Johnson, 2024-12-10 Once a lively presence on radio jazz now finds itself relegated to satellite broadcasters and low watt stations at the edge of the dial Aaron J Johnson examines jazz radio from the advent of Black radio in 1948 to its near extinction from the commercial dial after 1980 Even in jazz's heyday programmers and DJs excluded many styles and artists and Johnson delves into how the politics of decision making and the political uses of the medium shaped jazz radio formats Johnson shows radio's role in the contradictory perceptions of jazz as American's model artistic contribution to the world as Black classical music and as the soundtrack of African American rebellion and resistance for much of the twentieth century An interwoven story of a music and a medium Jazz Radio America answers perennial questions about why certain kinds of jazz get played and why even that music is played in so few places Poetry FM Lisa Hollenbach, 2023-05-12 Poetry FM listens back to the experimental period of FM radio's development from the late 1940s to the 1980s to show how American poetry was shaped by and shaped in turn the emergence of a radio counterculture Like FM radio history the literary history of American poetry during this period is defined by waves of opposition to the literary and critical establishment by poets and movements who likewise stressed experimentalism alternative networks of distribution regionalism and community In this study Lisa Hollenbach focuses on two major radio stations Pacifica's KPFA in Berkeley and WBAI in New York to develop an institutionally grounded analysis of how poets' involvement with FM radio contributed to postwar aural imaginaries While poetry programming on Pacifica Radio has always been capacious including poetry from the past as well as contemporary poetry poetry in translation and poetry by unpublished writers Hollenbach focuses on writers who played important roles at these stations and whose work embraces oral poetics and/or radio and sonic tropes These especially include poets associated with the New American Poetry William Everson Kenneth Rexroth Jack Spicer Allen Ginsberg Robert Duncan Paul Blackburn and Amiri Baraka among others who brought the oral poetics of the new poetry to Pacifica Radio's experiment in FM radio But in the 1960s and 1970s the racial gender and sexual politics of both the New American Poetry and the FM revolution came under increasing scrutiny and contestation During these years poets as different as Spicer Ginsberg Baraka and Audre Lorde responded to this terrain of struggle by creating in their poetry performances and radio work alternative aural imaginaries or figurative channels for the transmission of fugitive signals across time and place This is a book about how radio the once dominant mass media form became an underground medium for and key figure in American poetry in the 1950s 1960s and 1970s Continuum
