Geoffrey Chaucer

Poetry Visions Of Love And Ideals:

Poetry Fabian, 2006 Poetry Visions of Love and Ideals is a diverse collection of verse interspersed with passion and humor that focuses on love relationships and the personal reflections that weave a compelling story Fabian a seasoned songwriter divides his collection into four chapters Love Carnal Picture It and Ideals With lines such as Truth and love are a marriage of two I never knew the truth until I met you and My exploratory self had been lying on a shelf until you came along and awakened it with your personal touch Fabian explores both genuine and unrequited love with a unique perspective His personal and provocative style is reflected in the poem Caress as he lyrically demonstrates a sensual massage with the tender words Slowly and lovingly I glide my masculine hands over the gyrating pores of your baby soft skin Fabian tackles the question What is fulfillment in his final chapter as he delves into discovering his purpose and spiritual enlightenment In Poetry Visions of Love and Ideals Fabian's introspective words will not only intrigue and awaken your soul but also will encourage you to explore your own ideals relationships and expressions of love Love Visions Geoffrey

Chaucer, 2006-05-25 Spanning Chaucer's working life these four poems build on the medieval convention of love visions poems inspired by dreams woven into rich allegories about the rituals and emotions of courtly love In The Book of the Duchess the most traditional of the four the dreamer meets a widower who has loved and lost the perfect lady and The House of Fame describes a dream journey in which the poet meets with classical divinities Witty lively and playful The Parliament of Birds details an encounter with the birds of the world in the Garden of Nature as they seek to meet their mates while The Legend of Good Women sees Chaucer being censured by the God of Love and seeking to make amends for writing poems that depict unfaithful women Together the four create a marvellously witty lively and humane self portrait of the poet Twilight Litanies, and Other Poems from the Ivory Tower, in Two Books John Daniel Logan, 1920 The Quarrel Between Poetry and Philosophy John Burns, Matthew Flamm, William Gahan, Stephanie Quinn, 2020-09-27 The Quarrel Between Poetry and Philosophy Perspectives Across the Humanities is an interdisciplinary study of the abiding quarrel to which poet philosopher Plato referred centuries ago in the Republic The book presents eight chapters by four humanities scholars that historically contextualize and cross interpret aspects of the quarrel in question The authors share the view that although poets and philosophers continually quarrel a harmonious union between the two groups is achievable in a manner promising application to a variety of contemporary cultural political and aesthetic debates all of which have implications for the current status of the humanities Stag of Love Marcelle Thiébaux, 2015-03-03 A sport and a military exercise hunting involved aggressive action with weapons and dogs and pursuit to the point of combat and killing for the sake of recreation food or conquest The Stag of Love explores the body of erotic metaphor that developed from the hunt together with Ovid's flourishing legacies While representing a range of human experience the metaphor finds its dominant expression in the literature of love As Marcelle Thiébaux demonstrates the hunt's disciplined violence represented sexual desire along with strategies and arts for getting love the joys of love and love's elevating mystique The genre gave rise to a lavish imagery of footprints and tracking arrows nets dogs and leashes wounds dismemberment and blood that persisted to Shakespeare's day Thi baux opens with an account of a medieval chase and its ceremonies She introduces hunt manuals that defined and gentrified the sport in stages from the party's departure to the ferocity of the struggle to the animal's death These stages adapted readily to narrative structures in the love chase showing pursuit confrontation with the beloved and consummation In English literature Thi baux considers Beowulf Aelfric's Life of St Eustace Sir Gawain and the Green Knight and Chaucer She discusses Aucassin and Nicolette Chr tien de Troyes Erec Gottfried von Strassburg's Tristan the Nibelungenlied and Wolfram von Eschenbach's works The study ends with a scrutiny of newly recovered or little known narratives of the thirteenth fourteenth and fifteenth centuries Originally published in 1974 and now issued in paperback for the first time The Stag of Love brings to life a theme of perennial interest to medievalists and to all readers intrigued by the imaginative treatment of love in the Western world

Love's Vision Troy Jollimore,2011-07-05 Love often seems uncontrollable and irrational but we just as frequently appear to have reasons for loving the people we do In Love's Vision Troy Jollimore offers a new way of understanding love that accommodates both of these facts arguing that love is guided by reason even as it resists and sometimes eludes rationality At the same time he reconsiders love's moral status acknowledging its moral dangers while arguing that it is at heart a moral phenomenon an emotion that demands empathy and calls us away from excessive self concern Love is revealed as neither wholly moral nor deeply immoral neither purely rational nor profoundly irrational Rather as Diotima says in Plato's Symposium love is something in between Jollimore makes his case by proposing a vision view of love according to which loving is a way of seeing that involves bestowing charitable attention on a loved one This view recognizes the truth in the cliché love is blind but holds that love's blindness does not undermine the idea that love is guided by reason Reasons play an important role in love even if they rest on facts that are not themselves rationally justifiable Filled with illuminating examples from literature Love's Vision is an original examination of a subject of vital philosophical and human concern

Ideas of Authorship in the English and Scottish Dream Vision Laurie Atkinson,2024 An investigation of English and Scottish dream visions written on the cusp of the Renaissance teasing out distinctive ideas of authorship which informed their design The fifteenth and sixteenth centuries have long been acknowledged as a period of profound change in ideas of authorship in which a transition from a medieval to a modern paradigm took place In England and Scotland changing approaches to Chaucer have rightly been considered as a catalyst for the elevation of English as a literary language and the birth of an English literary history There is a tendency however when moving from Chaucer's self-professed poetic followers of this time to the philological approach associated with William Caxton and the 1532 Works to pass over the literary careers of the English and Scots poets belonging to the intervening half century John Skelton William Dunbar Stephen Hawes and Gavin Douglas This volume redresses that neglect Its close and comparative readings of these poets stimulating but critically neglected dream visions and related first person narratives reveal a spectrum of ideas of authorship four distinct engagements with tradition and opportunity united by their utilisation of a particular form It regards authorship as a topic of invention a discourse for appropriation which is available to but not inevitable in late medieval and early modern writing Overall it facilitates newly focussed study of an often obscured literary historical period one with a heightened interest in the authors of the past Chaucer Lydgate Petrarch Virgil but also an increasingly acute perception of the conditions of authorship in the present Poets & Writers, 2006 The Pilgrims of the Rhine to which is Prefixed The Ideal World Edward Bulwer Lytton Baron Lytton, 1892 Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Nineteenth Century Eric L. Haralson, 2014-01-21 With contributions from over 100 scholars the Encyclopedia of American Poetry The Nineteenth Century provides essays on the careers works and backgrounds of more than 100 nineteenth century poets It also provides entries on specialized categories of twentieth century verse such as hymns folk ballads spirituals Civil War songs and Native American poetry Besides presenting essential factual information each entry amounts to an in depth critical essay and includes a bibliography that directs readers to other works by and about a particular poet The Satisfied Life Jane Ellen McAvoy, 2009-07-01 Christianity centers on the life and death of Jesus as Christ Often Christians focus on the importance of Christ's Sacrifice as the means of human salvation and the faithful are encouraged to imitate this suffering through self sacrifice and self denial More than a few Christians particularly women have found such encouragement to self sacrifice to be a means for continuing oppression men over women colonizers over the colonized the powerful over the powerless In The Satisfied Life Jane McAvoy constructs a feminist theology of atonement or satisfaction for sin that draws on the insights of six medieval women mystics Julian of Norwich Mechthild of Magdeburg Hildegard of Bingen Margery Kempe Hadewijch of Brabant and Catherine of Siena These Christian writers reveal alternatives to a theology of oppression Salvation for them means experiencing the death and resurrection of Christ not as life denying but as a life affirming celebration of God's love for us through the sustaining love of Jesus The Complete Works: Poetry, Plays, Letters, Biographies Robert Browning, 2024-01-06 Robert Browning's The Complete Works Poetry Plays Letters Biographies is an expansive collection that encapsulates the breadth of his literary contribution showcasing his mastery in dramatic monologue and rich character exploration The compilation traverses various themes including love death and morality while employing a variety of styles ranging from the vivid imagistic language found in his famous poem My Last Duchess to the introspective lyricism of his later works It situates Browning within the context of the Victorian literary landscape reflecting both the innovations of the era and the poet's unique voice that often defied conventional poetic forms Born in 1812 in Camberwell London Browning was raised in a culturally rich environment that fostered his early literary ambitions His marriage to fellow poet Elizabeth Barrett Browning and their shared intellectual pursuits profoundly influenced his work Browning s experiences with the complexities of human emotion and relationships as well as his engagement with contemporary philosophical ideas are vividly captured in this comprehensive volume illuminating his profound understanding of the human condition The Complete Works is an essential read for those interested in the evolution of modern poetry and the intricacies of dramatic narrative Browning s eloquence and psychological insight make this anthology a significant addition to any literary collection providing a timeless exploration of human experience that resonates across generations In this enriched edition we have carefully created added value for your reading experience An Introduction draws the threads together discussing why these diverse authors and texts belong in one collection Historical Context explores the cultural and intellectual currents that shaped these works offering insight into the shared or contrasting eras that influenced each writer A combined Synopsis Selection briefly outlines the key plots or arguments of the included pieces helping readers grasp the anthology s overall scope without giving away essential twists A collective Analysis highlights common themes stylistic variations and significant crossovers in tone and technique tying together writers from different backgrounds Reflection questions encourage readers to compare the different voices and perspectives within the collection fostering a richer understanding of the overarching conversation
