine of justification by faith alone That hub is traced to its source in Luther s theology of the cross Each chapter presents how that central hub is articulated in the articles of faith that comprise the Augsburg Confession Lucid powerful and insightful the expositions in this volume are written by expert theologians historians and scholars who aim to present the crucial and practical message of the Christian life in the Augsburg Confession for all Luther's Theology of the Cross Dennis Ngien,2018-06-11 Luther was fundamentally a preacher pastor a care taker of souls whose ingenuity lies in his usage of the biblical message as a source of pastoral encouragement This book seeks to capture the often overlooked pastoral side of the Reformer through an examination of his sermons on John s gospel The sermons on John show the intrinsic close and causal link between doctrine and consolation They are an exercise of his vocation as a pastor or more precisely as a theologian of the cross who seeks to inculcate the good news of justification by faith in his people leading them to experience it within the dialectic of law and gospel St John said Luther is the master in the article of justification Luther s theological method namely his theology of the cross permeates and governs the exposition of the text and all major themes of his theology Christology Trinity and soteriology appear in his exegesis of John Restoration Through Redemption:John Calvin Revisited H. van den Belt,2013-01-09 The restoration of creation offers the perspective through which Calvin s heritage is analyzed and made fruitful for contemporary Reformed theology Restoration through Redemption shows that Calvin s theology hinges on Christology but extends to the whole creation Luther as a Spiritual Adviser Dennis Ngien,2007-06-01 Most Luther scholars have focused largely on the polemical side of the Reformer with occasional allusion to his Devotional Writings in volumes 42 and 43 of the American editions The aim of this book is to unfold the pastoral not the polemical side of the reformer drawing on the spiritual insights he offers to people of high and low estate These writings are devotional and catechetical in shape and intent yet not devoid of rich theological substance the fruit of his rigorous reflections They are the exercises of Luther's basic calling as a theologian pastor and are the concrete illustrations of the interface of theology and piety the former being the abiding presupposition and logical cause of the latter Through them readers are informed not only of the Reformation theology of justification but also introduced to a distinct expression of the Christian faith in which Christ and his cross occupy the centre stage What is noticeable is the one single overarching theme God's ways with people that the Reformer as a spiritual adviser sought to relate to the events of his days such as evils severe afflictions the prevalent lay abuse of the Eucharist He counseled how to meditate aright on Christ's passion prepare to face the terror of death advise the sick rightly approach the sacrament of the altar why and how to pray aright what benefits could be gained from the Lord's Prayer and how to live out a life of discipleship under the cross Ngien's work reveals Luther as a true theologian i e theologian of the cross at work in the pastoral context

The Doctrine of God in African Christian Thought James Henry Owino Kombo, 2007-05-30 The Christian faith knows and worships one God who is revealed in the Son and in the Holy Spirit This is the meaning of the doctrine of the Trinity in Christian thought Although Christian orthodoxy defines the doctrine of the Trinity the intellectual tools used to capture it significantly vary At different times and in different places Western Christianity has for instance used neo Platonism German Idealism and the conceptual tools of the second century Greeks Taking elements from the known African intellectual framework this book argues that for African Christians the respective pre Christian African understanding of God and the Ntu metaphysics in particular function as conceptual gates for an attempt towards articulating the Trinity for African Christian audiences

Religion, Feminism, and Idoloclasm Melissa Raphael, 2019-01-22 Religion Feminism and Idoloclasm identifies religious and secular feminism's common critical moment as that of idol breaking It reads the women's liberation movement as founded upon a philosophically and emotionally risky attempt to liberate women's consciousness from a three fold cognitive captivity to the self idolizing god called Man the God who is a projection of his power and the idol of the feminine called Woman that the god called God created for Man Examining a period of feminist theory theology and culture from about 1965 to 2010 this book shows that secular as well as Christian Jewish and post Christian feminists drew on ancient and modern tropes of redemption from slavery to idols or false ideas as a means of overcoming the alienation of women's being from their own becoming With an understanding of feminist theology as a pivotal contribution to the feminist criticism of culture this original book also examines idoloclasm in feminist visual art literature direct action and theory not least that of the sexual politics of romantic love the diet and beauty industry sex robots and other phenomena whose idolization of women reduces them to figures of the feminine same experienced as a de realization or death of the self This book demonstrates that secular and religious feminist critical engagements with the modern trauma of dehumanization were far more closely related than is often supposed As such it will be vital reading for scholars in theology religious studies gender studies visual studies and philosophy Text, Theology, and Trowel Lidia D. Matassa, Jason M.
