Poetry, Politics and Promises of Empire Christof Ginzel,2009-04-29 This interdisciplinary study examines the poetic and political representation of the Palatine Marriage in London in 1613 by analysing the vast number of English and Neo Latin festive nuptial poetry and prose written on the occasion of the marriage of Count Palatine Frederick V 1596 1632 and Princess Elizabeth Stuart 1596 1662 stylised and represented as heroes and paragon figures of Protestant Europe Taking a literary and cultural studies approach the study explores courtly representational modes used to convey the propagandist and prophetic messages of the marriage suggesting that the nuptial union follows a heavenly plan and fulfils the hopes of the formation of a pan Protestant empire and a future bulwark against the imminent threats of Catholic Habsburg In this respect the study aims to provide an alternative perspective on Britain Europe and militant pan Protestantism Situating Poetry Joshua Logan Wall,2022-10-11 Focusing on five poets of the New York literary scene in the period between 1910 and 1940 the author shows that fractioned ethnic and immigrant groups could locate democratic communities through innovative poetic forms in which belonging was produced not by identity narratives but through attention directed to particular genres

Works Ralph Erskine,1795 Toward a Homiletical Theology of Promise David Schnasa Jacobsen,2018-04-17 Promise has a long pedigree in the history of Christian understandings of the gospel This volume gathers together leading homileticians to consider the breadth of its understanding today in light of the struggle to reconcile God's grace with God's justice Assuming that promise is a core sense of the gospel how does this relate to the variety of contexts in which homiletical theology is done In this final volume in the series six homileticians from a variety of contexts and perspectives try to move specifically toward a homiletical theology of promise as a way to articulate the central theological gift and task that is preaching the gospel today The English Poems of George Herbert George Herbert,2007-10-04 The definitive scholarly edition of Herbert's complete English poems accompanied by extensive explanatory and textual apparatus a glossary of key words and an index of biblical quotations The text is meticulously annotated with historical literary and biblical information as well as modern critical contexts Paradise lost: a poem, in twelve books ... Benedict Green,2001-03-01 Green argues that the Beatitudes in Matthew's version are a carefully constructed poem exhibiting a number of the characteristics of Hebrew poetry as we know it from the Old Testament but as certain of these such as rhyme and alliteration cannot survive translation what we have here is an original composition in Greek This is shown to be no isolated phenomenon in the gospel a series of texts found at specially significant points in it disclose similar characteristics The findings cut across conventional source attributions and reveal the creative hand of the evangelist By studying the individual beatitudes in their relation to each other as revealed by the formal structure fresh light is thrown upon their meaning and their background in the scriptures of the Old Testament Poetry and Belief in the Work of T. S. Eliot Kristian Smidt,2015-12-22 This title first published in 1961 explores the general background of attitudes beliefs and ideas from which Eliot's works have originated This study examines the influences of Eliot's work and includes Eliot's personal views as told to the author The book also looks at technique structure and imagery of his poetry This title will be of interest to students of literature The Collected Sermons of Walter Brueggemann - Three-Volume Set Walter Brueggemann,2020-01-28 These sermons are themselves versions of that dangerous but longed for doxology and they move from ruthlessly honest cultural analysis to confident praise with such linguistic power that one can easily overlook the superb detail the impressive craft and the fine tooling employed by Brueggemann the master preacher The impact of these sermons comes not simply from the finished artwork but also from the artist's technique the preparation of the homiletic canvas the mix of pigment and the brush strokes from the foreword by Thomas G Long Volume One In addition to being one of the world's leading interpreters of the Old Testament Walter Brueggemann is a skilled and beloved preacher This collection of sermons demonstrates Brueggemann's fidelity to biblical texts which come alive with meaning in our contemporary world Throughout Brueggemann also reflects on his preaching Volume One features a biblical index as well as a foreword by Samuel Wells of

Duke University who writes Enjoy this volume from a master exegete a master theologian and a master preacher They really are neat sermons And they re for you Volume Two This collection presents over fifty masterful sermons from one of the most trusted preachers today Walter Brueggemann Brueggemann continues his task of making the biblical text available to the church He sees preaching as a performance of God s good rule that in an act of utterance and receptive listening mediates the truthful joyous reality of that rule The sermons are organized according to the church year starting with sermons for Advent Christmas and Epiphany and followed by sermons for Lent and Easter and then Pentecost and Ordinary Time Sermons for other occasions such as ordinations weddings and graduations are also included along with a Scripture index Whether a pastor or a person in the pew the reader will find inspiration reflection and wisdom in Brueggemann s powerful words Volume Three This collection features sixty sermons by Walter Brueggemann preached mostly in the last five years For his final public appearances he preached at various churches and the Festival of Homiletics including his last address there in 2018 Most of these are based on lectionary texts with numerous sermons on Advent Christmas and Lent Easter texts Preachers will find inspiration in the handful of sermons covering special occasions or themes including confirmation evangelism and funerals Holy-days and holidays, a treasury of historical material, sermons, poetry [&c.] relating to holy days and holidays, compiled by E.M.
