Radical Moves:

Radical Moves Lara Putnam, 2013 Radical Moves Caribbean Migrants and the Politics of Race in the Jazz Age Global Garveyism Ronald J. Stephens, Adam Ewing, 2024-10-15 Illuminating the global impact of Marcus Garvey's Black nationalist philosophy Arguing that the accomplishments of Jamaican activist Marcus Garvey and his followers have been marginalized in narratives of the Black freedom struggle this volume builds on decades of overlooked research to reveal the profound impact of Garvey's post World War I Black nationalist philosophy around the globe and across the twentieth century These essays point to the breadth of Garveyism's spread and its reception in communities across the African diaspora examining the influence of Garvey's Universal Negro Improvement Association UNIA in Africa Australia North America and the Caribbean They highlight the underrecognized work of many Garveyite women and show how the UNIA played a key role in shaping labor unions political organizations churches and schools In addition contributors describe the importance of grassroots efforts for expanding the global movement the UNIA trained leaders to organize local centers of power whose political activism outside the movement helped Garvey's message escape its organizational bounds during the 1920s They trace the imprint of the movement on long term developments such as decolonization in Africa and the Caribbean the pan Aboriginal fight for land rights in Australia the civil rights and Black Power movements in the United States and the radical pan African movement Rejecting the idea that Garveyism was a brief and misguided phenomenon this volume exposes its scope significance and endurance Together contributors assert that Garvey initiated the most important mass movement in the history of the African diaspora and they urge readers to rethink the emergence of modern Black politics with Garveyism at the center Contributors Ronald J Stephens Adam Ewing Keisha N Blain Nicole Bourbonnais Jos Andr s Fern ndez Montes de Oca John Maynard Erik S McDuffie Frances Peace Sullivan Robert Trent Vinson Michael O West Social Movements in Violently Divided Societies John Nagle, 2016-02-26 Violently divided societies present major challenges to institutions seeking to establish peace in places characterised by ethnic conflict and high levels of social segregation Yet such societies also contain groups that refuse to be confined within separate forms of ethnic community and instead develop alternative modes of action that generate shared identities build trust and foster consensual peaceful politics Advancing a unique social movement approach to the study of violently divided societies this book highlights how various social movements function within a context of violent ethnic politics and provide new ways of imagining citizenship that complements peacebuilding By analysing the impact of social movements on divided societies this book contributes to debates about the complexity of belonging and identity and constructs a nuanced understanding of political mobilisation in regions defined by ethnic violence In turn the book provides important insights into the dynamics of social movement mobilisation Based on the author's extensive research in Lebanon and Northern Ireland and drawing on numerous examples from other divided societies this book examines a range of social movements including nationalists victims sexual minorities labour movements feminists
