

The background of the book cover is a detailed, light-colored woodcut-style illustration. It depicts a bustling 16th-century town. In the foreground, there's a large, open square or market area with a prominent church building featuring a tall, ornate steeple. To the right, a windmill is visible. The middle ground is filled with numerous smaller buildings, houses, and streets, suggesting a dense urban environment. In the background, rolling hills and more distant structures are visible under a sky with some clouds. The overall style is characteristic of early modern European book illustrations.
