Burning Rainbow Farm Dean Kuipers, 2008-12-01 Visit www.burningrainbowfarm.com On a mission to build a peaceful pot friendly Shangri La Tom Crosslin and his lover Rollie Rohm founded Rainbow Farm a well appointed campground and concert venue tucked away in rural Southwest Michigan The farm quickly became the center of marijuana and environmental activism in Michigan drawing thousands of blue collar libertarians and hippie liberals evangelicals and militiamen to its annual hemp festivals People came from all over the country to support Tom and Rollie s libertarian brand of patriotism They loved America but didn't like the War on Drugs As Rainbow Farm launched a popular statewide ballot initiative to change marijuana laws local authorities who had scarcely tolerated Rainbow Farm in the past began an all out campaign to shut the place down Finally in May 2001 Tom and Rollie were arrested for growing marijuana Rollie's 11 year old son who grew up on Rainbow Farm was placed in foster care Tom would never see him again Faced with mandatory jail terms and the loss of the farm Tom and Rollie never showed up for their August court date Instead the state's two best known pot advocates burned Rainbow Farm to the ground in protest County officials called the FBI and within five days Tom and Rollie were dead Obscured by the attacks of September 11 their stories will be told here for the first time Finding the Rainbow Traci
