Holder,Dewar MacLeod,1995-04-13 Radical History Review presents innovative scholarship and commentary that looks critically at the past and its history from a non sectarian left perspective RHR scrutinises conventional history and seeks to broaden and advance the discussion of crucial issues such as the role of race class and gender in history Radical History Review: Volume 70 ,1998-06-04 Feature articles in this issue include Women and Guilds in Bologna The Ambiguities of Marginality by Dora Dumont Unpacking the First Person Singular Negotiating Patriarchy in Nineteenth Century Chile by Andy Daitsman Culture Wars Won and Lost Part II Ethnic Museums on the Mall by Fath Davis Ruffins a continuation of an article published in RHR 68 and All the Intensity of My Nature Ida B Wells and African American Women s Anger in History by Patricia A Schechter The Archaeology of Urban Landscapes Alan James Christian Mayne,Alan Mayne,Tim Murray,2001-12-13 This exciting 2001 collection on a movement in urban archaeology investigates the historical archaeology of urban slums The material that is dug up broken dinner plates glass grog bottles and innumerable tonnes of building debris nails and plaster samples will not quickly find its way into museum collections But properly interpreted it yields evidence of lives and communities that have left little in the way of written records Including eleven case studies five on cities in the United States and one each on London and Sheffield and futher chapters on Cape Town Sydney Melbourne and Quebec City it maps out a new field which will attract the attention of a range of students and scholars outside archaeology in particular historical sociologists and historians Éirinn & Iran go Brách Mansour Bonakdarian,2023-12-05 This book analyzes particular patterns of nationalist self configuration and nationalist uses of memory counter memory and historical amnesia in Ireland from roughly around the time of the emergence of a broad based non sectarian Irish nationalist platform in the late eighteenth century the Society of United Irishmen until Ireland s partition and the founding of the Irish Free State in 1922 In approaching Irish nationalism through the particular historical lens of Iran this book underscores the fact that Irish nationalism during this period and even earlier always utilized a historical paradigm that grounded Anglo Irish encounters and Irish nationalism in the broader world history a process that I term worlding of Ireland In effect Irish nationalism was always politically and culturally cosmopolitan in outlook in some formulations even in the case of many nationalists who resorted to insular and narrowly defined exclusionary ethnic and or religious formulations of the Irish nation Irish nationalists as nationalists in many other parts of the world recurrently imagined their own history either in contrast to or as reflected in the histories of peoples and lands elsewhere even while claiming the historical uniqueness of the Irish experience Present in a wide range of Irish nationalist political cultural and historical utterances were assertions of past and or present affinities with other peoples and lands

Rethinking Art History Donald Preziosi, 1989-01-01 A general overview of the theoretical and institutional history of the discipline of art history Refuting the image of art history as a discipline in crisis Preziosi asserts that many of the dilemmas and contradictions of art history today are not new but can be traced back to problems surrounding the founding of the discipline its institutionalization and its academic expansion since the 1870s Donald Preziosi has written a timely and incisive study of the methods and assumptions of art history in the modern period As the book unfolds one realizes that art history was never as unitary and monolithic as the phrase the discipline of art history suggests but is in fact a complicated and highly contradictory range of practices whose disciplinary coherence may be more mythical than real This is a deliberately discomfiting book however for its clear sightedness rigor and wit it is a book to be welcomed by everyone concerned with the present condition and future direction of visual studies Norman Bryson Harvard University An important and courageous book Rethinking Art History is a rigorous and original contribution to the current post structuralist and postmodernist debates in cultural studies here and abroad Steven Z Levine Bryn Mawr College Through this kind of reading of the discourse of art history Preziosi provides some acute analysis of the metaphors and stratagems which continue to discipline the discipline of art history
