The first book of literary criticism to examine this Pulitzer Prize winner s entire body of work As a renowned novelist journalist biographer playwright speaker aspiring politician filmmaker and public intellectual Norman Mailer was one of the most prominent American literary and cultural figures of the second half of the twentieth century Over the course of his expansive sixty year career Mailer published nearly forty original works of fiction and nonfiction served as a counterculture activist and was cofounder of the Village Voice Twice awarded the Pulitzer Prize Mailer also received the National Book Award and the Medal of Distinguished Contribution to Arts and Letters a lifetime achievement award granted by the National Book Foundation Understanding Norman Mailer is the first book of literary criticism to address Mailer s impressive body of work in its entirety from his first publication to his last Situating these volumes in their historical and cultural context Maggie McKinley traces the major themes and philosophies that pervade Mailer s canon analyzing his representations of gender sexuality violence technology politics faith celebrity existentialism and national identity McKinley moves chronologically through Mailer s career illuminating the many genres styles and perspectives with which Mailer experimented over time demonstrating his remarkable artistic reach McKinley also addresses Mailer s reputation as a combative public figure who amid controversy surrounding his personal life and public persona remained committed to lively intellectual debate Through Understanding Norman Mailer an accessible introduction to Mailer s life and work McKinley offers a unique retrospective articulating the development and changes within Mailer s ideas over time while highlighting concerns that remained at the center of his work for decades The Cinema of Norman Mailer Justin Bozung,2017-09-07

The Cinema of Norman Mailer Film is Like Death not only examines the enfant terrible writer s thoughts on cinema but also features interviews with Norman Mailer himself The Cinema of Norman Mailer also explores Mailer s cinema through previously published and newly commissioned essays written by an array of film and literary scholars enthusiasts and those with a personal philosophical connection to Mailer This volume discusses the National Book Award and Pulitzer Prize winning author and filmmaker s six films created during the years of 1947 and 1987 and contends to show how Mailer s films can be best read as cinematic delineations that visually represent many of the writer s metaphysical and ontological concerns and ideas that appear in his texts from the 1950s until his passing in 2007 By re examining Mailer s cinema through these new perspectives one may be awarded not just a deeper understanding of Mailer s desire to make films but also find a new alternative vision of Mailer himself Norman Mailer was not just a writer but more he was one of the most influential

Postmodern artists of the twentieth century with deep roots in the cinema He allowed the cinema to not only influence his aesthetic approach but sanctioned it as his easiest crafted analogy for exploring sociological imagination in his writing Mailer once suggested Film is legitimately more interesting than books and with that in mind readers of Norman Mailer might begin to rethink his oeuvre through the viewfinder of the film medium as he was equally as passionate about working within cinema as he was about literature itself

Stories of Nation Christopher Hebert,Martin Griffin,2024-01-12 Throughout American history there has been an oddly close relationship between the seductive appeals of narrative fiction and those of political rhetoric and advocacy The aim of Stories of Nation Fictions Politics and the American Experience is to explore what political narratives and the cultural poetics behind them reveal about the way our personal and intimate lives are deeply connected with the public arena and the political process The first section of the book The Politics of Fictions contains essays focused on works of fiction consciously dramatizing the political realm The second group of contributions The Fictions of Politics explores structures and motifs from the narrative arts in discourses of American political life and the interactions of public institutions and policy with forms of fictional representation from novels to popular music and TV drama The essays presented here broaden the conversation in American literary studies about what constitutes the political in literature and culture by reintroducing the dimension of institutional or representative politics Likewise Stories of Nation aims to repair the lines of communication between the idea that all fiction is political and the view that political speech is a subgenre of literature all the more in need of examination in a highly polarized society The range of perspectives in Stories of Nation will engage students of literature popular culture and politics alike MARTIN GRIFFIN is an associate professor in the Department of English at the University of Tennessee He is the author of Ashes of the Mind War and Memory in Northern Literature 1865 1900 2009 and co author with Constance DeVereaux of Narrative Identity and the Map of Cultural Policy Once Upon a Time in a Globalized World 2013 CHRISTOPHER HEBERT is an assistant professor in the Department of English at the University of Tennessee and is former senior acquisitions editor at the University of Michigan Press He is the author of the novels Angels of Detroit 2016 and The Boiling Season 2012
