Approaches to the African Novel Charles E. Nnolim, 2010 This Third Edition of Approaches to the African Novel is a child of necessity Because of the unfortunate death of the publisher of Saros International who issued the First Edition and high demand this third enlarged edition has become imperative Three new essays all previously published are added two expectedly on Achebe the father of the African novel and one on Mongp Beti's Mission to Kala which was partially anthologised in Contemporary Literary Criticism Volume 27 1984 Achebe's Things Fall Apart as an Igbo national epic has evoked a spate of reactions from critics of African literature especially the troika Chinweizu et al in Toward the Decolonization of African Literature It was also anthologised in Modern Black Literature edited by S Okechukwu Menu 1971 The essay on Arrow of God whose structure and meaning has been largely avoided by other critics is included here for further airing For gender balance as the previous volume contained no essays on women writers an essay on Flora Nwapa has been added Since the novels discussed in this volume exclusively are on the African literature south of the Sahara the last essay on Peter Abrahams comes in to round out this collection of essays with a study of a south African writer for geographical balance
Eudaimonia Richard M. Maldonado, 2019-04-25 The inspiration behind my poetry comes from some of life's experiences while other poems were directly inspired by people Love for the spoken word is a blessing and the need to share them comes from a deep rooted belief that a blessing should never be kept to one's self They are meant to be shared with the hope that others find them moving impactful and inspiring
