Building New Bridges - Bâtir de nouveaux ponts Jeff Keshen, Sylvie Perrier, 2005-06-30 Questions of methodology and the use of sources are fundamental to all academic disciplines In recent years this topic has become far more challenging as scholars are increasingly adopting an interdisciplinary approach to achieve richer and deeper analyses particularly in the humanities and social sciences Building New Bridges B tir de nouveaux ponts is a collection of scholarly papers that deals with the first principles of source identification and their effective utilization The contributors to the volume come from a wide range of disciplines and represent both French and English Canada Together they explore and encourage the interdisciplinarity trend around which considerable academic trepidation remains and seek to explain for example how historians and those in English or Lettres fran aises analyze texts how scholars approach paintings photography and film and how the study of music relates tempo and lyrics to wider societal trends They utilize their respective research to elucidate means of effectively employing evidences and methods to achieve richer deeper and more nuanced results As a whole the collection provides an excellent primer for scholars of methodology Published in English Kido Art Gregory,2012 The origins of KIDO date back to 1920 and the experimental radio station 7YA at Boise High School In 1922 chemistry teacher Harry Redeker was granted a limited commercial license and the call letters KFAU Redeker left the school in 1927 and in 1928 the Boise Independent School District sold KFAU to Frank L Hill and C G Phillips who changed the station s call letters to KIDO Over the next 30 years Kiddo Phillips and his wife Georgia achieved many firsts in Idaho broadcasting including securing NBC as the state s first network affiliation In 1942 Curt G Phillips suddenly passed away Georgia remarried and became Georgia Davidson going on to build KIDO FM and KIDO TV which were both among the first in the state In 1959 she sold KIDO Radio to William E Boeing Jr of Seattle who owned KIDO for the next 17 years It is this period of KIDO s rich history from 1920 to 1976 that this book will cover Radio Critics and Popular Culture Paul Rixon,2018-04-20 Radio still remains an important form of media with millions listening to it daily It has been reborn for the digital era and is an area where there is great interest in its development role and form Attempting to fill the gap in research on British radio criticism this volume explores the development and role of radio criticism in the discourse around radio in Britain from its birth in the 1920s up to present day Using a historical approach to explore how as radio emerged the press provided coverage which helped shape and reflect radio s position in popular culture Paul Rixon delivers an interesting and engaging exploration that provides a cultural perspective on radio with a specific focus on newspaper criticism Radio Critics and Popular Culture is an innovative and original addition to existing research and will be invaluable for those interested in the way that British radio has evolved Bay Area Radio John F. networks soon set up their own broadcast production centers and for the next 20 years thousands of actors musicians announcers and engineers were creating important programs that were heard on the West Coast as well as nationwide During World War II San Francisco became the key collection center for Pacific war news and bulletins received in San Francisco were quickly relayed to an anxious nation Conversely powerful shortwave stations broadcast war news and propaganda back to the Pacific and entertained American troops overseas
