Raindrops And Sawdust:

Raindrops and Sawdust Afton W. Minga, 2003-02 A selection of essay columns on a variety of subjects from whimsy to political as the name Grimm might suggest Serious to tongue in cheek written by an acknowledged activist to be read by all ages Sometimes shocking in content labeled as opinionated as that produced by an opinion writer should be and therefore offensive to certain people without all the usual four letter words so often used to attract attention by the semi literate or less skilled writer

Is There Any Justice? W.J. Bed David Whitehouse, 2011-08-02

Reminiscent of such novels as A Confederacy of Dunces and The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night Time Bed is a darkly funny and surprisingly tender debut novel about two brothers one of whom refuses to leave his bed on his twenty fifth birthday Mal Ede a child of untamed manners and unbounded curiosity is the eccentric eldest son of an otherwise typical middle class family But as the wonders of childhood fade into the responsibilities of adulthood Mal's spirits fade too On his twenty fifth birthday disillusioned Mal goes to bed back to his childhood bed and never emerges again Narrated by Mal's shy diligent younger brother Bed details Mal's subsequent extreme and increasingly grotesque transformation immobility and a gargantuan appetite combine over the course of two decades to make him the fattest man in the world Despite his seclusion and his refusal to explain his motivations Mal's condition earns him worldwide notoriety and a cult of followers convinced he is making an important statement about modern life But Mal's actions will also change the lives of his haunted parents his brother and the woman they both love Lou In Bed David Whitehouse has put a magnifying glass on contemporary society Hailed as a momentous The Bookseller debut in the UK Bed is a mordantly funny and ultimately redemptive parable about mortality obesity celebrity depression and the broken promises of adulthood It is one of the most audacious debut novels in
