Canadian Books in Print, 1998     Canadiana, 1991     Viola Desmond's Canada Graham

Reynolds, 2016-03-30T00:00:00Z In 1946 Viola Desmond was wrongfully arrested for sitting in a whites only section of a movie theatre in New Glasgow Nova Scotia In 2010 the Nova Scotia Government recognized this gross miscarriage of justice and posthumously granted her a free pardon Most Canadians are aware of Rosa Parks who refused to give up her seat on a racially segregated bus in Alabama but Viola Desmond s act of resistance occurred nine years earlier However many Canadians are still unaware of Desmond s story or that racial segregation existed throughout many parts of Canada during most of the twentieth century On the subject of race Canadians seem to exhibit a form of collective amnesia Viola Desmond s Canada is a groundbreaking book that provides a concise overview of the narrative of the Black experience in Canada Reynolds traces this narrative from slavery under French and British rule in the eighteenth century to the practice of racial segregation and the fight for racial equality in the twentieth century Included are personal recollections by Wanda Robson Viola Desmond s youngest sister together with important but previously unpublished documents and other primary sources in the history of Blacks in Canada NEW Teaching Guide Available Here     CRM, 1997     Canadian Railway and Marine World, 1927     Documentary Television in Canada David Hogarth, 2002-04-22 He concludes with a discussion of the recent international success of documentary television as one of Canada s leading cultural exports examining the effects of globalization and looking forward to the future of this genre While principally an overview of the last half century and an analysis of current conditions Documentary Television in Canada also includes detailed analysis of selected programs such as the For the Record series on schizophrenia Warrendale by Allan King Images of Canada by Vincent Tovell The Valour and The Horror episode Death by Moonlight and Shooting Indians by Ali Kazimi among others     Canada's Holy Grail Jordan B. Goldstein, 2021-11-01 In 1892 Lord Frederick Arthur Stanley donated the Dominion Hockey Challenge Cup later known as the Stanley Cup to crown the first Canadian hockey champions Canada s Holy Grail documents Lord Stanley s personal politics his desire to affect Canadian nationality and unity and the larger transformations in Anglo liberal political thought at the time This book posits that the Stanley Cup fit directly within Anglo American traditions of using sport to promote ideas of the national and the donation of the cup occurred at a moment in history when Canadian nationalists needed identifying symbols Jordan B Goldstein asserts that only with a transformation in Anglo liberal thought could the state legitimately act through culture to affect national identity Drawing on primary source documentation from Lord Stanley s archives as well as statements by politicians and hockey enthusiasts Canada s Holy Grail integrates political thought into the realm of sport history through the discussion of a championship trophy that still stands as one of the most well known and recognized Canadian national symbols     Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd, 2019-10-09 The

Making Spaces through Infrastructure Marian Burchardt, Dirk Laak, 2023-07-04 Infrastructures are fundamental means through which societies create spaces but little is known about the precise ways in which this occurs How have infrastructures animated certain understandings of space How do infrastructures stabilize or undermine the spatial formats in which we live which shape our everyday practices and which regulate access to services and resources And conversely how do spaces frame the ways infrastructural provision is organized How do existing spaces shape infrastructural development and the scope and forms of access to vital services such as transport and water In this volume historians and sociologists draw on a range of fascinating case studies and provide compelling answers to these questions Exploring among others the provision of irrigation water in nineteenth century Los Angeles the invention of airport transit zones and the infrastructural practices of homeless people in Berlin the book demonstrates how the making of spaces through infrastructure is deeply political Intent on revealing uneven geographies of provision and hierarchies of access the contributors highlight how infrastructures are products of global entanglements
