between practitioners of Christianity Islam and African religious traditions Across Africa Muslims Christians and practitioners of African religious traditions live in shared settings demarcating themselves in opposition to one another and at times engaging in violent conflicts but also being entangled in complex ways and showing unexpected similarities and mutual cross overs However while encounters and entanglements of African religious traditions with either Islam or Christianity have long been a central research issue the configuration as a whole has barely been taken into account even though Muslims Christians and practitioners of African religious traditions have long co existed and still co exist more or less peacefully in many settings in Africa Building on recent interventions to move beyond the compartmentalization of the study of religion in Africa this edited volume will spotlight why and how an integrated approach to Islam Christianity and African religious traditions is important Bringing together stimulating case studies from Kenya Nigeria Zanzibar Ghana and Mozambique that offer new directions for ethnographic and historical research the volume will not only shed light on an important phenomenon out there in the world the long overlooked ways in which Muslims Christians and practitioners of African religious traditions interact with one another in various majority minority configurations but will also engage with a critical rethinking of the study of religion in Africa and beyond

Gender and Story in South India Leela Prasad, Ruth B. Bottigheimer, Lalita Handoo, 2006-09-14 Gender and Story in South

India presents exciting ethnographic research by Indian women scholars on Hindu and Muslim women centered oral narratives The book is unique for its geographic and linguistic focus on South India for its inclusion of urban and rural locales of narration and for its exploration of shared Hindu and Muslim female space Drawing on the worldviews of South Indian female narrators in both everyday and performative settings the contributors lead readers away from customary and comfortable assumptions about gender distinctions in India to experience a more dialogical poetically ordered moral universe that is sensitive to women s material and spiritual lives Book jacket
